"Gentlemen, I have thought about this case more than any other I have ever tried. I am not certain of this man's guilt. With all the thought I have put on this case, I am not thoroughly convinced that Frank is guilty or innocent. But I do not have to be convinced. The jury was convinced. There is no room to doubt that. I feel it is my duty to order that the motion for a new trial be overruled," said Judge Roan in announcing his decision on the Frank motion.

ORIENTALS IN MEXICAN PUZZLE

President Considers Recognition of Carranza Forces--Huerta Defies Removal as Planned.

SITUATION IN BRIEF. President Wilson Friday took up the question of recognizing the Mexican Constitutionalists, and it was indicated that he was planning forceful action against Huerta.

From Mexico City came the word that Huerta will defy President Wilson in the expected demand for his resignation. The Francisco Aguilar at Philadelphia is working night and day, and there is great activity at the League Island navy yard. This is regarded as most significant.

General Felix Diaz will take refuge in the United States. He will not go to Cuba, fearing he would be assassinated there, but instead will be put on the steamer Alabama and brought to Galveston.

Italy has dispatched a warship to Mexican waters to join the international fleet now forming there.

An attack of the Japanese embassy at Washington, it is discovered, has been in Mexico City several weeks on a mission to Huerta.

Chihuahua City is reported to have been captured by a rebel army led by General Villa. The Federals are said to have retreated without firing a shot.

Constitutionalists attacking Monterey are reported to be steadily driving the Federal forces away from the city center. Bloody fighting has been raging for five days.

The German gunboat Bremen for the cruiser Hertha at Vera Cruz today.

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian. VERMILION, Oct. 31--Reports that Japanese officials have been conducting secret negotiations with General Huerta at Mexico City are being circulated here to-day. This phase of the situation which is causing diplomats of the world come to light when it was learned that a man representing himself to be the military attaché of the Japanese legation at Washington sailed from here on the Ward line Esperanza. It is said that he has been in Mexico City for several weeks.

Great interest attaches to a conference which is to be held to-morrow by Special Envoy John Lind and the military minister to Mexico. It is understood that Rear Admiral Pascher, commander of the United States squadron, and the commanders of the German warships Bremen and Hertha will participate together with Captain W. A. Bunsell, the American military attaché at Mexico City.

Herman Aroseluis, a follower of Felix Diaz, was arrested during the night and taken to the federal prison under heavy guard. Senor Aroseluis, who is a native of Guatemala, has long been a follower of the forces of Diaz, and at the time of the Diaz uprising here a year ago Aroseluis was made censor of cable.

Wilson Considers Recognizing Rebels. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31--Strong evidence that President Wilson is planning immediate and forceful action against Francisco Huerta, the Mexican dictator, was given to-day when he took up the question of recognizing the Constitutionalists.

Seats for Women On Cars? Yes, if They Carry 'Em

Here's a new bid for Atlanta women! 'Thou'lt be the first to borrow the scheme! An attractive young woman boarded an express train in New York in the rush hour and calmly and quietly took a little folding commode from under her arm, spread its legs on the floor and sat herself in comfort on her portable seat.

"I do not expect the men to give me their seats," she said to one who questioned her, "I work, as they do, and am entitled to no more. When a woman enters into competition with men, she should give and take with men and not look for special favors. But I have to go to work and come from work in the rush hours. So I carry my own seat--that's all."

Engineer and Fireman Lose Lives in Wreck

GRIFPIN, Oct. 31--Engineer Thomas G. Gay and his white fireman were killed this afternoon when Southern Railway passenger train No. 23, Columbus to Atlanta, was wrecked two and one-half miles above Zepheri, about five miles north of this city. None of the passengers were reported seriously hurt, although they received a bad shaking up. A defective rail is supposed to have caused the wreck.

Citizens Want Back Street Fund Surplus

When the Streets Committee meets Friday afternoon, by street property owners will present a petition to be returned to them several thousand dollars left over from the $25,000 subscribed by citizens for re-grading.

The property owners expect to get back the whole $20,000, and will ask the Streets Committee to recommend to next year's Council that course be pursued.

Family Destitute, He Steals Cud; Is Freed

In a two-roomed shack out on lower Marietta street his wife and two children were shivering from the cold. There was no food nor fuel in the house.

A block away, a mountain of coal lay above the fence of a courtyard at No. 221 West North avenue. He entered this yard Thursday night to steal some fuel that his family might be warmed. He was arrested.

I. L. Lanier when arraigned before Judge Broyles Friday morning told his story. He was put on probation.

Otis or McCord To Succeed Lynch

It was learned today that when Councilman Thomas L. Lynch, of the Second Ward, resigns his seat, either R. R. Otis or J. J. McCord will be elected to succeed him.

Council itself fills vacancies caused by resignations. It is an odd fact that both Mr. Otis and Mr. McCord are acceptable to both the Woodwards and anti-Woodward factions in Council.

'Spook' Night To Be Ideal-Fair, Frosty

As it will be a fine night for spooks, Foreman Vaniermann, of the Weather Bureau, issued the following prediction for Friday:

"Fair-to-night and Saturday; frost to-night."

Clear skies prevailed Friday morning with a rapid rise in temperature. At 8 o'clock the mercury stood at 65 degrees, before noon had risen to 73 degrees and showed a desire to stop there.

INCOME TAX JARS LOCAL BANKERS

Face Problem in Teaching Patrons New System, Which Levies on Interest Due Saturday.

The first effect of the income tax, touching the coupons and registered interest due November 1, was noted by Atlanta Friday in the number and gravity of the conferences in various banks, and particularly in the meeting of a Special Clearing House Committee, headed by Robert F. Maddox, of the American National Bank.

The bankers were in a hurry--at least, as nearly in a hurry as bankers ever get. The confusion spread also to other investment firms and centers, but most of the interest centered in the meeting of the Clearing House Committee, which would settle a uniform plan by which the Atlanta banks would cope with the situation.

"It means a huge jumble of accounting and bookkeeping," Mr. Maddox said, "there will be a great burden of extra work in the banks and a lot of bookkeeping among the investors--a new kind of bookkeeping."

All Kinds of Incomes Included. The income tax of itself is not hard to understand, and to a certain class of citizens does not sound unpleasantly. It is a tax of 3 per cent on the income of any person with an annual revenue of $1,000 (or more) if single, and of $4,000 (or more) if married.

If the person, single or married, enjoys less than the prescribed limits, he (or she) does not figure in the design of the government. "And it means any and all income, from whatever source," Mr. Maddox said, "salary, bond rentals--why, if a real estate dealer whose usual income is only a couple of thousand a year, happens to turn up a trade by which he makes, say, $5,000, he'll like it that fiscal year to the income tax, though he never made that much before and may never make it again."

Informing Customers. But the situation that confronts the clearing house is largely one of acquainting the customers of its members with the new legislation, which goes into effect on all the coupons clipped November 1.

Mr. Maddox's committee met at noon Friday, and devoted the better part of an hour to methods of conveying to a host of banking customers and customers the exactions of the tax.

It was decided to mail out circular letters and samples of the certificate that holders must be attached to every single coupon presented to a bank for payment.

"The idea," Mr. Maddox said, "is that the government will tax the income at its source. Thus the corporation which issues a coupon should show on every coupon from ownership bonds a certificate of ownership, duly made out by the owner, stating if he is exempt or liable to the tax."

If liable, the bank handling the coupon deducts the 1 per cent for the government.

Can Burden to Banker. "If exempt by reason of not having an income large enough to tax, the 1 per cent is paid by the corporation and the certificate admits the payment of full value by the bank to the coupon holder."

The whole business, Mr. Maddox said, would impose a great burden on the banks, which may have to open special departments to handle the rain of coupons about January 1 of each year, when the bulk of coupons are payable.

Just what will be a busy day, also March 1 and, in fact, the first of every month will take the banks a good deal, 1 per cent revenue from the Silber's dollar coupon.

Warren for Closing Some Locker Clubs; To Make Inspection.

JUDGE L. S. ROAN, WHO RENDERED DECISION DENYING A NEW TRIAL

Consideration of the suggestion of Mayor Woodward that the locker clubs of the city should be investigated before the licenses were renewed resulted in a declaration by Mayor Pro. Tom James E. Warren that there were half a dozen clubs in the city that should be closed.

Albermar Warren, A. H. Colcord, chairman of the Council Police Committee, and Chief Heaver discussed plans for inspecting the clubs at the regular meeting of the Police Committee Thursday afternoon. Alderman Warren said the best people of the city demanded that a number of the so-called clubs should have their licenses revoked. Chairman Colcord said a thorough inspection of the clubs would be made.

Mother to Fight Suit, Once Mistrusted

It was believed Friday morning that the suit by Ralph Henderson, against a C. P. P. & West End merchant, declared a trustee Thursday, will be pressed further by the plaintiffs, who ask punitive damages to the extent of $5,000.

The suit grows out of what Mrs. Henderson declares a false charge and imprisonment about three months ago, when the boy, 15 years old, was accused by bulk of a theft of $5 on information received from a negro boy.

Burning Ship's Crew, 22, Rescued at Sea

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian. HAMBURG, Oct. 31--Another story of rescue from a burning ship at sea was posted here to-day by wireless from the Hamburg-American liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie, bound from Mexico.

The French bark Patrie was being destroyed by the fire when the Kronprinzessin Cecilie sighted the doomed craft and took off 22 men of her crew, the remaining three having been killed while fighting flames.

Factory Tour Plan Must Be Revised

Because of the large amount of territory to be covered and the fact that trains must travel slowly through the arrangements for the tour of "Industrial Atlanta," which the Chamber of Commerce is promoting, has struck a snag.

A committee of railroad men has arranged a schedule that calls for eight days of inspection of factories. It was the intention to devote at least half of the time to seeing the larger manufacturing plants. Efforts will be made to rearrange the schedule.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 31--The police are holding Stiel and Daisy Wood, 15 and 17 years old, who ran away from the High School at Birmingham, Ala., and arrived in Memphis this morning declaring they would never return.

Invitations to White House Wedding Due; Washington Excited

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31--Washington society got on its feet with excitement when it was learned that the invitations to the White House wedding will be in the mails in a day or two.

It is said that further details of the wedding plans will be given out soon now that Miss Jessie Wilson, the bride-elect, has returned from New York. Rumors fill the air about the trousseau, the guest list and the honeymoon journey.

As a guest, Bermuda, where her father has spent many of his vacation hours, is the leading candidate as the honeymoon spot. Still another guess has it that the bridal couple will go almost immediately to White Star Mess, where they will be married.

DEFENSE GETS READY FOR FINAL STAND IN FIGHT TO SAVE FRANK

Close upon the defeat of their motion for a new trial, the attorneys for Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, began Friday the draft of the bill of exceptions which will take the case to the Supreme Court of the State.

The new trial was denied by Judge Roan with the remarkable statement that he himself was not certain of Frank's innocence or guilt.

Attorney Reuben B. Arnold had part of the draft prepared by noon. Leonard Haas, another of the lawyers for Frank, was busy making copies of the affidavits which figured prominently in the hearing for a new trial.

Indications Friday were that the arguments before the Supreme Court in behalf of a new trial would begin last week in January or the first in February.

The clerk of the Superior Court has ten days in which to make a copy of the record to file with the Supreme Court, as this is required by law. The clerk of the Superior Court will have all the time given him by law.

To Reach Climax on Appeal

The Supreme Court, when the appeal is brought to its cognizance, will place it on its docket to be heard in January or February, it is believed. The decision of the Supreme Court will be handed down in from one to six months after the conclusion of the arguments.

The arguments, which have grown in intensity as the great murder trial has progressed through its various stages, will reach their climax before the Supreme Court, as this is regarded as practically the last stand of the lawyers who are fighting for the life of Frank.

Luther Z. Rosser, chief of counsel for the man convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan, made a request immediately upon the announcement of the decision that Judge Roan should not resign his seat on the bench of the Criminal Court until a bill of exceptions had been filed, taking the case to the Supreme Court.

Rosser also insisted that Judge Roan's remarks which he prefaced his decision and in which he expressed his uncertainty as to Frank's innocence or guilt should be incorporated as part of the bill of exceptions.

'Let Us Have Truth for Once'

This was strenuously resisted by Solicitor Dorey, who maintained that the procedure was irregular and unusual, and that he was not aware that it ever had been done before.

"Let's not quarrel over whether it ever has been done before," shouted Attorney Rosser. "Let's have the truth for once."

In giving his decision Judge Roan had said: "Gentlemen, I have given this question long consideration. It has given me more concern than any other case I ever was in. And I want to say here that, although I heard the evidence and the arguments during those thirty days, I do not know this morning whether Leo Frank is innocent or guilty."

"But I was not the one to be convicted," Rosser said, "and the jury was convinced and I must say that the motion."

Wilson Considers Recognizing Rebels. WASHINGTON, Oct. 31--Strong evidence that President Wilson is planning immediate and forceful action against Francisco Huerta, the Mexican dictator, was given to-day when he took up the question of recognizing the Constitutionalists.

By Innis Brown. (Famous Football Official). Regular football is the order of the day throughout Dixie to-day. Every team with a look-in for the championship of Dixie stands a chance of having its hopes blighted before the sun sets to-day with the exception of Vanderbilt, which happens to be engaged with Virginia, which is not properly speaking, included in the ranking of Southern eleven, and Georgia, which tackles North Carolina, to which the same applies. The local wrap between Tech and Sewanee is practically certain to eliminate one of these two, since a drawn battle is hardly to be expected. # GEORGIAN'S REPORT OF JUDGE'S COMMENT MADE THE RECORD

The Georgian's report of Judge L. S. Roan's remarkable expression of doubt in refusing to grant Leo M. Frank a new trial was Saturday incorporated into the official bill of exceptions by common consent of Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey, Luther Rosser and the Court itself.

Mr. Dorsey objected to the report of the Judge's words as first given in the bill by Frank's lawyers and the difficulty was solved by accepting The Georgian's version. It is probably the first time in court history that a newspaper report of a legal proceeding has been used as a court record. It will be noticed by those who read the original report that a phrase has been eliminated. Here is The Georgian's report, clipped from yesterday's Georgian by the lawyer and made a court record.

"Gentlemen, I have thought about this case more than any other I have ever tried. I am not certain of this man's guilt. With all the thought I have put on this case, I am not thoroughly convinced that Frank is guilty or innocent. The jury was convinced. There is no room to doubt that. I feel it is my duty to order that the motion for a new trial be overruled."

Stenographer's Record of Conversation of Convicted Murphy
Man Accuses 'Gang.'

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Detective William J. Burns to-day made public the contents of part of the "black book" containing the dictaphone record of the interview at Sing Sing in which former State Senator Stephen S. Stillwell, serving time for bribery, told John A. Hennessy, a lawyer representing William Miller, that he would swing six votes in the high court of impeachment before which Miller was tried in favor of the defendant in exchange for a pardon.

Stillwell further offered to produce evidence which he charged would send Senator James J. Frawley, chairman of the committee which investigated Miller, and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, to jail.

Stillwell in his conversation, not knowing that a stenographer was copying it at the other end of a dictaphone charged:

That he saw a man hand Frawley money.

That certain Senators took $5,000 annually from the brewery interests.

That Frawley accepted $10,000 to kill a certain bill.

That Thomas O'Neil, a Tammany man, paid $12,000 for the nomination for Frawley, turning the money over to James E. Gaffney, friend of Murphy.

That Senator Wagner, President of the Senate, transmitted orders in the name of the boss.

That a person called "P" padded pay rolls.

Both Sides See Great Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—With New York's most acrimonious campaign rapidly nearing its climax and the election but two days away, managers of the rival political factions to-day put out claims that were distinctly contradictory.

Conservative estimates of fusion leaders place the plurality of John Furroy Mitchell, fusion nominee for Mayor, at approximately 50,000. Tammany leaders claimed at least as great a plurality for their Mayorality nominee, Judge Edward E. McCall.

Speer Probers Meet Nov. 10 for Report On Judge's Condition

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The subcommittee of the House Committee on Judiciary, appointed to investigate charges against Federal Judge Emory Speer, of Georgia, to-day planned to meet November 10, as planned, and receive a report on the condition of Judge Speer, who is seriously ill, according to his counsel, E. H. Callaway.

Judge Speer's condition then will determine the future course of the committee.

New State Game Chief Takes Office

Charles Davis, the new State Game and Fish Commissioner, was installed in his office in the Capitol Saturday morning, succeeding Jesse E. Mercer, who retires after having held the post for two and one-half years.

In a statement issued to The Georgian Mr. Mercer says he desires to thank the public for the interest shown in the proper enforcement of the game laws, and declares the work of the department has been the most delightful he has ever undertaken.

Mr. Mercer has received, during his term of office thousands of congratulatory letters and many generous verbal expressions, without reference to any political faction, commending his work as game and fish commissioner.

Living Cost Report For Atlanta Attacked

Declaring the statistics recently issued by the United States Government, which showed that Atlanta ranks second in America in the high cost of living, are inaccurate and do the city an injustice, the Chamber of Commerce has begun the compilation of statistics by which it is hoped to refute the Government figures.

These figures will be sent to the Government tomorrow and made the previous report, with a request that the mistake be rectified.

Motorcyclist Who Hurt Child Jailed

Twenty-nine days in the stocks without a fine was the penalty meted out by Recorder Brooker Saturday morning to James Jackson, negro motorcyclist, who ran over and had to follow little Mary Smith last Saturday afternoon as she walked on a trolley car at Peachtree and Harris streets.

Attorney Harvey Hill, representing the injured girl, explained that she was unable to appear in court as she is still confined to her bed.

With the bill of exceptions to be signed by Judge L. S. Roan Saturday afternoon, the last fight for a new trial for Leo M. Frank has begun in earnest.

Judge Roan will sign the bill of exceptions at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Attorneys Rosser and Arnold for the defense requesting a few hours' additional time to correct stenographic mistakes in the copy.

Solicitor Dorsey was furnished with a copy of the exceptions in the rough form that he might peruse it while the stenographers are rewriting certain pages.

A change in Judge Roan's astonishing statement that he is not convinced as to Frank's guilt or innocence as reported by the defense was made on Solicitor Dorsey's objection that the words admitted to Judge Roan in the bill were not exactly the words he had spoken. Judge Roan's expression of doubt will undoubtedly be the defense's main reliance in the fight for a new trial.

Georgian Report Correct.
"The Georgian had your words exact, your honor," said Solicitor Dorsey to the court.

A copy of The Georgian of Friday was called for by Judge Roan, and the statement therein was declared by him to be correct.

This read:
"Gentlemen, I have thought about this case more than any other I have ever tried. I am not certain of this man's guilt. With all the thought I have put on this case I am not thoroughly convinced that Frank is guilty or innocent. But I do not have to be convinced. The jury was convinced. There is no room to doubt that. I feel that it is my duty to order that the motion for a new trial be overruled."

Attorney Herbert Haas insisted that Judge Roan had not made the remark. "But I do not have to be convinced," and the judge agreed with him.

Agreed to Change.
"I will ask you gentlemen to change the wording of the bill of exceptions to this, leaving out the words: 'But I do not have to be convinced,'" said Judge Roan.

All the attorneys agreed, and the Georgian's report was made the official record.

Town in the judge's chambers at the time was Solicitor Dorsey and Attorney Luther Rosser, Robert Arnold, Herbert Haas and Leonard Haas. The bill of exceptions is unusually long, containing all of the charges included in the amended motion for a new trial, besides the remarks made by Judge Roan.

Frank's attorneys labored on the bill until late Friday night. Judge Roan was advised by them that it would be ready by 9:30 o'clock, and was in the chambers awaiting them. They later advised that it would be ready by 10 o'clock. It was minutes before 11 o'clock when they arrived.

Bill Read in Part.
Colonel Rosser at once asked to Judge Roan that he desired to re-write some of the pages. Solicitor Dorsey had previously said he would not require a reading of all the exceptions.

The Georgian's report of Judge L. S. Sloan's remarkable expression of doubt in refusing to grant Lee M. Frank a new trial, was Saturday incorporated into the official bill of exceptions by common consent of Solicitor Hugh M. Dwyer, Luther Bower and the court itself.

'LET US HAVE THE TRUTH FOR ONCE,' SAYS ROSSER, APPEALING Frank Attorney Insists on Judge's Remarks With Decision Going Into Record and amended motion, and the affidavits submitted by the State, the motion for a new trial is overruled and denied this October 31, 1913.

JUDGE NOT CONCERNED OF GUILT OR INNOCENCE AS HE DENIES FRANK RETRIAL

"L. S. ROAN, Presiding Judge."

The decision fell like a blow on the attorneys and friends of the convicted factory superintendent. They had hoped against hope for a new trial on at least one of the many grounds that had been advanced.

It was apparent, however, that Rosser and Arnold were not without a second hand fight for the life of their client. They came into Judge Roan's office with sober faces and displayed little of the geniality that ordinarily marks their conduct.

Solicitor Dorsey wore his usual complacent air and availed the decision without any show of apprehension. The suspense in the hour and a half while the formalities of closing the hearing and approving the records were being completed was even greater than the time last August when the crowd was awaiting the verdict against Frank.

Even Mrs. Frank at stake. Even more was at stake this time than before. If the motion for a new trial failed, it meant that another recourse in the battle for Frank's life and freedom had been exhausted. No one was in the office of Judge Roan save the judge, the lawyers for the defense, Solicitor Dorsey, several court attaches, one or two friends of Frank and the newspaper men.

Impressed by the portentousness of the occasion, the few people in the room looked on in absolute silence and a certain dread expectancy. There was only the conversation of the lawyers for the State and the agreement over the records and the grounds of the amended motion.

Solicitor Dorsey brought in a list of added objections to the grounds for a new trial, some of which were omitted at the hearing of several of the grounds should be retried or omitted altogether. Judge Roan said that he had already had passed on these, but that the objections would be retained for

Frank Still Stoic; Wife Breaks Down.

Surrounded by his wife and friends, Frank received the news of his second defeat with the same remarkable coolness with which he heard his sentence to be hanged after his conviction on the charge of having murdered Harry Frazer.

A friend who was with him said he made this characteristic statement: "My belief remains unshaken that justice will ultimately be done and the truth be known—the truth that will prove my entire innocence."

Young Mrs. Frank was not so stoical. She wept softly on her husband's shoulder, while he sought to comfort her.

About a dozen friends in all called to encourage and express once more their confidence. Most of them were relatives, among them the parents of the prisoner's wife. They all, except the wife, left about 11 o'clock. There was a look of utter misery and despair in Mrs. Frank's eyes as she sat, stunned and hopeless, at her husband's side in the dreary Tower cell. Few words passed between them.

Deathlike Calm in Court As Decision Is Rendered

It was pasting 10 o'clock in the chamber of Judge Roan, and the arguments were done. The lawyers for Leo Frank and the lawyers for the State of Georgia waited for the ruling.

The last word had been said in the motion for a new trial. The final objection by the Solicitor had been filed. The clerk marked the bulky documents "filed." He dated the filing and stopped back.

Judge Roan sat through the last moments before his ruling with no breath of emotion, save that now and again he tapped with his shell-rimmed eyeglasses against the back of his thumb, or took a breath longer than usual.

If four minutes past the hour when the clerk stepped back among the little men who waited, the judge spoke in the way of a heavy, dead silence. His voice was low and a trifle husky.

The judge's voice ceased. In the quiet there fell the quick beat of steps to the door, and then the sound of sharp voices at the telephone outside.

For a moment the lawyers on either side of the table did not move. Mr. Arnold was standing. He turned away with a barely perceptible shiver of the shoulders. Mr. Rosser moved nimbly at the table. Mr. Dorsey's expression did not change a hair.

To an unknown onlooker, it would have been impossible to choose the winner and the loser of the second battle for the life and honor of Leo Frank.

The clerk gathered up his burden of documents and papers. The hearing was over.

Wilson Will Fight For Money Ideas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Despite changes in the Glass-Steagall measure will not be acceptable to President Wilson, it became known today, although no fight will be made by the White House on the elimination of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Secretary of Agriculture from the reserve control committee.

While President Wilson believes that changes can be made in the number of regional reserve banks without affecting the integrity of the measure, he thinks that four, as proposed by the Senate committee, are too few.

Debate over the relative merits of central bank and regional bank plans was prolonged in the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency today. Senator Reed's proposal for a single bank with 47 branches was regarded as a possible compromise.

PLANS FINE ROAD FROM STONE MT. TO ATLANTA

Convention Bureau Starts Movement to Assure Easy Access to Noted Spot for Visitors.

A movement to construct a fine road from Atlanta to Stone Mountain, and exploit the famous pile of rock as the "Niagara of Atlanta," has been inaugurated by the Atlanta Convention Bureau.

Ivan E. Allen, chairman of the bureau, and Secretary Fred Hooper declared that it is their intention to make Stone Mountain the gathering place of convention delegates when it is desired to show the visitors an unusually good time.

The bureau hopes to have the new road constructed before the next meeting of the American Good Roads Congress, which, it is almost assured, will be held in Atlanta.

Secretary Hooper plans to locate every property owner along the line of the proposed road, and ask his aid and co-operation, and he will also ask the aid of the Chambers of Commerce of Decatur, Clarkston, Scottdale and other towns between Atlanta and Stone Mountain.

Mr. Allen said the bureau is in touch with capitalists who have promised to erect a roadhouse and automobile pavilion at the Mountain on condition that a road be constructed that can be used by automobiles. Work on the roadhouse will begin at Stone Mountain and one of the most remarkable things in the United States, Mr. Allen declared, "and heretofore has been totally neglected."

Mr. Charles J. She advocated a course of training for parents and children, beginning in the infancy of the latter, by which these would be instilled into the mind of the child a knowledge of the necessity of discipline.

PARENT CULTURE SCHEME TENDS TO FLOGGING

Mrs. Chas. J. Haden Thinks Those in Authority and Children Should Both Be Taught Duties.

Mrs. Charles J. Haden, No. 1219 Peachtree road, president of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, on Saturday selected a new idea for a discussion promulgated by an international group out recently by Howard Nash R. Royce, in which he characterized corporal punishment as inhuman and a relic of barbarism.

This sentence, however, by declaring that children who have obtained such rights of lawfully misbehaved as to be struck or disciplined through corporal punishment, is not the only remedy, but that so much to blame as their parents, whoever has their training in charge.

Training Only Solution. "Corporal punishment, I think, is a problem and nothing more to offer a solution but training, both for the parents and the child."

SIDELIGHTS on GEORGIA POLITICS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

General Joseph Van Hook Nash, Georgia's Secretary of War, returned from Savannah today, where he wound up an official tour of inspection of State troops that included Brunswick, Augusta and the framed county.

General Nash expressed himself as highly pleased with the status of Georgia's military, and gave it his opinion that the same is now in shape to respond readily and efficiently to any call that might be made upon it.

"It is a nation should be called upon to make war on Mexico, which is not impossible by any manner of means, perhaps I know that Georgia would be the first to respond," said General Nash.

"In the event of a declaration of war, the National Government would have the right to call upon the various States organized under the Dick bill for their respective quotas of troops, and that undoubtedly is the first thing that the National War Department would do."

"Those who are interested in the military and take any degree of pride in the same, which includes very many Georgians, I am happy to say, are interested in one thing—how to get the most out of the money that is being expended for the purpose of maintaining the military."

"I have no objection to the expenditure of money for the purpose of maintaining the military, but I do object to the expenditure of money for the purpose of maintaining the military in a way that is wasteful and inefficient."

POLICE HORRID, IS VERDICT OF MRS. ALSOP

But Judge Who Released Her After Arrest a "Dear," Says Former Georgia Girl.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A full, complete and decidedly satisfactory explanation was made this morning by Mrs. Elsie Pope Hill, a Georgia girl, concerning her police court experience and the charges there.

"The judge was a perfect dear," Mrs. Hill said. "But the chauffeur was horrid. So was the policeman. So was the station house, or hoos-oon, as I heard it called. The young man prisoner called it. What is a 'hoos-oon'?"

"Aed Husband Thinks So, Too," Mrs. Hill said. "The chauffeur and the policeman, explained how the case came to be out of money when the chauffeur demanded his fare, which circumstance had caused the arrest and all the trouble."

"I was all very horrid," the young woman said. "I had been shopping with some friends and had dropped into Bustany's and at Maxine's to see the music and watch the dancing. I remembered an appointment to call on a girl friend at the Atlanta. I thought I had a 100 bill left in my purse. I did it. The chauffeur was horrid. Then came a boy who wouldn't even take me back to my hotel. The chauffeur thought I promised the horrid chauffeur to be with him as soon as we got there."

"And even when my husband came to me at the hoos-oon, they wouldn't let me go out in a taxi. Made me ride in that horrid police wagon. What's that horrid?"

"Judge Raps Policeman," Mrs. Hill said. "The policeman was arrested in substance with Mrs. Hill's complaint. He colored her immediate discharge, with a dissection on the morality of chauffeurs and the fiery-hotness of policemen."

"And as to the accounts of interest—which also was 'horrid'—Mrs. Hill said it was all nonsense. She added that she hadn't been drinking a little—hardly. Mr. Hill consented the comment, his wife drank 'next to nothing.'"

"So Mrs. Alsop's verdict was that everything and everybody connected with the incident was horrid," the judge. "He was a perfect dear."

OWNERS IN PACT TO END ABUSE OF MEN IN PENITENTIARY

Prison is a pact, in which they have sworn to reveal every tale of pete, abuse and bad food, just as soon as the doors of the Government institution open to them, according to Ed Ryan, who until Thursday evening was known only as No. 2411. Ryan, who served two years, went to Bufile Thursday evening a few hours after he was released.

"Every man in the penitentiary and the Government has sworn to tell what he knows about the abuse and the greatest reform institution, to tell the world which Moyer is trying to make better men of the men sentenced to the Federal pen. All have sworn to tell everything just as soon as they are released."

Ryan, after making this statement, passed for several minutes, puffing a big black cigar, something he had not enjoyed in two years.

"The first thing I did after being released was to catch a car down town and go to a restaurant. I have a hungry yearning, I was put in the pen."

Pen Food Terrible.
"The food is something terrible, green and fat pork were bad but of late they have to cook beans that used to be fat but no fat pork. They are about the same."

Over-Worked.
"I am over-worked, I have to work in the shoe factory."

Frank Rehearing Again Halts Dodd Will Litigation

The arduous attention which Luther Rosser has accorded the Frank appeal is responsible for the further postponement of the sensational trial which will open, which was set for a hearing before Judge Ellis the first thing Tuesday morning. It was decided Friday to put the hearing over until next Monday, when it is believed Mr. Rosser will be able to take up the case.

The will case is expected to be warmly contested. Mr. Rosser represents the defense and the main testimony of the contesting heirs, cut off by the will, is to be that Mrs. Philip Dodd ordered her will in regard to her kinships because they had refused to bill her for insurance. The estate is estimated at $50,000.

The case was appealed from the ordinary court and will be defended by the attorney, who has retained Mr. Rosser.

SAM LANGFORD APPEARS TO BE LOSING SKILL

Showing Against Jack Lester Proves That Colored Box Is Slipping, Thinks Expert

By W. W. Naughton. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—The Sam Langford who defied the Jack Lester at Tatt the other day bore small resemblance to the compact, active Langford of a couple of years ago.

Sam's work was also unlike the work he used to do. Remembering the way Langford setling Jim Flynn and others with that right uppercut, it was to wonder how Langford would do with so many punches of that paraffin brand.

There were two ways of explaining it. Either Sam was inclined to be softer with the Coloreds, or else Sam had lost some of his driving power.

Looking at the chunky negro in the crowd glare of the arena, there was a fair opportunity of making the purpose of Sam's work, the writer concluded that Sam was trying all right, and that he was simply unable to deliver the goods in the old-fashioned way.

Conscious of Fault. Sam knew that the future to put away the old-fashioned style was a good one for an expedition, and he was pleased to find that the members of the small group of correspondents that he was bothered with had to be kept in the line of his own opinion.

The history of pugilism seems to indicate that the pugilist who makes good once he has been to the top, is a man who does not have to be afraid of the future.

Sam finally reduced himself to the level of a pugilist, and he was about as accomplished, but he was not as good as he was before he went to the top.

Sullivan, Top Falled. Jim Sullivan was the man who began training for Jim Corbett by dint of hard work, and he was able to make himself look comparatively good, but he had the same old performance as Mitchell. Removing the weight from his shoulders, and putting it on a man who did not have to be afraid of the future.

The chances are Jim Corbett suffered the same fate when he was defeated off 50 or 60 pounds of excess fat. It is to be hoped that the same fate will befall Jim Corbett.

Here Are the Subjects. You All Understand Them. Sit Down for an Hour This Evening. Think AND WRITE ABOUT THEM.

LIFE IN AMERICA.

Every American Can Write About This National Flypaper. Some of the flies miss the flypaper—the big, sticky money sheet and think themselves miserable because they miss its sweetness.

HERE IS THE BIG DRIVER. This is the gentleman on horse-back—you all know him—and you could write many a column about him.

The "Non-Refillable" Bottle

This is the GENUINE "non-refillable." Once you pour it out, you can NEVER fill it again. Through this bottle the miserable drunkard pours out all that makes life worth while—hope, ambition, friends, family, self-respect.

Missionary Work That Is Left Undone

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX

MUCH home missionary work is done by churches all over our land; yet that much is left undone which could be done and that time and money spent in a large part of the foreign mission work could be better employed at home...

Dr. Charles F. Aked

Writes on "The Downtrodden English Woman"

In Great Britain, He Says, Women Possess Political Power Far Greater Than That Possessed in Any Part of America, Other Than the Nine Woman Suffrage States and I in it.

By REV. CHARLES F. AKED, D. D. Written for The Atlanta Georgian.

WE do not need militant methods in America. It is different in England. The formula has been repeated from coast to coast in the course of discussions aroused by Mrs. Pankhurst's visit...

An Important Matter. This matter is important. Here is Mrs. Pankhurst pleading herself not to advocate militant methods in this country...

Who Will Say "Yes?" Women can not vote for the election of members of Parliament. It is for this, the Parliamentary franchise, that they are fighting...

No Second Divorce. Yes the sense of honor is not extinct in America. And it will not be seriously held that the inequality in the laws of divorce constitutes that "difference" which justifies intemperance and outrage...

Franchise laws are not the same in different parts of Great Britain. Do the American women who are finding money for British militants honestly believe this in what American men say in the non-suffrage States...
