BETTING IS EVEN ON EYE OF SERIES

By BILLY SMITH,
Manager Atlanta Team.
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The advance guard of the out-of-town army of baseball fans filtered into town today and at once went into "training."
He pitched for Baltimore until mid-season, when purchased to bolster Mack's weak staff.

SHAWKEY, ATHLETICS' STAR YOUNG PITCHER

Shawkey has made a brilliant record this year.

Connie Mack is expecting to use Shawkey as a big aid to Plank and Bender in the world's series clash with the Giants, which starts Tuesday afternoon.

The youngster has fair speed and excellent change of pace.

Weather Tuesday Will Be Unsettled

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Baseball fans were dealt a severe blow by the local weather bureau today when the following special forecast for the first world series game was issued:
Unsettled weather Tuesday; moderate to brisk northeast winds.

Factory Men Oppose Regulating Measure

Though some interesting proposals at the meeting of the City Council Monday afternoon were forestalled by the determination of Carlos H. Mason not to run again for Police Commissioner, the introduction of an ordinance by Councilman Claude L. Ashley to regulate factories employing women and girls will give the members something to do.
No opposition to the ordinance by Councilmen is likely, but protests from factory men are expected.

$7.50 Banquet Too Costly for Sec. Lane

DENVER, Oct. 4.—Franklin Knight Lane, Secretary of the Interior, gave an example on arriving here of the simplicity and democracy of the Wilson administration, when he declined to attend a banquet in his honor of the Chamber of Commerce, because it was to cost about $7,500 a plate.

Handcuffed Man Swims 14 Miles

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Henry Ellison, of New London, Conn., swam from the factory to within a mile of Conny Island with handcuffs on his wrists and his ankles bound together with stout rope.
He covered 14 miles.

Burglars of the Sleeping Woman

FRANK JUROR AGAIN ATTACKED BY SPARTAN MEN

The extreme thoroughness with which the attorney for Leo M. Frank has set about substantiating his charge of prejudice and bias against A. H. Hendee, one of the twelve jurors who declared Frank guilty of murder, made it evident Monday that the lawyers will wear their fight through this one instance of alleged unfairness as so glaring as to constitute in itself and alone a sufficient ground for a new trial.
Many persons with whom Hendee talked before the trial were interviewed by agents of Attorneys Rossey and Arnold. One deposition was taken by another until the lawyers considered they had made out a clear case of prejudice and bias against Hendee. Without the additional force lent by the more than 100 other reasons presented in their amended motion for a new trial, they were confident that they had obtained an unassailable ground for a retrial of this convicted man.
Solicitor Dorsey is preparing for a determined fight against their contention. He believes that Hendee has been misinterpreted. He is prepared to take the word of Hendee himself that he uttered no statements to the effect that he considered Frank guilty and would like to have a part in bringing about his hanging.
Spartans Make Reply.
The statement of the alleged details of the alleged conversations brought a reply Monday from three of the Spartans men, who made denials that they had overheard remarks of the nature mentioned. They prepared a signed statement, in which they reiterated their allegations of prejudice and bias against Hendee and declared that Hendee must have been misquoted in his recollection of the remarks.
The statement was signed by John M. Holmes of Holmes & Walker, 22 insurance and buggy firm, 8 S. M. Johnson, cashier of the firm, and Sh. Gray. All assert they were present when Hendee's reported conversation in regard to the guilt of Frank took place.
"Practically Tried Frank."
The best read:
"You must recall in Mr. Holmes' affidavit, on the day stated, and in the presence of the underwriter, we discussed the Frank case and practically tried Frank as it were, and that, in the discussion, you not only said that Frank was as guilty as we, but you had no word to say about Frank's being a moral degenerate—your explanation was we saw not enough further stating that you were drawn out."
"We have no disposition to injure you or to make public your statement as two of the writers, Gray and Holmes, have known you and your family for many years, and we do not know how the attorney's use of your statement from the public press denouncing us as liars in order to protect himself from the criticism, you have justly deserved."
The award, J. M. HOLMES, SH. GRAY, JOHN JOHNSON, "2411 GRAY."

Trouserettes and Knee-Length Skirt, Newest Paris Style

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.
PARIS, Oct. 6.—Here is the very latest from the Longchamps race course, where fashions are made and races are run. These are some of the fashionable oddities which are "the thing" to-day as they were introduced at the Grand Prix Sunday:
Tango trouserettes with pockets; absence of corsets and lace stockings; red velvet slippers; a slouching walk with the hat on the back of the head, the shoulders thrown forward and hands in the pockets; a skirt that reaches a trifle below the knees, and a style of headpiece that reveals the hair.

Federal Courts Open Sessions in Atlanta

The fall term of the United States District Court of the Middle District of Georgia, with Judge William T. Newman presiding and the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, with Judges Don A. Pardo, Shelby and Foster officiating, convened Monday morning in the Federal Building.
In the United States District Court, twenty-five alleged murderers were come up for trial, while in the Circuit of Appeals two civil cases are scheduled.

Molasses Monopoly New Company's Aim

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—Complete monopoly of the American molasses market is the aim of a new company formed here which starts with pledges of one-fourth of the New Orleans product, with as much more promised tentatively.
The promoters are Don Caffery, of New Orleans; J. Wheeler's Sons, of Plaquemine; L. M. Sonst, of Dorseyville; and J. Supply's Sons, of Bayou Gaud.

Boy, 12, Locks Self In Room, Ends Life

SUMMIT, S. C., Oct. 6.—Locking the door and closing the windows in his room, Rattiffe Morris, 12 years old, fired a pistol ball through his heart.
The body was discovered several hours later, seated in a chair in front of a mirror with the pistol on the floor beside him.

Drives Auto Into Window; Arrested

A young man who gave his name as J. H. Wiggins, his occupation as that of scavenger and his address as the Pkewick apartments, was arrested Monday morning for smashing into a front window of the Troy Steam Laundry, No. 28 North Forsyth street, with an automobile.
The damage to the laundry is estimated at $250.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Atlanta and Georgia—Cloudy Monday and Tuesday.

Joe' Gatins Leaves For World's Series And European Tour

Joseph Gatins, Jr., better known as "Joe" Gatins, because of his uniform good nature, left for New York Monday, where he is to witness the world's baseball series, and on Saturday sail for Europe, to remain abroad for at least six months and perhaps a year.
"I am reluctant to leave Atlanta, for I love this beautiful town," he said, "but I just can't help going to the world's series. I determined some weeks ago to start for Europe, and I shall spend six months and maybe a year abroad, and hope to increase my knowledge of the peoples of Europe, their languages and their manners and customs, and then back to Atlanta for me the best city in the United States."

Chicago Police Are Inclined To Believe Alleged Confession of Killing of Many Women.

I spent a lot of money around the cabarets on the entertainers. That's the way I picked out the ones I robbed or killed. I got their confidence by spending money—$100,000—on the entertainers. I killed women just like I would swat flies.

'Killed Women Like I Would Swat Flies'

Militants Riot When Speaker Is Arrested

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN.
LONDON, Oct. 6.—Riotous demonstrations today attended the arrest of Annie Kenney, an official of the Women's Social and Political Union, as she started a speech at the weekly meeting of suffragettes at the Pavilion Music Hall.
Suffragettes in the audience thrust themselves upon the police in an effort to rescue their leader, but were driven back. Miss Kenney was dragged to a taxi and hurried to Holloway jail.

Caught in Shuffling; Whirled to Death

FOURTH, Oct. 6.—Caught in the shuffling of his gin, Will Stokes, of the city, was whirled to death.
His coat was caught in a set screw on a belt shuffling and before assistance could arrive or the engine could be stopped, Stokes was lifted off his feet and whirled over and over the shafting. Stokes' body was thrown against a heavy rail at each revolution.

U. S. Refuses to Enter Thaw Case

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The State Department denied the application of Harry K. Thaw's attorneys, who maintained that his recent deportation from Canada infringed upon the treaties between the United States and Great Britain, and asked an investigation.
The State Department will take no further part in the matter.

Fires Into Crowd; Wounds 6; Is Slain

HESSIE, TENN., Oct. 6.—Barr Whitson, a farm hand, wounded half a dozen store hoppers and was himself killed when he went on a drunk and discharged a shotgun into the crowd.
"We have no disposition to injure you or to make public your statement as two of the writers, Gray and Holmes, have known you and your family for many years, and we do not know how the attorney's use of your statement from the public press denouncing us as liars in order to protect himself from the criticism, you have justly deserved."
The award, J. M. HOLMES, SH. GRAY, JOHN JOHNSON, "2411 GRAY."

DOBBE AT WORK TO JOB AT CHARGE

Defense Claims It Has New and Positive Proof of Bias Accusations Against Henslee.

A. H. Henslee, of the jury that convicted Leo M. Frank, made his bitterly denunciatory remarks against the defendant in the hearing of a far greater number of persons than already have made depositions, according to information in the possession of Frank's attorneys.

While the prisoner's lawyers are busy building up their plea, Solicitor General Hug Dorsey is working ceaselessly preparing to demolish their arguments for a new trial.

"We have the names of a great many other persons to whom Henslee expressed his opinion of Frank's guilt and his hope that he would have the opportunity to assist in convicting him," said Reuben R. Arnold, of counsel for Frank, Monday.

"These persons would be called on to tell the truth in respect to Henslee's attitude before the trial were it not for their evident reluctance to incur the enmity of Henslee and the fact that we already have the sworn statements of a sufficient number of reliable persons to prove conclusively that Henslee was guilty of making the biased and prejudiced remarks."

BOY TEAMS FIT ON EVE OF OPENER

By BILLY SMITH, Manager Atlanta Team.
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The advance guard of the out-of-town army of baseball fans filtered into town today and at once went into "training" for the battle to-morrow when 50,000 lovers of the national game will battle for the 50,000 unreserved seats to be placed on sale at the Polo Grounds at 9 a. m. for the first world series game between the Athletics and Glans.

Lajoie's Double Scores Jackson With First Tally of Game; Adams and Falkenberg Hurl.

(CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 6.—The Naps triumphed over the Pirates, 2 to 0, in the first game of the post-season series here this afternoon.

Big "Cy" Falkenberg, star Pirate hurler, faced his old mates and was master of the situation at all times. He was opposed by "Babe" Adams and Claude Hendrix.

Lajoie scored the first run of the game by smacking a double and sending Joe Jackson over the home station. In the next inning the home boys registered two more tallies.

Adams and Falkenberg, who were responsible for delaying action in the currency bill in the Senate, was learned on high authority by O'Connell, of Nebraska; O'Connell, of New York; and Reed, of Missouri.

DORSEY AT WORK TO COBBLER CHARGE

Defense Claims It Has New and Positive Proof of Bias Accusations Against Henslee.

A. H. Henslee, of the jury that convicted Leo M. Frank, made his bitterly denunciatory remarks against the defendant to the hearing of a far greater number of persons than already have made depositions, according to information in the possession of Frank's attorneys.

While the prisoner's lawyers are busy building up their plea, Solicitor General Hugh Dorsey is working ceaselessly preparing to demolish their arguments for a new trial.

"We have the names of a great many other persons to whom Henslee expressed his opinion of Frank's guilt and his hope that he would have the opportunity to assist in convicting him," said Reuben R. Arnold, of counsel for Frank Monday.

"These persons would be called on to tell the truth in respect to Henslee's attitude before the trial were it not for their evident reluctance to incur the enmity of Henslee and of the jury that already have the sworn statements of a sufficient number of reliable persons to prove conclusively that Henslee was guilty of making the biased and prejudiced remarks."

"Fear They'll Harm Henslee." "We are in possession of the facts, however, and if we find it necessary we will use them. Even the men from whom we have taken statements have been reluctant to give them. They acquiesced in making a statement of the facts only after they had been summoned by a process of law. They did not wish to harm Henslee, but they had overheard his unmistakable condemnation of Frank and there was nothing left for them to do when they were called to narrate the facts of the case."

"Henslee's prejudice and that of J. J. Connelley alone constitute a situation that is sufficient to form a basis for a new trial. It is unthinkable that a man should be sentenced to death when the two men at least were violently biased against him before a jury of his own people was heard."

Solicitor Dorsey and his assistant, A. E. Stephens, are engaged in preparing an answer to the motion for a new trial. The lawyers for the day are prepared to argue the motion before Judge Ross next Saturday. The Solicitor is expected to be ready for the argument, although he has an immense task in reviewing all of the reasons presented by the defense.

Grand Jury Session Delayed. The meeting of the Fulton Grand Jury has been postponed indefinitely, pending the final disposition of the day. The Solicitor is expected to be ready for the argument, although he has an immense task in reviewing all of the reasons presented by the defense.

Copied with this information was the announcement that the dects had been cleared for the Frank case. Absolutely nothing, not even the Grand Jury, it is said, will be allowed to interfere with the work of Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Stephens in summing up the final evidence which will be used in the trial.

SEVENTH INNING. Viox fled to Graney. Wilson whiffed. Mitchell and John scored. Olson tagged out Miller on Mitchell's tap. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING. Butler tied Graney. Hyatt batted for Adams. Hyatt out on Johnson.

GARRISON PLEDGES BRIGADE POST HERE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Secretary of War Garrison today declared himself fully convinced on the enlargement of Fort McPherson to a brigade post and said further that he would make no recommendation for appropriations for the improvement of the fort in the country without making a corresponding recommendation for money to enlarge Fort McPherson.

The Secretary made the statement at a conference calling an hour with Representative William Schley, Howard, of Atlanta.

Furthermore, the Secretary expressed himself as being alarmed with "the great city of Atlanta" and continued of the wonderful advantages as a military center, in connection with the movement of troops.

"The Secretary expressed himself as being most favorably impressed with the strategic importance of Fort McPherson, especially since the construction of the Panama Canal, of account of its healthful location and its proximity to an adequate supply of pure water from the city of Atlanta," said Mr. Howard.

"Of course there are many excellent preliminaries to bring about the actual possession of Fort McPherson by a brigade of soldiers. They are:

First, the acquisition of more land. Second, the construction of adequate buildings for the housing of the soldiers. Third, the enlargement of local facilities, which will eventually become necessary by the establishment of this post.

"The Secretary assured Mr. Howard that whenever the appropriations for the enlargement of the seven posts were estimated, as recommended by the board, Atlanta will share equally with each of the other.

CONFESSES THAT HE KILLED HENRY SPENCER

Chicago Prisoner Clears Long List of Killing Myster—Says He is Ready to Hang.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—With the monstrous murder of Mrs. Mildred Allison-Brown, the same murderer solved, Chicago detectives today began the investigation of the remarkable confession of Henry Spencer, who admitted that he killed Mrs. Brown and calmly related the details of sixteen other murders at the end of the confession he said there might be one or two other slayings that he could not recall at the moment.

Captain Higin, of the detectives, said the man's story could not be believed, although Spencer admitted he sometimes smoked as many as fifteen "big pills" a day. He had had no opium for three days and apparently his mind was clear to-day when he told the story of his crimes.

Most of his victims were women. Some were of bad character, attracted by Spencer's reputation of the proceeds of his daily robberies and almost monthly killings. Others were killed by pretense, love, or lust. Others still were chance acquaintances. A part of his confession was substantiated by the rest was being investigated through the police of the cities where the murderer said his crimes were committed.

Crimes He Confessed. With uncertainty as to the exact date, Spencer told of the following murders which he committed either with a revolver or a small blacksmith's hammer.

Prior to September 12, 1912, he shot to death for a few dollars about fourteen young girls. Police men Timothy Devine and Charles Pennell, Chicago, shot when they captured Spencer and a man named Murphy robbing a store. Murphy died in the penitentiary, Spencer said.

Fannie Thompson, Chicago housekeeper, killed with a hammer and robbed of $1200 in jewels. Between September 15, 1912, and September 25, 1912,

Two Weber girls, Paw Paw, Mich., beaten over the head, their bodies thrown into the water. Girl at Delavan Lake, Wis., last June killed with a hammer and her body thrown into the water.

Agel man, Washington Park, Chicago, last spring, shot to death, robbed of $100 and his body thrown into the swamp pond. Woman in rooming house, Chicago, killed with hammer, clothing burned and house robbed of a few dollars.

Woman rooming house keeper, killed with a hammer, robbed of rings and $140 in cash. "They All Lie," He Says.

Woman, Belle Isle, Mich., whom he met in New York. Took her home after beating her to death. Did not remember her name. "They all lie to you," he explained.

Woman, Port Montgomery, N. Y., married her, beat her to death, took $200 cash and $800 worth of diamonds.

Ida Oliver, Chicago, beaten to death with hammer, body thrown into Olive Grove canal. One man shot when he resisted hold-up in downtown alley, Chicago.

Rabonkeeper, Chicago, killed his wife while robbing her. Mrs. Mildred Allison-Reardon, shot near Wayne, Ill., robbed of $250 diamond ring, and her body thrown on the tracks of the Erie, Toledo and Eastern Railway, where a freight train mutilated it a few minutes later.

Mrs. A. J. Schofield, at whose home Spencer was living, was to have been killed to-day and her house robbed, according to the murderer's confession. He said he planned to get the woman to come to his room, where he would beat her to death, take her money and then leave Chicago for a few days.

Ready to Hang, He Declares. Spencer said today that he had been a thief all of his life. He was released from the Illinois penitentiary at Joliet thirteen months ago after serving a short term for burglary. He said to-day he expected to be hanged and that he didn't care.

"Nobody's life ever meant anything to me, and my own doesn't count much," he said to Captain Higin. "I suppose it will take a couple of months to kill me before they hang me. I couldn't care if they would."

Captain Higin replied to question Spencer more fully about his robberies later to-day. The prisoner said he usually performed two hold-ups in a night.

"See," he said, "sometimes I had to pick up half a dozen places in an evening. It costs a lot of money to keep around the city. I always carry a second story. I spent $250 there. You won't be in for long."

"You won't be in for long," Mrs. Reardon said, he continued, speaking of the most recent murder. "I went to a girl who would not give me the jewelry in girls when I couldn't tell if they was."

Spencer justified his killing of his wife, he said, "because she was playing him for a farmer" and that he was determined that he marry her because he was responsible for her. Spencer was kept awake all night answering questions.

Members of Club to Convince the City to Fulfill Their Pledge of Three Thousand Dollars.

The 20 members of Atlanta's Rotary Club started out Monday morning with the determination of obtaining the $3,000 needed to make up the sum of $1,000 guaranteed by them to the Associated Charities. Monday and Tuesday are the days set by them in which to raise this amount.

The club raised $1,815 of the necessary amount by a short canvass last week and anticipates no trouble in persuading Atlanta to subscribe to the fund. Each of the members, in addition to the time which he is taking from his business, is also a large contributor to the fund.

No particular sum will be requested of any one, but an invitation to subscribe any amount will be extended to persons willing to subscribe and who are not waited upon by the Rotary. The sum may be called by Edw. Brown, telephone 97 309, or W. B. Schaeffer, telephone 1156.

Among other cities which are about ready for disposition is the case of the Atlanta-Columbus Railroad, involving the Georgia law requiring roadlights.

Rooseau Luke of Thomsville, is generally looked upon as a probable winner in the race for Governor in the Second District.

Decision of the United States Supreme Court in the famous reshipping privilege case which has precipitated a bitter contest between Atlanta and Nashville is expected on October 20. That rat case of far-reaching importance is expected also on this day.

The case involving the reshipping privilege has been the cause of bad feeling for several years. The Nashville shippers, it is alleged, have been allowed to unload grain from the Northwest, keeping it in Nashville six months, and then reship it on a through rate, while such a privilege has not been allowed in other Southern cities. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad, the road involved, defended its action on the grounds that it was necessary to meet competition on the Cumberland River.

Should the case be decided adversely to the railroad it probably will mean investment of several thousand dollars in granaries in Atlanta. Another important case which probably will be disposed of on October 20 is the Kentucky rate case, involving rates on dairy supplies.

Among other cases which are about ready for disposition is the case of the Atlanta-Columbus Railroad, involving the Georgia law requiring roadlights.

BEELIGHTS ON POLITICS

Governor Slaton, in appointing Charles L. Davis, of Warm Springs, as Game Commissioner of Georgia, has rewarded a faithful, firm, unflinching and enthusiastic friend of the bird, squirrel and fish of the State.

Mr. Davis has been in season and out, for years and years, a persistent advocate of more and more rigid game laws. He has believed this course to be right because of the ever growing scarcity of game, and from a humane point of view, too.

Legislation after legislation turned out a cold ear to his pleading. He managed to get bills through one house only to have them killed in the other. He worked and he worked, ever; he never wavered in well doing.

No matter how unpopular it may seem at first, he soon gathered about him a following that stands for day to day and from month and year to year, until at last it was sufficient in number and character to be effective in the halls of legislation, and Davis then saw his cherished ambition fulfilled.

Another important case which probably will be disposed of on October 20 is the Kentucky rate case, involving rates on dairy supplies.

Among other cases which are about ready for disposition is the case of the Atlanta-Columbus Railroad, involving the Georgia law requiring roadlights.

When Slaton entered the Governorship, Davis had been too good a frigate in the race for Governor.

The Governor, however, in making the change, extended every courtesy to the change in the office.

It is a goodly list of names. After the expiration of his term, in order that he might win up some political capital for himself, he has had the record of the retiring office is found in the report of the Governor.

His choice of Mr. Davis is regarded as very happy, and the Governor has been congratulated accordingly.

Rooseau Luke of Thomsville, is generally looked upon as a probable winner in the race for Governor in the Second District.

Decision of the United States Supreme Court in the famous reshipping privilege case which has precipitated a bitter contest between Atlanta and Nashville is expected on October 20. That rat case of far-reaching importance is expected also on this day.

Members of Club to Convince the City to Fulfill Their Pledge of Three Thousand Dollars.

The 20 members of Atlanta's Rotary Club started out Monday morning with the determination of obtaining the $3,000 needed to make up the sum of $1,000 guaranteed by them to the Associated Charities. Monday and Tuesday are the days set by them in which to raise this amount.

The club raised $1,815 of the necessary amount by a short canvass last week and anticipates no trouble in persuading Atlanta to subscribe to the fund. Each of the members, in addition to the time which he is taking from his business, is also a large contributor to the fund.

No particular sum will be requested of any one, but an invitation to subscribe any amount will be extended to persons willing to subscribe and who are not waited upon by the Rotary. The sum may be called by Edw. Brown, telephone 97 309, or W. B. Schaeffer, telephone 1156.

THIRTEEN DAYS OF THE NEW YORK TO SEE SERIES

Betting Even on Day Before First Game - Gotham Fans Not Wagering Heavily.

Street districts, where hundreds of thousands of dollars were wagered in other years on the baseball classic, come reports from the betting commission that not more than $2,000 has so far been placed with them.

From this angle it looks as if the teams will go into battle to-morrow at even money and carry but little of the gamblers' money with them and that the gambling element will "take back" until after the first game, get a line on the relative strength of the teams through the medium of that battle and then lay odds and begin betting in earnest.

While the National Commission was holding a session here to put the finishing touches to the arrangements for the big event, there leaked "boar" stories from the rival camps. From the Athletics' last campaign the report that several of the players were suffering from bad colds, etc., which may affect their play in the opening games that they may not be able to do themselves will induce and perhaps may not be able to play in the opening games.

The Giants retailed by stating that Snodgrass, the center fielder, had an almost fatal attack of "chamber horses" that Larry Doyle, captain and second baseman, might not be able to get into the game because his arm, injured about ten days ago in an automobile accident, was not "rounding out" and that a large number of the other 22 Giants eligible to play in the battles were indisposed to play any other day.

Smith to Get New Players. It is a safe wager that all the "positioned" athletes will be at their positions when the battle commences and that each and every one will be in such excellent physical condition as to make it a certainty that the coming World Series battles will be the most thrilling, most bitterly contested and closest in the history of the sport.

Visitor Defies All Rules of the House

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—An unintended visitor to the floor of the House indignantly violated the rules of that body and defying Speaker Simons took a whole lot of papers and officials took his own time about leaving.

Simons was much excited as the visitor refused to go and the time for calling the House to order was drawing near. He called to his assistance the sergeant at arms and a number of men followed the visitor through the gallery.

WOMEN'S STORY OF KILLING 26 PAGES; SAYS MOST OF THOSE WHO WERE WOMEN

'Killed Women Like I Would Swat Flies'

I have always had a natural hatred for women. I killed women just like I would swat flies. I wouldn't look at a woman who didn't wear diamonds. I spent a lot of money around the courts on the entertainers. That's the way I picked out the ones I robbed or killed. I got their confidence by spending money. I was a professional burglar. I confessed multimillioner under arrest in Chicago for the death of Mrs. Mildred Allison-Reverot, the Tampa lawyer.

...from the blood of his latest victim was confined today. Dr. William Fox Hill and Dr. James Goodman, assistant pastor of the Church, recalled the murder of Mrs. Allison-Reverot, September 27, the day after his last crime. Spencer attended the wedding of Miss Martha Meyer, daughter of the pastor of the First Methodist Church. He rubbed elbows with the wealthiest members of the congregation while the police were hunting the murderer of the woman. On the following day he attended a four-hour prayer service and led in prayer several times during the evening. On Wednesday night, October 1, he ended prayer meeting and made arrangements to become a full-fledged member of the church.

He pitched for Baltimore until mid-season, when purchased to bolster Mack's weak staff.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Henry Spencer, alias of Mrs. Mildred Allison-Reverot, and confessed murderer of more than twenty persons, today gave a twenty-page confession of his crimes and a new confession today in which he admitted that he had killed at least each of the others. He made the second statement after he had been kept awake all night by the city detective, a logical story of the most remarkable tale of crime in history. "I hit 'em with a hammer or shot 'em, whichever was easiest," he said. "I believe that Spencer is telling the truth," said Captain Higgins. "I am positive that he killed Mrs. Reverot," said Captain Higgins. "I am positive that he killed Mrs. Reverot," said Captain Higgins. "I am positive that he killed Mrs. Reverot," said Captain Higgins.

Crimes He Confesses. With a list of the following names, Spencer told of the following murders which he committed either with a hammer or a small black-man's hammer. Between September 12, 1912, and September 19, 1912: Two White girls, Paw Paw, Mich., beaten over the head, their bodies thrown into the water. Girl at Delavan Lake, Wis., last week, killed with a hammer and her body thrown into the water. Woman in Washington Park, Chicago, shot spring, shot to death, robbed of $200, and her body thrown into the water. Woman in Chicago, killed with hammer, her body thrown into the water. Woman in Chicago, killed with hammer, her body thrown into the water. Woman in Chicago, killed with hammer, her body thrown into the water.

Immediately Starkey took up the trail with a grim determination to capture the Atlanta City and made an instant arrest when he seized the girl's smoking cigarette.

While the National Commission was holding session here to put the finishing touches to the arrangements for the big event, there loomed "bear" stories from the rival camps. From the Athletics' camp, there came the report that several of the rival players were suffering from colds, etc., which "may so affect their physical condition that they may not be able to do the entire series."

The Giants retailed by stating that Shogness, the center fielder, had an almost fatal attack of "charley horse" last night, and that he would get into the game because his arm, though aching, was in an excellent physical condition as such and that a large number of the other 22 Giants eligible to play in the battles were indisposed in some way or other.

WIFE, EYES FOR WEEK; HASTENS TO COLE, FEELING FINE

EMERALDA, PA. Oct. 4.—Thomas Tolesky, the miner who was entombed last Friday 90 feet under ground in the Continental mine, was liberated at 7:25 o'clock this morning. He had been entombed for 165 hours and 25 minutes, but was in good physical condition when he was released by the efforts of 40 men who had worked in relays night and day to save him. He had lost no weight and declared: "I never felt better in my life."

As the rescuing miners drilled away the last layer of coal and rock that separated Tolesky from liberty, the motioned man, looking more like a bear than a human being, exclaimed: "Where is my wife? Is she here? I must see her."

Climbs Unaided to Top.

The rescuing party attempted to lift Tolesky to the surface, but he good naturefully told them he didn't need their help and climbed up along the jutting coal veins to the surface.

"It's pretty good to be out again," he said. "I tell you it was mighty lonesome down there. I was in a little space, so little that at times I thought I would surely choke to Tolesky was surrounded by a crowd of curious who began to ask him questions concerning his imprisonment. The mine doctors, however, refused to permit him to give any detailed account at the time. They hustled him into an automobile.

"Where are you going to take me," he asked.

"To a hospital," was the answer.

"No, you aren't," replied Tolesky. "I want to go home to my wife. I want to see her. And I want her to give me some breakfast to eat."

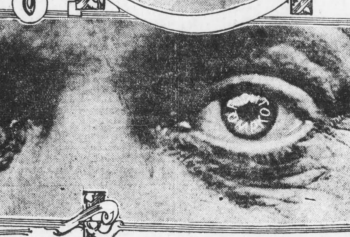

Taken to Home—and Wife.

The doctors, after a preliminary examination of Tolesky at the mouth of the mine had disclosed nothing radically wrong with him, agreed to take him to his home, where, after he greeted his wife, he was re-examined.

The doctors later declared that the man seemed to have suffered no bad effects despite his long confinement in the earth. His beard had grown long and shaggy, his clothes were in rags, but otherwise he was free of the effects of his harrowing experience.

DR. McNAUGHON BEGINS SENTENCE

MILLEDGEVILLE, Oct. 4.—Confessing that in time he will again be a free man, and declaring that the fight for liberty will continue until justice has been done, Dr. W. J. McNaughton begins today his sentence of life imprisonment in the State penitentiary.

In custody of E. W. Overby, an attendant of the prison farm, he was turned over to the State Friday night and today is preparing to begin his work as steward of the hospital.

Dr. McNaughton brought a large amount of baggage with him, principally his medical instruments, which are very highly prized and he will not give up his studies, though occupying the cell of a convict.

"I know I am innocent of the crime for which the State has decreed that I shall spend the remainder of my life, but for the sake of the two little boys, aged 10 and 12, who are sons of North Carolina, and for whom I have a great deal to live for, and I am confident that in time my innocence will be proved to the entire satisfaction of the Governor and the State. I will do my very best to the best of my ability, having an abundant faith that in time justice will be done."

WALLACE REPEATS CHARITABLE ATTACK

The Rev. Hugh Wallace issued the following statement in reply to Linton C. Hopkins' defense of the Associated Charities Saturday:

"I should like to know where Mr. Hopkins got his information that I do not contribute to the Associated Charities $5 to give away $1. I have never said anything like that. He will only refer to that Monday's Georgian, from which I should have tried to quote certain things I said, he will discover my mistake."

"I did say a large portion of the money contributed by Atlanta for charity purposes was being used for the support of numerous people up at the Associated Charities' office. And if Mr. Hopkins will refer to the financial report of his organization he will find that I do not care to be drawn into any controversy with the Associated Charities at this time. A large portion of the people of Atlanta are not in sympathy with this organization, and no approval by the majority of the many uncharitable acts that stand against it."

'Secret of Lone Citizen's' Rise in Atlanta's Political Sphere Startles Acquaintances

Jesse B. Lee, nominee for Council from the Fifth Ward, Saturday revealed the secret by which he has succeeded in politics—the first confession of the kind, by the way, ever recorded in Atlanta—and in so doing told of his eyes, the most remarkable eyes in Georgia, perhaps in the world.

The question of the personal equation which enters into politics, and therefore affects all political careers, has been a big political topic for a secret, else it wouldn't be a valuable possession.

To bare that secret is unusual enough. When a man proves the possession to be a peculiar formation of the iris of his eyes the confusion is nothing short of startling.

"Lone Citizen" Lee.

Long have professional politicians wondered at the mysterious movements of Jesse B. Lee. How his name sprang from obscurity to be as well known as that of the Mayor of Atlanta almost took their breath.

It was at a big political rally on Peters street. The crowd, evidently all of one way of thinking, was pulled it appeared that every man had stood up. But a shout on the formality was called. A loud, acute form arose alone in the center of the gathering.

The next morning he was heralded in the newspapers as "The Lone Citizen." And to this day he bears the title of "Lone Citizen" Lee.

The years rolled by with "Lone Citizen" Lee taking an active part in

GRACE LEAVENDS RESIGNATION OF WHOLEY

Charleston Mayor Returns Home After Giving Testimony Against Carolina Congressman.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 3.—Mayor John P. Grace has returned from Washington, where he went to press charges which he has preferred against Congressman R. S. Whaley in connection with the latter's election from the First South Carolina District.

Mayor Grace makes the following statement:

"The Whaley matter is before the committee, and I have no right to state what the decision of the committee will be. My opinion is not basing it on what the committee says, but that I do not think I can get ten million for the investigation to fail. The evidence is overwhelming, and the case will be made out beyond peradventure. I am speaking now as a lawyer and as a man who knows the value of facts. The facts in this case point with an unmistakable finger to conviction. Mr. Whaley knows it, and is leaving nothing undone by every process to prevent the facts from coming out. The advantage that we have is that from this point forth, as far as this point goes, there is nothing to do but state the facts. In order to meet us, Mr. Whaley has two alternatives—either to perjure himself or tell the truth. In either case the result will be the same, because we are ready by an abundance of witnesses to rebut his perjury. If he tells the truth he had better resign. In fact, he had better resign anyhow and save his friends, because if they are to bring down upon them the exposure which can only lead to his expulsion from Congress. I have read the statements in the press, and they do not conform in any way to the true situation. But this is to be expected. It is in keeping with the entire campaign. Fortunately, the matter will not be in the newspapers, but in Congress. Mr. Whaley has already been indicted by a grand jury gentleman that if he is innocent he will submit himself to a grand jury for the investigation to proceed, and that his name should only be construed as a confession.

The several witnesses who accompanied Mayor Grace to Charleston have returned to Charleston. Postmaster J. M. Poinsett, who was mentioned in the newspapers as being in Washington to tender any money which might be offered by Congressman Whaley, has also returned to Charleston. He had no statement to make.

Enthusiasm Is Running High In Pedalmobile Contest

"Gee, ain't it a peach! Couldn't I speed some if I had one of them! How many are you going to give away, Mister?" These are some of the remarks to be heard around The Georgian Office where the big red "Georgian Flyer" is on exhibition—the one just like The Hearst's Sunday American and Atlanta Georgian will give to each boy and girl who secures forty new subscriptions to the paper before October 1.

There are many earnest workers and the subscriptions are coming fast. It would only be a wild guess now to say who will win the first fifteen cars and receive the Charter Membership Certificates to the Atlanta Pedalmobile Racing Club. These Certificates will entitle the holder to compete in any or all races and events to be held in the near future.

Pedalmobile Clubs are to be found in many of the large cities, having been promoted by some of the largest and best newspapers in the country. This sort of sport may be new in Atlanta, but in many particulars the Pedalmobile races are to the children what the Auto races are to the grown-ups. In fact, they are handled a good deal on the same order and are interesting to the parents as well as the children.

These little machines are not to be confined to pleasure alone, but can be put to good use in many different ways. In some cities carrier boys who have won Pedalmobiles may be seen distributing their papers in them. All these cars are well-made and serviceable and will surely gladden the heart of any boy or girl who is fortunate enough to win one.

These cars are now on exhibition in the window of O. C. Polk Dry Goods Store, 29 South Gordon Street; South Pryor Ice Cream Parlor, 353 South Pryor Street, and Imperial Tire and Tube Company, 349 Peachtree Street. While attending the Odd-and-Ends Sale at Polk's Dry Goods Company, be sure to notice the "Georgian Flyer" in the window.

OUTSIDE WORKERS.

A number of boys and girls outside of the city of Atlanta have sent in their application blanks and are now working earnestly to obtain one of the handsome little cars. The Pedalmobile man will be glad to send subscription blanks to more honest hustlers who would like to own a Pedalmobile.

Just fill out the application blank below and full particulars will be mailed you at once.

Governor Slaton Personally Investigates and Verifies the Circulation of The Georgian and Hearst's Sunday American.

October 4th 1913.

At the request of the management of The Atlanta Georgian and The Sunday American, I personally examined on Friday afternoon their various circulation statements, in detail. This work required sometime, but it was willingly given, because I regard these newspapers as enterprises of which all Georgia should be proud.

These circulation figures I have checked up and verified in person. I have examined the sworn statements of the circulation manager and the cashier of The Georgian corporation, and cross questioned them in detail about the circulation figures. I believe the figures to be absolutely correct.

Purely from a business man's viewpoint, both The Georgian and The Sunday American, in points of quality and quantity of circulation, should be, and I have no doubt are, highly satisfactory and effective advertising mediums.

The fine circulation showings furnish me ample foundation for warm congratulations. I sincerely wish for Mr. Hearst and his Georgia newspapers the fullest measure of prosperity and success—both of which seem assured.

John M. Slaton.

Bank of England's Effort to Check Outflow of Gold Prevents Money Riot.

By B. C. FORBES. The United States has shipped $45,000,000 worth of cotton to Europe...

The following facts would seem to support adequately for the Bank of England's decision to check any wholesale outflow of gold...

It is not likely that the Bank of England is in any real danger of a money riot...

It is India in imposing a heavy drain upon London to handle her bumper crop...

The private or open market, discount rate has gone so high in London...

The Bank of France is following an interesting policy in increasing its gold reserve...

The Imperial Bank of Germany has entered the scramble for gold...

Do not these considerations amply justify the Bank of England's present action?

How will London's sudden manœuvre affect America? IT WILL PROBABLY NOT US GOOD RATHER THAN MISERY.

This statement will be challenged, therefore, explain I had the

JOE JEANNETTE BEATS LANGFORD IN 10-ROUND GO

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Joe Jeannette today is the master of Sam Langford, at least over the ten-round round. He proved this decisively last night when he bested the Boston "tar baby" in their battle at the Garden A. C. Jeannette won seven of the ten rounds. Neither man scored a knockdown, but each one during the milling staggered his opponent. At the time Langford's eye was damaged, his nose bruised and his lips gashed. Jeannette did not show a mark when he left the ring.

SILK HAT HARRY'S DIVORCE SUIT

So It's Only "A" World's Series They Had 'Em 30 Years Ago

By O. B. Keeler. WHILE striving to enjoy the bogus solemnity of the fall before the storm, employing some by a palpitating search through the Realms of Deceit for more information in the Bender, Matty, et al. case, we stumbled headfirst over the following head-line: "EVERY TOURNAMENT STILL ON." Inasmuch as the World Series had not quite begun, we had to guess again. "Shucks!" It was something about a pocket-billiard meet. Now, what in the world business has pocket-billiards mingling with world series, or serious, or whatever the plural is or are? STILL, the little mess afforded by that same headline brought a reflection that may be as fatal, just at this breathless moment. Following in the reflection: The World Series of 1913 is just "A" World Series, after all--not "THE" World Series.

THESE we write about it, and talk about it--the one we throw, the wars we wage--might establish the great sporting event with the unlikeliest of not only a World Series, but also a Solar System Series--a Universal Series. And, to all intents, it IS that very thing. Baseball may be indigenous to America, may be further narrowed to the United States. But the best baseball team in the United States is the B. B. T. in America, and the best baseball team in America is the B. B. T. in the world. And what's the harm of going a bit farther--taking in a bit more territory, and crowning the winner of the World Series champion of the Solar System and all the distant worlds that will shine as stars when the Polo Grounds are fathoms deep in the splinters of a frozen Earth?

WHY not? Don't you know if the Martians say baseball, or the ARABY Martians. But, anyway, they'd have to travel a long way to dispute our title. And we can pin our hopes with a high heart on the wing of Chief Bender or Big Six, as the case might be, to keep the honor here on Earth.

BUT we call it the World Series. And maybe that takes in territory enough. Only it might better be called "A" World Series.

THERE are other World Series in the past. There are fans with the gray about their temples who shake their heads indignantly while the rising generation of the Tropics and Demerol, of Swaggy and Schaggy--even of Gary and Edith Patti. They may join in the debate, but they'll send your back to the knees of Joe Star and Harry Wright.

Big Indian a Great Catcher Now and a Dangerous Pinch Hitter CHIEF MEYERS AT HIS BEST FOR TITLE STRUGGLE

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.--Two years ago disaster descended with a considerable descent upon the New York National League baseball club. It was called the Athletics, and it had gone into the disaster house on a large scale for some time past. It had spraddled the great Cub machine all over the lot a year before and that summer had romped through the American League with the ease and grace of a Secretary of State on the chautauqua circuit. Consequently, when it came upon the Giants it was primed for an orgy, and what better is history. With Matty in the box, the Giants took the scoring game by a squeak, and then with a low ripping sound the team was pulled to pieces. Our best hitters were fanning in the pinches. The best of our infielders were practicing it on some green grounds as campers, their way, and the treatment of our fielders frequently came within a foot of the place when he essayed a throw to get a run.

Indian Plays Real Ball. In the general post there was one man who kept both feet on the ground all the time, who snatched the ball to the bases as true and swift as a bullet, who kept his head and his heart and stove until the last man was out to "get the game together."

This man was "Big Chief" Meyers, the giant Indian catcher of the giant team, who came to New York a few years ago, a thick-skulled, massive, hard-hitting, slow-footed, clumsy minor leaguer, and has developed into one of the best catchers in the game. And no matter what happens this week, you can go on and believe if the special police are not around--that there is at least one member of the giant club that will do his share of the work to wipe out that catastrophe of two years ago.

Meyers is one of the coolest, shrewdest and outmost thinking catchers that ever came to the Polo Grounds. He has both gray matter and gunnison, and the one is as delicate without the other in baseball as electricity. He has a full general information that runs from national politics to the philosophy of Plato, and a delicate-adapted sense of humor, and these two combine to give him a good perspective of the national game.

Whenever the opportunity offers to give the occasion, he is ready to give before some Indian commission and give the people a fair and general account of accurate information and give the people a fair and general account of accurate information and give the people a fair and general account of accurate information.

GREAT STAFF OF EXPERTS AT THE BIG SERIES FOR THE GEORGIAN

THE GEORGIAN AND SUNDAY AMERICAN will have the best reports of the world's series. A corps of experts are now on the battlement, watching for every bit of news and live gossip. Among the special writers who will have reports daily in The Georgian and Sunday American are: Billy Smith, the giants' wonderful catcher; Rue Marquard, Giants pitcher, who was the hero of last fall's World's Series; Paul Armstrong, the playwright, who has no superior as a baseball writer; Damon Runyon, Sam Crane and A. H. C. Mitchell.

Also, Tad and Al Demaree, the Giants' pitcher, formerly with Mobile, will draw cartoons for The Georgian and Sunday American.

He's sorry now, although he has made more money as a ball player than he would have made as an engineer in the same period of time. That's the popular with ball players. He is ready to fight any time for justice and fair play and he is so good-natured that he isn't seriously annoyed when the fans perpetrate that same war--whose, every time he comes to bat. He can always tell when anything is funny, whether the laugh is on him or not. He hits a

Women Golfers Invade U. S. From England

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.--England's invasion of the American sports field will end next week with the playing of the United States Golf Association's women's championship at Wilmington, Del. The United States will be represented by Miss Margaret Dodd, Miss Harrison and Miss Dodo.

Miss Dodd holds the British title, Miss Harrison was the 1912 champion, and Miss Dodo holds for three years the Irish title holder. All three are golfers of excellent style and ability, and are sure to prove dangerous contenders in the United States championship. Should one of the trio win the title tournament it could hardly be termed a novelty in American golf, for Miss Dorothy Campbell captured first honors in this event in 1909 and 1910.

The present American champion, Miss Margaret Campbell, will have achieved some of the shot of those who crowd Francis Pickens, the triple athlete, in the English championships.

Mack in Bad Way for Pitchers Bender Alone in Shape--Chance

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.--Frank Chance, manager of the Yankees, is today speeding westward to the California track. He passed through Chicago yesterday. During his brief stay between trains Chance gave his views on the world's series. A week ago he favored the Athletics. Today he says it is a toss, giving equal chances to both teams.

Chance is qualified to speak. He played against the Athletics and the Giants are not strangers to him. "I don't mean that the white man could not have been here, but with a few leaders--real big men--our fathers would have come out to the white man's type of civilization. The white man's type of civilization was the highest, just as the Jews have done. We would have had great states and communities in the Union, and we would have been useful, progressive citizens."

As if the Indians are robbed by agents and shifted from reservation to reservation whenever anyone happens to want their land. True after truth is scattered, and in another hundred years my people will have gone the way of the Aroca.

Still, there will always probably be a few faces who think it brings to pull the war-whip when the Chief comes to bat.

White Matched to Box Welsh on October 20

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.--Charlie White, Chicago's pugilist, is going to get a real test on October 20. White was today matched to battle Freddy Welsh, the British champion, in a ten-round contest in Milwaukee. White will have practically no time to get in any training for the White match.

CHURCH PAPERS DECARE A BIG SUCCESS

Important Addresses Are Made by Dr. White, Pastor McConnell, Governor Slaton and Others.

Important sermons marked Rally Day in Atlanta's churches and Monday prominent workers hailed the day as one of the most important in local church history.

A laudation of the Atlanta's police department was the sermon of Dr. John E. White, at the Second Baptist Church Sunday night.

On the eve of the contest for the world's supremacy in baseball, John McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, was quoted as an illustration by Dr. Lincoln McConnell, at the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday night.

"Winning the Pennant" was the subject of the sermon, which treated of cowardice and pleaded for the avoidance of it and defeat.

"In listening to an address by Miss McGraw in Pittsburgh," said the preacher, "I was forcibly struck by one of his statements. It was that the reason so many young men fall in the big leagues of baseball is because they lack the heart—the moral cowardice."

"Tea, purpose and preparation are the three ingredients of ambition. Make up your mind that you are going to do one thing, and do it. Don't let anything swerve you from your path."

An address by Governor John M. Slaton to 750 children of the Second Baptist school, was given Sunday afternoon. The Governor has taught a Sunday school class since he was 19 years of age.

RIGHT on GEORGIA COTTONS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

Governor Slaton, in appointing Charles L. Davis, of Warm Springs, as Game Commissioner of Georgia, has showed a faithful, firm, unflinching and enthusiastic friend of the birds, squirrels and fish of the State.

He is extremely popular among his home folks, is highly respected by the bar, and is looked upon as an able, able and competent attorney. Mr. Davis has a great many friends scattered throughout the State, and a number of these already have congratulated him on his choice for this place.

The appointment of Irving McHenry to the position of the City Court game laws, he has believed this course to be right because of the ever growing severity of game and from a humane point of view, too.

Legislation after Legislature turned a cold ear to his pleadings. He managed to get bills through one house only to have them killed in the other. He worked on and on, however, he never wearied in well doing.

The result was, generally, the case when one stands for the rights of no matter how unpopular it may seem at first. He soon gathered about him a following that grew from day to day, and from month and year to month and year, until at last it was sufficiently large to make him felt effective in the halls of legislation, and Davis then saw his cherished ambition fulfilled.

He long has desired to be Game Commissioner of Georgia. Having played so great a part in getting game laws introduced after his death, he was naturally anxious to see them put into effect.

It is interesting to note that in making the change, extended every courtesy to the retiring commissioner, against whom no word of adverse criticism was uttered. He permitted him to remain in office for two months after the expiration of his term, in order that he might win up some pet projects and ideas, and his old employer at full pay.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—With the first game of the world's series clash between the Giants and Athletics only 24 hours away, there existed today among the professional betting fraternity a greater degree of uncertainty in which to lay their wagers than has ever before characterized a meeting between the pennant winners of the rival major leagues.

Umpire Says Plank Pleads His Old Age. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—A certain umpire tells this story about Eddie Plank, the Athletics' veteran southpaw: "Plank is getting awfully slow and I'm reticent to put him about it the other day. He came back with this excuse: 'Look here, I am nearly 40 years old. I can't go like these young fellows. I have to husband all my strength to go nine innings and I can't hurry.'

Allen Now Pocket Billiard Champion. NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Benny Allen, of Kansas City, won the world's pocket billiard championship last night, defeating Alfred De Oro, of Cuba, the title holder for several years by a total score in three straight play of 609 to 518.

IN WANT AD CONTEST

$1,000 IN GOLD - - $500 IN FURNITURE (Own Selection)

First Prize to Organizations

Second Prize to Organizations

North Atlanta Baptist Church
Hemphill Ave. and West 10th St.
REV. Wm. H. BELL, Pastor

St. James M. E. Church
801 Marietta St.
REV. W. W. BRINSFIELD, Pastor

St. Anthony's Church, Lee and Ashby Sts.
Father O. N. JACKSON

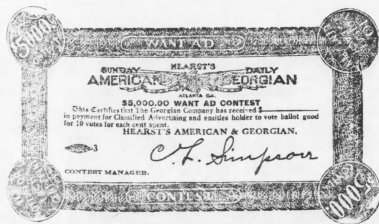

THE above picture shows the substantial foundation of St. Anthony's church, which was dedicated more than three years ago. The construction of this church is progressing very slowly, although Father Jackson and his members have been untiring in their efforts, and deserve assistance and the highest commendation for their loyalty. This is a most worthy cause and the aid of all Catholics, friends and advertisers will be very much appreciated. Advertise with The Georgian in their classified columns, vote for St. Anthony's church and be the possible means of their winning the $1,000.00 in gold.

THROUGH the long experience and untiring efforts of W. W. Brinsfield, he is making attempt to thoroughly remodel and beautify St. James M. E. Church, an improvement long needed. He is about to complete this work, but the large expense has necessitated a considerable debt, and, in order to lift this obligation, appeal is here made to all members, friends and advertisers to use The Georgian Want Ads and vote for this church.

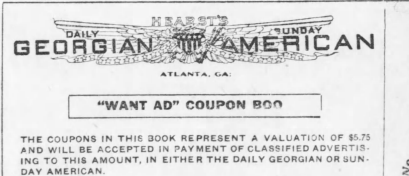

This assistance will be appreciated.

THE ladies of the North Atlanta Baptist Church have assumed the responsibility of furnishing new seats for this house of worship now under way of construction. They appeal to the advertisers in the city of Atlanta to use The Georgian classified ads, cast votes in their favor and help them in their great undertaking.

They need your assistance, and hope to be successful in landing the $1,000 in gold.

This certificate will be given in placing your Want Ads with The Georgian - 10 votes allowed on every penny spent. Save it for your favorite organization.

These Coupon Books are being sold by the various churches, organizations and individuals. They represent thousands of votes, are a big saving to the advertisers and may spell success for your favorite contestant.
