HUERTA INFORMS WILSON THAT HE LACKS SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Some Tart Intimations by the Mexican General in His Reply to the Note Delivered by Lind.

HUERTA BLAMES WILSON FOR MEXICAN CIVIL WAR

He Says if Wilson Had Not Refused Recognition Peace Would Have Been Restored. He Warns Wilson His Power Is Only Temporary.

Washington, August 20.—Intimations are contained in provisional President Huerta's reply to the American note presented by John Lind that President Wilson is not backed up by congress or the American people in his stand against recognition of the Huerta government.

Referring to the attacks on the Washington administration by members of congress and pointing to the official recommendations of Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson advising recognition, Huerta declares he is entitled to be recognized. He holds that the democratic party's power is temporary, and argues that recognition of his government is a partisan question in the United States. He intimates that he reaches his conclusion on private advice from Washington.

This information was obtained tonight from those who know the contents of the Huerta note so far as it has been deciphered. The complete note is not yet at hand, but the principal argument has been placed before administration officials.

Neither side is receding. Though negotiations between John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson and Provisional President Huerta are continuing on a cordial personal basis, neither side is receding from its position, and alternative measures already are under consideration here. No definite course has been formulated, but the policy which at present is under consideration, and is most likely to be adopted is one of absolute non-interference.

The American government under such a policy would continue to deny arms to both sides, would withdraw Americans from trouble zones, insist on proper protection to property and lives, and, in effect, let the Mexicans continue their controversy on the battlefield.

The administration is determined against intervention or war, and the other alternative, friendly mediation, apparently has failed. Officials here believe, however, that the United States, through the mission of Mr. Lind, will have satisfied foreign governments generally of its desire to

CARDS ARE STACKED TO PUT HARRY THAW ON AMERICAN SOIL

Canadian Immigration Authorities Plan to Drop Stanford White's Slayer in Vermont Sometime Tonight.

IMMIGRATION BUREAU SUPERIOR TO COURTS

If Thaw Wins in Court Inspectors Propose to Seize Him and Rush Him Over Border—Thaw Worried.

"GIVE HIM A CHANCE!" SHOUT THE CANADIANS. Sherbrooke, August 20.—Sentiment in Sherbrooke is distinctly in Harry Thaw's favor. A crowd which greeted him at the station when he arrived from Coaticook shouted: "Let him go! Set him free! He hasn't done anything to us! Give him a chance!"

Sherbrooke, Quebec, August 20.—Harry K. Thaw will be across the American border in the state of Vermont by tomorrow night if tomorrow's events in the case of the fugitive from Matteawan shape themselves as Canadian officials in close touch with the proceedings anticipate.

This was the semi-official intimation here tonight as Thaw awaits a hearing on the habeas corpus writ his counsel secured today.

It is not denied that official opinion inclines to the belief that the habeas corpus proceedings will result in Thaw being declared a free man. What will follow, the plans of the immigration authorities indicate, lies in the hands of Inspectors D. H. Reynolds and F. E. Williams, of Ottawa. These two officials, immediately Thaw is released by the court, it is understood, will take him into custody as an undesirable under the immigration act and rush the fugitive to Coaticook.

At the immigration office the formal deportation proceedings will be conducted in the form of an official inquiry into the manner of Thaw's entrance into the country, and his past history, which it is held debars him from remaining in Canada.

To Drop Thaw in Vermont. These formalities ended, he will be taken on board a Grand Trunk train and conveyed to the border, where Messrs. Reynolds and Williams will hand him over to the American authorities.

The point of deportation indicated will be Island Pond, Vermont, the nearest border station on the Grand Trunk, about twenty miles south of Coaticook. The "through ticket" to Detroit on which Thaw, it is understood, hopes to evade the immigration authorities and continue his journey through Quebec, and Ontario to the state of Michigan, will not serve that purpose. If the information of the immigration officials is correct. Though they have not yet been shown the ticket by Thaw, they have learned that it was purchased in Coaticook and reads from that point to Detroit. It is not, therefore, a ticket from the American station, via Canada, to another foreign point, and does not qualify as "through" transportation.

The possible hitch in the deportation plan would be a further writ of habeas corpus calling upon the immigration authorities to show cause why Thaw is not eligible to enter Canada. This would further delay action.

Facing such a situation, Stanford White's erratic slayer, ordinarily loquacious, has shut his lips tight and

BLAMING THE GIRL DIDN'T SAVE DIGGS FROM FEDERAL PEN

He's Found Guilty on Four Counts Out of Six and May Be Sentenced for Twenty Years.

CAMINETTI TO BE TRIED ON A SIMILAR CHARGE

In Summing Up, Diggs' Attorney Didn't Palliate Offense But, Like His Client, Blamed the Girl.

San Francisco, Cal., August 20.—In eloping with Marsha Warrington from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., Maury I. Diggs, former state architect of California, was guilty of violating the Mann act, which makes it a felony to transport women for immoral purposes from one state to another. This was the verdict tonight of the jury that tried him.

After being out three hours and five minutes, the jury returned to ask the court what form the verdict should take if they were agreed on some of the counts in the indictment and not on the others.

Judge Van Fleet instructed them to make their findings on these counts as to which they were agreed. A verdict of guilty on any one count, he said, would be a verdict of guilty of violating the statute, and would carry the penalty imposed by the statute.

Diggs May Get 20 Years. There were six counts in the indictment, and the jury found a verdict of guilty on the first four. Each count carries a maximum penalty of five years and a minimum of one year in a federal penitentiary.

Diggs, his wife, father, mother and his three aunts, Mrs. Drew Caminetti and Mrs. Anthony Caminetti, were in court, waiting for the verdict. Diggs was pale, and his wife showed the tension she was under by the twitching of her lips, and the lessened bloom of her rich color.

The questions of the foreman clearly foreshadowed the coming verdict and gave them time to steel themselves for the final shock. "There was no

After Wounding the Turpentine Operator She Kills Herself.

Savannah, Ga., August 20.—John F. Hall, a prominent turpentine operator living near Hazlehurst, Ga., was shot in the leg last night by a negro woman dressed in men's clothing. After shooting Mr. Hall the woman took poison, ending her life. The coroner's verdict was suicide.

SON DISCOVERS FATHER TAKING LIFE WITH GAS

Quick Medical Attention Saves Lawrence Louis, of Hazlehurst, From Death.

Hazlehurst, Ga., August 20.—(Special.)—Seated in a chair with a rubber tube between his lips while gas from a stove poured into his lungs, Lawrence Louis, who conducts a restaurant on West Broad street, was found in an unconscious condition early this morning when his son, Robert Louis, broke into the store. The elder Louis was hurried to the Savannah hospital in the police ambulance, and, although physicians have been working on him almost constantly, his condition is yet uncertain.

Relatives of Louis agree that his act this morning was an effort to end his life. They attribute mental worry as the cause.

Louis has two sons who are in ill health. In addition he has been worried over the condition of his business. Despondency over the condition is believed to have made him determine to end his life.

HOTEL AT UNION CITY DESTROYED BY FLAMES

25 Guests of the Reid House Narrowly Escape Cremation.

Union City, Ga., August 21.—(Special.)—The twenty-five guests of the Reid hotel at this place narrowly escaped from death this morning when fire was discovered in the building. Within a few minutes after the fire call was sounded the hotel was a mass of flames, and nothing but a few personal effects were saved.

Valiant work on the part of the volunteer fire department saved the office building of the farmers' union, a two-story $10,000 brick structure, next to the hotel. The Reid hotel was a frame structure, valued at $4,500. Fire was caused by a defective flue, it is said.

U. S. JUDGE SPEER MAY LOSE POSITION BY IMPEACHMENT

Serious Charges, Presented by Department of Justice, Are Being Considered by House Judiciary Committee.

WASTING OF ESTATES CHARGED TO THE JUDGE

One Allegation Says Speer Named Son-in-Law Bankruptcy Referee and Awarded Exorbitant Fees.

Washington, August 20.—Charges, which, if sustained, may be the foundation of another impeachment case in the senate are made against Federal Judge Emory Speer, of the fifth Georgia circuit, in papers considered today in a carefully guarded session of the house judiciary committee.

The committee had before it the report of an investigation into Judge Speer's conduct by Special Examiner R. C. Lewis, submitted by the department of justice, along with numerous affidavits and other exhibits. No action was taken, the committee adjourning until Friday, and each member pledging himself not to discuss the charges in the meantime.

It is possible that at Friday's session of the house the matter may be formally brought up with a view of outlining a plan of action by the committee in the event it should determine to report the charges to the house, either favorably or unfavorably.

Most Serious Charges Against Speer. The most serious charges dealt with in the examiner's report are: That Judge Speer unlawfully permitted the wasting or dissipation of bankruptcy estates that came within his jurisdiction as a federal judge.

That he presided in cases in which his son-in-law was an attorney on a contingent fee, with full knowledge that his decision would affect the fee of his son-in-law.

That he was guilty of imposing unlawful punishments for contempt in cases coming before his court.

That he ignored the mandates of the

TRIAL NEARING END AND LEO M. FRANK SHOULD KNOW FATE BY NEXT SATURDAY

Shortly After 4 O'Clock Wednesday Afternoon the State Announced Closed—There Was a Short Discussion About Admission of Certain Documentary Evidence, and Prisoner Was Then Put Back on Stand to Give Him Opportunity to Deny Certain Statements Made by Witnesses After His Story Told to Jury on Tuesday Afternoon.

FRANK HOOPER OPENS FOR THE STATE TODAY; NO TIME LIMIT IS SET

State Renewed Its Pitiless Attack on Frank's Character Early in Morning, and Some Ten or More Girls Who Once Worked at National Pencil Factory Swore That Character of Superintendent Was Bad—Two Testified They Had Seen Frank Go Into Dressing Room With Girl Who Had Testified for the Defense.

The Frank trial has entered in on its last long leg.

Saturday should write final to the most famous case in the annals of Georgia crime, and Leo M. Frank should know his fate.

Hundreds of witnesses have been on the stand to give testimony for and against Frank. They have witnessed the fire of cross-examination or fallen beneath the barbed shafts of pointed questions. Experts have disagreed and wrangled on the fundamentals of the human system; character witnesses have painted Frank as a paragon of the virtues or pictured him as a man utterly devoid of the elements of common decency.

A white man of college education and hitherto spotless reputation has been pitted against an ignorant negro who is no stranger to crime and the chain-gang. A city of over 150,000 souls has been divided on the subject of the white man's or the negro's guilt or innocence.

END OF IT ALL NEAR AT HAND.

The end of it all is near. The city looks forward with relief to the verdict—whatever it may be—for the people of Atlanta have centered their attention on this trial as never before in history.

The verdict? No man can answer the question. Time alone, which has been taking toll of the seconds and minutes and hours and days and weeks of the trial, can tell. The faces of the jurors who sit through the interminable hours of question and cross-question, of quibble and of contention are as masques which completely hide their emotion. No human being can peer within and read the minds of these men. Mayhap they have made up their minds. Again, it may be they are waiting for the argument—the

Frank Hooper Opens Argument In Leo Frank Case This Morning

The opening argument in the Frank trial will be made at 9 o'clock this morning by Attorney Frank B. Hooper, associate counsel for the defense.

Two hours probably will be occupied by each man in the closing arguments. Judge Roan, in a short talk to the attorneys for each side, cautioned them against long argument, and insisted that each man dwell only on the facts of the case and the evidence.

No time limit was set, although the prediction is widespread that no more than two hours will be occupied by each man.

TELEGRAPH OFFICIAL IDENTIFIES FRANK'S MESSAGE TO MONTAG

Following the departure of his three medical experts, Solicitor Hugh Dorsey introduced in evidence a telegram addressed to Adolph Montag, care the Imperial hotel, New York city, and dated April 28 and purported to be signed by Leo M. Frank.

The telegram which the defense allowed to go in without objection or denial of its authenticity, is as follows:

"Atlanta, Ga., April 28, 1913—Adolph Montag, Imperial hotel, New York city: You may have read in Atlanta papers of factory girl found dead Sunday morning in cellar of pencil factory. Police will eventually solve it. Assure my uncle I am all right, in case he asks. Our company has case well in hand. Leo M. Frank.

A. M. Beattie, local manager of the Postal Telegraph company, was then put on the stand.

"Did Frank send a telegram over your line on April 28?"

"Yes."

"What are its contents?"

"Your honor," said the witness, addressing Judge Roan, "my company forbids my disclosing the contents of a telegram unless so ordered by the court, do you order that?"

"You are so ordered when the question is asked you on the witness stand and is allowed as relevant," replied the judge.

Manager Beattie then stated that the telegram was the same one which the solicitor had just read.

W. G. Peebles, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, followed the local manager for the rival concern to the stand.

After he had put himself through the formalities of being ordered by the court to disclose the contents of telegrams sent through his office he placed in the hands of the solicitor two telegrams regarding the Frank case. When the solicitor found that neither had been signed by Leo Frank he declared that he had no wish to put them in evidence and Mr. Peebles was excused.

DOOR TO CELLAR WAS NOT LOCKED, WITNESSES DECLARE

W. W. (Boots) Rogers was called by the prosecution Wednesday afternoon for the third time. He told of finding a mound of shavings at the opening of the shaft leading from the first floor of the basement.

"At any time on the Sunday of the discovery did you or not try to go upstairs leading from the basement?"

"Yes."

"What was their condition?"

"They were dirty and dusty and looked as if they hadn't been swept in considerable while."

"Do you know whether or not the door was locked?"

"No."

"He was not subjected to cross-examination."

Sergeant W. S. Dobbs, who was with the party of policemen who answered Newt Lee's call on the morning of the 27th, was put on the stand following Rogers.

"Did you go up the stairway leading from the basement?" Solicitor Dorsey questioned.

"Yes."

"Was the door locked or unlocked?"

"It was locked."

"Did you see the shavings of the pencils? How were they situated with reference to the door?"

"I didn't notice."

"At this juncture Rogers was recalled to the stand. He told of seeing these shavings, which he said were heaped in a small mound near the mouth of the chute.

FIGURES DID NOT CORRESPOND WITH AMOUNT DUE GIRL

J. W. Coleman, step-father of the murdered girl, was called by the prosecution to tell of the amount of pay drawn by Mary.

"Do you remember the conversation you had with Detective McWorth of the Pinkertons?" he was asked by Dorsey.

"Yes, he showed me a pay envelope and said he had found it in the pencil factory."

"What figures did it have on it as to money?"

"The figures one and five."

"What did you tell him?"

"I told him the numbers did not correspond to the amount drawn by Mary that day."

"What was she supposed to have drawn?"

"$1.20."

No cross-examination.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE SUBMITTED BY STATE

Prior to the closing of the state's case, the solicitor tendered the following documentary evidence:

Parts of the testimony at the inquest of Hattie Hall, Frank's stenographer. Affidavit of Wade Campbell, made May 12, pertaining to visit of Mrs. Arthur White to the factory and to the negro whom she saw loitering on the first floor. Certain parts of Minola McKnight's testimony, in which strong objection was made by the defense. It was admitted, however.

The bloody shirt found at New Lee's home.

The written statement of Charles Lee relative to the accident in October, 1912, to Duffy, the watchman.

Evidence of Schiff before the coroner.

Certified copies of police records showing the number of arraignments of Jim Conley before the recorder.

Handwriting of the defendant identified by his mother.

Cabbage specimens submitted by Dr. Roy Harsh, all of which had previously been admitted.

Pay envelope found on second floor by Barrett.

Affidavit of E. F. Holloway, in which Dorsey declares he was entrapped.

Parts of testimony at the inquest of Mrs. Joseph Selig and Emil Selig.

Following which the state's case was closed at 4:59 o'clock.

TESTIMONY OF HOLLIS ASSAILED BY WITNESS

J. B. Reed, a tillayer, told of a talk with W. T. Hollis, a conductor, who he declared, had expressed sorrow at having brought Mary Phagan into town on the last trip, that she was slain. Hollis, just previously, had denied making such a statement.

"Do you know W. T. Hollis?" the solicitor asked the witness.

"Yes."

"Can you talk with him about Mary Phagan riding his car into town?"

"Yes, on Monday following the murder. I got on his car at Broad and Hunter streets, and he told me that it made him feel sad to think that he was the last man to bring her into town on the day she was killed. He said a boy named Epps had got on the car and had ridden into town with her."

He was not put under cross-examination.

HE SAW DALTON ENTER FACTORY WITH WOMEN

A mild sensation was sprung in the courtroom when D. B. May, a salesman for the Swift company, went to the stand, testifying that he had seen C. B. Dalton go into the pencil plant on Saturday afternoons with women.

"When did you see Dalton go into the factory with a woman?" he was asked by Dorsey.

"In July, 1912, on Saturday afternoon, was his reply."

CARTERSVILLE'S WATER COMES FROM ETOWAH

Cartersville, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—The new filtering plant at the Cartersville water works has been completed, and the people of this city are now drinking the water from the Etowah river. The new plant is said to be one of the finest and most modern made in this state. It has been constructed by the people here is several times more pure and sterile than distilled water.

For many years the water used by the city of Cartersville has come from a spring near the banks of the river, but it was strong of lime. A two-million-gallon reservoir has been built upon a high promontory near the city, which gives a large reserve supply as could be desired for a city of this size, and the pressure has been greatly enhanced, making the city more secure than ever from fire.

The new reservoir and the increased pressure on the mains will necessitate a new system of pipes all over the city and a part of the $110,000 bond issue, which was authorized by the people last Saturday will be used for the purpose of laying the new main pipes. A complete sewerage system will also be constructed costing about $75,000.

CONDUCTOR BEHEADED BY HIS OWN TRAIN

Dalton, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—Conductor Ed Salmon, of a north-bound Southern local, was instantly killed when run down by his own train near the Waugh street crossing at 11:30 o'clock this morning. His head was completely severed from the body, being picked up along side the track. He was supervising placing some cars on a side track when killed. His home was in Rome.

BLACK MARIA CHASES FUGITIVE IN BUGGY

Rome, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—A midnight chase of a buggy containing a fugitive from justice, by officers in the automobile "Black Maria," endeavored the police department of Rome last night, when M. J. Elrod, wanted for keeping liquor on hand for the purpose of illegal sale, was captured by three policemen.

Starnes Tells How Affidavit From Negro Cook Was Secured

John Starnes, prosecutor of Leo Frank, was put up to tell about the Minola McKnight affidavit.

"Did you investigate the scuttle hole around the elevator?" was Dorsey's first question.

An objection by the defense was overruled.

"See any blood spots there?"

"No."

"Now, tell the jury about the Minola McKnight affidavit."

"Pat Campbell and I arrested her at the solicitor's office. We had gone to get a statement from her husband. We also had information from this husband that she had made the identical statement which she made in the affidavit. The next day, Mr. Craven and Mr. Pickett came to police headquarters. They were sent into the room with Minola. She said upon request, that she preferred to talk to them. We left them alone with her. When she finished with her statement, I said, 'Minola, we only want the truth, and if this isn't the truth, we don't want it.' She said that it was the whole truth. Her attorney, Mr. Gordon, was waiting on the outside. I conferred with him frequently. I don't recall any demand that he made except for admission. When he went into the room, the statement was half finished. It was read over to him, and he left shortly afterwards, presumably for the solicitor's office. The statement had been typewritten when he returned. It was read over to him, and he asked Minola a number of questions about it."

"Was she held upon my authority?" asked the solicitor.

"No."

"Did I direct you to free her?"

"No."

"Cross-examination, by Rosser: 'What authority did you have to arrest her?'"

"The feeling of an honest and conscientious officer who thought she ought to have been arrested."

"Did you have any warrant?"

"No."

"Did Dorsey know you were going to lock her up?"

"I suppose he did."

"He didn't protest against it because it was against the law?"

"No."

"She was carried from Dorsey's office screaming and hysterical, wasn't she?"

"Yes."

"And declaring that she had told all she knew?"

"I don't think she said that."

"Your purpose was to get her to make another statement besides the one that didn't suit you, eh?"

"My purpose was to get the truth."

"Did your telephone Dorsey at any time?"

"My recollection is that I called him to tell that Minola had made the statement."

"Why did you call him?"

"He was representing the state in the state's case on which we were working."

NEGRO IS ARRESTED ON CHARGES MADE BY FRIGHTENED GIRL

Cartersville, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—A great deal of excitement was occasioned this morning in the upper part of Bartow county by an attempt to stop a 13-year-old girl, who was walking along the right-of-way of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, near Fairmont. "Hill was arrested by Sheriff Smith and an armed posse and brought to Cartersville, where he was jailed in jail.

The young girl, Miss Alred, is said to have been walking along the railroad toward Fairmont when she noticed the negro sitting on the side of the road at the top of an embankment. When she saw him it is said that she attempted to avoid meeting the negro, but that the black made an effort to prevent her from passing him by walking to meet her, thereby cutting her off. At this, it is declared, the girl ran through a corn field to the farmhouse of a neighbor, where she told her story of the fright that had been given her by the negro.

Horticultural Society Adjourns Sessions After Very Interesting Meeting

Cornelia, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—The first semi-annual session of the Georgia State Horticultural society adjourned this afternoon. The morning was devoted to many interesting discussions on orchard heating, packing apples, orchard management and home ornamentation as well as vegetable gardening. The society appointed committees to investigate the subject of apple packages, apple freight rates, and passed resolutions thanking the city of Clayton for its hospitality as well as thanking the out-of-state speakers.

Invitations were submitted to the society from several cities of the state, but this question was laid over for consideration at the winter meeting, which will be held during January. After adjournment the members of the organization were tendered a barbecue by the city of Clayton. The secretary was instructed to convey the thanks of the society to the inviting cities and to the city of Clayton.

Most of the delegates left on the southbound train at 3:00. Many growers remained to enjoy the mountains for the remainder of the summer.

ROME DESIRES BRANCH OF NATIONAL HIGHWAY

Rome, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—The county commissioners of Floyd county have instructed the county clerk to take up with the Georgia delegation in congress the question of securing a branch of the proposed Johnston-Sherman highway through this county. The present plan makes the nearest point to Rome, Kingston, in Bartow county, which is 17 miles away. The historic fact is, however, that while Sherman's army did not visit Rome, our troops were frequently in and out of this section, and for several months a detachment of federal soldiers made this point their headquarters and directed military operations from here.

White Oak Camp Meeting

Thomson, Ga., August 20.—(Special).—White Oak camping will open on Friday, August 22. Rev. W. T. Hamby, presiding elder of the Augusta district, will have direction of the services. The local pastors, Rev. Wallace Rogers and Rev. J. M. Fowler, will be on hand. The visiting ministers will be Rev. C. A. Pattillo, D. D., and Rev. C. C. Jarrell.

A VISITOR

A representative of one of the large stores in another southern city visited us the other day; in fact his is the leading store of a very fine, hustling city.

As we were taking him around from one floor to another of the furniture store he took occasion to notice and remark about and the reductions from regular prices that they show.

His remark was that the reductions were greater than those of his store's August furniture sale and more general.

The fact is interesting and impressive in so far as it points out that the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose "Blue Tag" Furniture Sale is an opportunity that Atlantans might travel unavailing miles and miles to find the equal of and that out-of-towners may look upon with all confidence and so time their purchases.

Hearing of Her Daughter's Death, Mrs. G. W. Boyer
Collapses Upon Reaching Hotel in Millen.

Savannah, Ga., August 20.—(Special.)—Prostrate with grief because she was too late to reach her daughter's bedside before the end came, Mrs. G. W. Boyer, of Williamsport, Pa., mother of Mrs. Florence Boyer Godbee who died last night at Millen from bullets fired by the divorced Mrs. Godbee, passed through Savannah today on her way to Millen.

"I want to see justice done," said Mrs. Boyer. "I have no vindictive feelings toward the first Mrs. Godbee, but I want the law to take its course." When asked whether or not she thought the first Mrs. Godbee insane, Mrs. Boyer appeared to resent the question, and replied sharply, "No."

Mrs. Boyer's son, the brother of the slain woman, is expected to reach Millen tomorrow morning. Mrs. Godbee, the slayer, still maintains her attitude of reticence. She still declines to make even the briefest statement about the case. Her attorneys have advised to this effect, it is understood.

Laughs Over Tragedy.

Mrs. Godbee was arrested and jailed within thirty minutes after the tragedy. After the shooting she calmly walked by Judge Godbee's dead body and started toward home. After she had walked a short distance she was overtaken by Sheriff M. G. Johnson, who took her to jail. On the way to the jail she laughed about the shooting. She said she had to kill both, but wanted to kill Mrs. Florence Godbee first. She was shot three times in the back, one ball going through the right lung, one lodging in the left lung and the third piercing the lower stomach through a hip.

Back of this tragedy is a long list of marital troubles ending in Mrs. Edna Godbee suing Judge Godbee for divorce. He was wealthy, and in her suit she asked for a large sum as alimony. She gained her divorce, but lost the alimony, and was bitterly disappointed. This was about five years ago.

Married Third Time.
Early this year Judge Godbee married Miss Florence Boyer, of Williamsport, Pa. This was his third marriage. His first wife died years ago. The last marriage was another bitter disappointment to Mrs. Edna Godbee. She lived at her home here with her daughter, Miss Sarah Godbee, 18 years old. There are two other children—Frank Godbee, of Swainsboro, and King Godbee, of Augusta.

With folk dances, games and competitive drills, the annual rally day of the Atlanta playground children, marking the close of the season, will be held at 3:30 o'clock. Several hundred children, gathered from six playgrounds, will participate in what will mark the closing of the most successful year since the playgrounds were established. The closing of the colored playgrounds will be held this afternoon and Friday morning.

NEGRO SHOTS DOWN

AND MAKES ESCAPE

Greenville, Ga., August 20.—J. C. Marchman, a farmer, was shot and instantly killed near here late today by Walter Brewster, a negro, whom Marchman was bringing to Greenville for trial on a trivial charge. Sheriff Jarrell and a posse, with bloodhounds, are searching for Brewster tonight.

DELAY IN SIGNING BILL
DISQUALIFIES VOTERS

Macon, Ga., August 20.—(Special.)—The inability of Governor Slaton to sign the bill annexing Cherokee Heights to the city of Macon before today makes it impossible for the residents of that section of the city to vote in the coming municipal primary. The signing of the bill three days earlier would have made this possible. The law is that people must reside in the city three months before being qualified to vote. The election will be held on November 13, just 87 days from today.

In Favor of McDonald.

Washington, August 20.—The house elections committee today agreed unanimously to report in favor of seating William J. McDonald, progressive, for the twelfth Michigan district. H. Olin Young, republican, resigned the seat because he believed McDonald had been beaten on a technicality.

Institutes Discontinued Through Lack of Funds

Athens, Ga., August 20.—(Special.)—There will be no farmers' institutes conducted from the state college of agriculture next year. This year's institutes, going out on three routes simultaneously, have reached to date more than forty thousand adult farmers who attended the sessions and took part in the work. In only one county was there a failure of the institute for lack of a crowd—and there the meeting was not advertised locally through an oversight in some way.

New High School for Royston.

Don't Rely on Your Friend In the Swimming Pool

By Isma Dooly

Once I heard a man apologizing to another man because he had not been at the lodge the night he was initiated. "You need not apologize," said the new Mason, "I had more friends there that night than I wanted."

I think all people who are learning to swim feel the same way about their friends. The friends are the last ones to try to teach you or to be trusted. They will let you go down every time and then laugh themselves sick over it and tell it until they see some other friend making the same frantic effort, and they begin on that one.

OH, YES, IT'S VERY EASY TO LEARN TO SWIM.

"It is the easiest thing in the world," says one of your friends—"just throw yourself out from the side of the pool and move your arms like this; and your legs like that—" (they illustrate.)

"There is no danger in the world—now that is it—just throw yourself out." You do it, trusting them, and you go straight to the bottom without losing a moment's time. Then, shrieking with laughter, they will explain, "Why, you were frightened; what made you go to the bottom?"

Of course, the novice knows why she went to the bottom—simply because she could not swim.

Then the friends begin to urge again—"Just try it dog-fashion," and you do—working like a motorcycle about to explode, and exhausting your strength and energy, only to get to the bottom the moment your friend deliberately lets go the back of your bathing suit.

The First Real Lesson.

Then there comes forward a gentleman, who does not know you well enough to joke you, and he will tell you of a stroke, that it would seem would lead you to victory. He holds your chin firmly in his hand. You get across the pool, once that way, feel you have accomplished the whole movement, and thank the gentleman, telling him that one more lesson from him and you feel you can learn—that you trust him!

But you never meet that same man again. You will meet probably another one, who will explain that first and foremost you must get a good stroke with your arms. He gives you a lesson in those strokes, and you wrench your arms almost out of the sockets, for he assures you that when you learn that once and practice it you have solved the problem.

Again you go, ready with that stroke, and now keeping entirely away from your friends, who are kindly merciful, you meet another kindly-disposed gentleman, who declares that the "scissors stroke" is everything, and while you learn that, kicking vigorously out from the side of the pool, you feel that with one more lesson you can assemble all the lessons you have learned into one, and maybe accomplish something.

But alas—you are doomed to disappointment. "The scissors stroke," declares an authority, "is only for experts; you have been taking the wrong stroke with your arms; it is never right to let any one hold your chin—that does away with the entire principle of balancing the body," and there you are shivering in your bathing suit, for which you have paid a goodly sum, though there is not much of it, and not knowing how to swim an inch.

FAILED TO COMPLY WITH INSURANCE LAW

Athens, Ga., August 20.—(Special.)—Through failure of his organization to learn the law and comply with it in Georgia in reference to fraternal insurance companies, H. W. Mitchell, here to make Athens his home with his young wife and little children, has been arrested and stopped from his work.

The matter was brought to the attention of Insurance Commissioner W. A. Wright by an old-line life insurance man here, and the commissioner ordered the solicitor to have a bill of sale for the property and arrest Mitchell. He protested that he was not intending to violate the law, and had assurance from the supreme secretary of the order, the "Patriarchs," that the Georgia law would be complied with at once. He is to have a committing trial Saturday.

BOY OF 15 ON BICYCLE MEETS DEATH IN FALL

While riding a bicycle along DeKalb avenue, in Decatur, Wednesday morning about 6:30 o'clock, William Davis, 15-year-old son of E. Davis, of Decatur, fell from his machine and sustained injuries from which he died fifteen minutes later.

The accident occurred within a few yards of the home of Dr. J. H. Phillips, who was immediately summoned by a boy named Hicks, who was riding with the Davis boy. Although Dr. Phillips arrived within ten minutes after the boy fell, he was found to be dead. The boy was carried to the home of his father on College avenue, from which place it was later conveyed to the morgue of P. J. Bloomfield, of Atlanta.

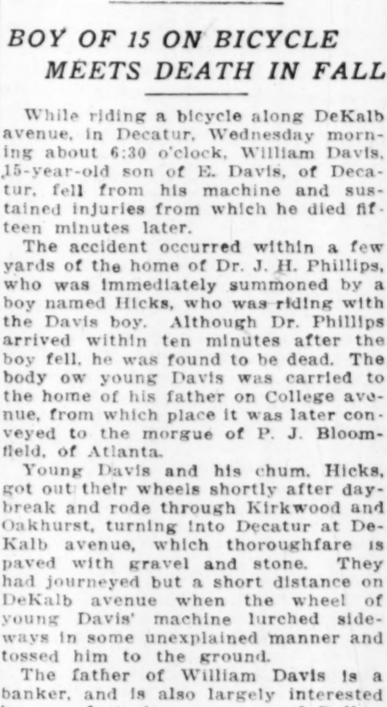

Young Davis and his chum, Hicks, got out their wheels shortly after day-break and rode through Kirkwood and Oakhurst, turning into Decatur at DeKalb avenue, which thoroughfare is paved with gravel and stone. They had journeyed but a short distance on DeKalb avenue when the wheel of young Davis' machine lurched sideways in some unexplained manner and tossed him to the ground.

The father of William Davis is a banker, and is also largely interested in manufacturing concerns of Dallas, Ga. He recently removed to Decatur, and his family is well known there. The lad is survived by his parents, two sisters, Mrs. M. Giesling and Mrs. T. D. Hall, and one brother, James Davis.

NEW ATLANTA CHARTER RECEIVES APPROVAL

The Atlanta charter which has finally been approved by the governor is said to be the longest bill passed by the legislature in recent years.

Clerk Boffeulle said that it was about the "biggest" bill he had handled in his experience, requiring the time of eight clerks, working twelve hours a day for two days, to copy it. It weighed between eighteen and twenty pounds and stood eight inches high when laid upon a desk.

The new charter is to be submitted to the people at the next municipal election. Electors will have the privilege of voting separately on the proposition.

BLAMING THE GIRL DIDN'T SAVE DIGGS

demonstration of any sort when the expected blow fell. The case won national notoriety when United States Attorney John L. McNab resigned, charging that the trial had been delayed by political influence, and made public his resignation in an open letter to President Wilson.

Prosecutor Denounces Diggs. Nine ballots were taken by the jury and from the first the jurors were unanimous for conviction on the first four counts, but on the fifth, charging the defendant with persuading, advising and inducing Marsha Warrington to go from Sacramento to Reno for immoral purposes, and on the sixth, charging the same offense with respect to Lola Norris they obstinately disagreed.

Remember, gentlemen of the jury, that 9,000,000 people are watching you this day, watching you to be informed whether justice shall triumph or lust shall rule; watching to see if the law for the protection of girls and women are to be enforced in this far western land.

The defendant in a criminal case usually bases defense on the presumption of innocence but the defendant lies on his own depravity. He comes into court covered with his own shame and hides behind the skirts of his wife and child.

In seeking to establish that the trip was not premeditated and that the girls had not been induced to take it by threats of scandal on one hand and promises of marriage on the other, Diggs willingly testified to his own misconduct and the embarrassments, domestic and business, into which it had led him.

The evidence is all before you, said Judge Van Fleet, in charging the jury, and it is for you to weigh the truth rests. The defendant has taken the stand in his own behalf and so far as his testimony tends to corroborate or exonerate him it is somewhat at variance with that of the two girls.

There is a homely adage that actions speak louder than words, and the truth of this is quite as applicable to judicial inquiries as in the ordinary affairs of life.

GEN. HUERTA IS TART TO PRESIDENT WILSON

bring about peace, and they do not conceive that there will be any pressure to bring about intervention. To grant arms to the constitutionalists would, in the opinion of many officials, only add to the dangers of anarchy in the republic, equipping bandit bodies with weapons of destruction which they hitherto have been deprived.

It was not until May, 1878, nearly a year after Diaz came into possession of the de facto government of Mexico City, that recognition was extended by the United States.

Recognition to be deferred. The present administration proposes to defer recognition until a constitutional election shall have been held and President Wilson stands firmly against recognizing the Huerta regime under any circumstances.

AMERICAN PROPOSALS REJECTED BY HUERTA. Mexico City, August 20.—The proposals of the Washington government which Mexico rejected today:

First, complete cessation of hostilities; second, that President Huerta resign in favor of a president ad interim; third, the fixing of an early date for the presidential election, and fourth, that General Huerta should not be a candidate for the presidency.

Wilson's Charges against the Judge.

Various charges against the judge have been brought during the last three or four years, but the investigation of which Attorney McReynolds presented a report today has been conducted during the last year.

It became known today that President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds have conferred at length over the investigation of Judge Speer's office and that the president, after being advised of the contents of the report of the investigating agents, was cognizant of the intention of the attorney general to submit the findings to the house judiciary committee for action.

Macon, Ga., August 20.—The charges against Judge Speer were the outcome of the controversy which arose between Colonel W. A. Huff, an aged citizen of Macon, whose entire property has been in litigation in Judge Speer's court for many years.

When Colonel Huff was arraigned Judge Speer declined to hear the case, but said he would get another judge. The matter was in statu quo for a year, but when Colonel Huff threatened to write the judge another letter, Judge W. I. Grubb, of Birmingham, was ordered here to try the case.

COTTON ACTIVE IN FINANCING

Uneasiness Over Crop Outlook Caused Advance in Prices. Market Closed Very Steady 11 to 30 Points Up.

New York, August 20.—The cotton market was more active and trading more general today than for weeks, if not months past, while prices not only made new high ground for the moment, but sold up over the 11½¢ level on most of the new crop months.

Further deterioration reports from the southwest were reflected in higher Liverpool cables, and the market here opened firm at an advance of from 3 to 11 points.

There was a good deal of realization at the advance, and some early irregularity was promoted by the views of local map readers, who thought that prospects were better for showers in the southwest.

Reports of scattered showers in Texas checked the advance and caused reactions of 5 or 6 points during the early afternoon, but offerings were not aggressive, and prices later solid 2½ to 3½ points higher on active new crop positions, with December contracts touching on active new crop positions with December contracts touching 11.52, or 69 points above the low record of last work.

ENGLISH CABLES. ADVANCED WHEAT MARKET, HOWEVER, BECAME WEAK TOWARD THE CLOSE ON PROFIT-TAKING SALES—CORN ALSO HIGHER—OATS LOWER.

Chicago, August 20.—Wheat today was dominated largely by the foreign situation, bullish cables imparting strength to the market throughout the session until the final hour, when the market weakened somewhat on profit-taking sales.

The cables brought news of wheat shorts covering at Liverpool, told of rather unfavorable crop conditions in Germany and France and Hungary and carried predictions of experts that for some time yet Europe would depend on America for most of her wheat.

There was a strong bullish news article pointing that damage was to be feared from further rains in the Canadian northwest. Another thing that helped send prices up were the large export clearances of wheat and flour, which equaled 1,197,000 bushels.

Oats eased off in the late trading after a firm start. Selling by leading commission houses for southwest wheat was the feature of the market. Higher prices, losses caused by hog cholera in certain sections of the surplus corn states stiffened provision prices, though at the close there were reactions on liberal offerings.
