12 INJURED IN RIOT AS CROWDS WILDLY BUSH INTO POLO GROUNDS

By BILLY SMITH, Manager Athletic Ball Club. NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Twelve persons were hurt at noon to-day in a riot at the Polo Grounds shortly after the gates were opened for the third game of the World's Series. A mob of delirious fans made a rush for the turnstiles brushing aside the hundreds of police and plain clothes men who were on duty. A dozen persons were trampled, some sustaining serious injuries.

At 2 o'clock Will Clinch Victory—Georgians Lead Attack on Money Bill.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—Atlanta this afternoon will win the honor of playing the American Baseball Association in the autumn of 1914. Every one concedes Atlanta is practically sure to be victor. Still the hopes of the South are not as bright as they were. The only vigorous rival, the Cardinals, are only death and taxes are so certain, the vote at 2 o'clock is awaited with much anxiety.

POSTPONEMENT IN FRANK CASE MADE CERTAIN

Letter from Dorsey Requests Judge Roan to Let Arguments Go Over.

A letter received in Atlanta Thursday from Solicitor Dorsey made certain the postponement of arguments for a new trial for Leo M. Frank which were to have heard Saturday by Judge Roan.

Executive Council Govern. The recommendation of the executive council in past years has been to have the campaign being waged by delegates from Atlanta City and Richmond, Va., apparently has been abandoned.

Financial Moses Sought. H. T. Puyell, of Macon, discussing the issue taken by the currency commission, voiced the sentiments of a great many of the delegates when he made the following statement to The Georgian representative to-day:

What is needed is a man of great business experience, in whom the people of the country have unlimited confidence. No such shining light appears in sight as yet. We are all looking for a great leader, a financial Moses.

DEFENSE DOESN'T OBJECT

The postponement is wholly within the discretion of Judge Roan, and the defense would interpose no objection in all probability even if it did not entirely suit their wishes. It is understood, however, that Frank's lawyers are satisfied with the delay, as it affords them time to obtain additional evidence of rebuttal bias on the part of A. H. Henkle, Marcellus J. Bennett and one of two other Frank jurors.

36 REPORTED HURT IN LOUISIANA WRECK

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Thirty-six persons were injured, twelve reported to-day when a New Orleans and Northport excursion train jumped the track near Winnshoek, La. The train was loaded with several hundred persons on route to a circus at Natchez. Misses were injured by Frank's lawyers, refuses to discuss the case except to express his confidence that a new trial will be denied. He stands firmly by his original declaration that the defense is without adequate grounds to ask for a new trial.

ATLANTA TO GET BANK MEETING TO-DAY

FORCES 1-HD. BE AS PARENTS OBJECT

Vote at 2 o'Clock Will Clinch Victory--Georgians Lead Attack on Money Bill.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—Atlanta this afternoon will win the honor of playing host to the American Bankers' Association in the autumn of 1914. Every one considers Atlanta is practically sure to be elected.

Atlanta are among the wheel horses of the association. They are doing in all the important movements the bankers have under way, and this has kept Atlanta and its associates constantly in the mind of the convention.

Joseph A. McCord, one of the two southern members of the association's currency commission, helped with the report which branded the present currency bill "reactionary" and "imposing undue hardships on the banks and equally unwise on the general public." This severe condemnation of the administration's monetary reform program has been taken as the voice of the convention.

Rubler E. Farnsworth, secretary of the association, announced today that he has notified the Georgia delegates of their case and that the executive council will recommend the resolution that Atlanta be chosen as the site of the convention.

The recommendation of the executive council in past years has been reversed. The campaign being waged by delegates from Atlantic City and Richmond, Va., apparently has been abandoned.

John K. Outley, of Atlanta, who has secured his entire time to the campaign, said today: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Atlanta will be chosen. Secretary Farnsworth agrees with us from Georgia that Atlanta is the place."

President Wilson May Be Invited to Speak in Atlanta

The Chamber of Commerce probably will extend President Wilson an invitation to stop over in Atlanta a few hours on his way to the Southern Commercial Congress at Mobile.

The President is due to pass through Atlanta late in the afternoon of October 26, and it is hoped to get him to stop off here and deliver a short address and be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce at dinner.

The board of directors of the Chamber will hold a meeting Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the question of extending the invitation will be taken up.

36 Reported Hurt In Louisiana Wreck

ATHLETICS GET BIG LEAD AT THE HUMP BY BEAT HITTERS

By BILLY SMITH, Manager Atlanta Ball Club.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—With an overflow crowd to watch the third game of the series this afternoon, the Giants, crippled but confident, hooked up with the Athletics, who were in a fighting frame of mind over their unlooked-for reverse of yesterday on their own lot.

Big Jeff Hansen was chosen to pitch for the Giants, with Larry McLean again behind the bat. Bush, one of Mack's youngsters, was selected to work for the Athletics, with Schang, the young catcher, working back of the wood.

Merkle was back at first base for the Giants, in spite of his injury.

The morning was damp and foggy, but cleared up toward noon, and conditions were fair though the field was damp as play started at 2 o'clock, Eastern time.

FIRST INNING.
With one ball and a strike on Murphy, Fletcher took his batter and retired him at first. With two strikes on him, O'Drigh "singled" shaggy to center. With two strikes called on Collins, he hit a single in the same place, O'Drigh reaching third. Baker missed two swings and then singled past short, O'Drigh scoring and Collins stopping at second. Collins and Baker worked the double play, McLean dropping the bat and hitting O'Drigh on third and second, respectively, throwing him out. Big Jeff's center lever slipped and he wheeled up three balls in a row. Then Strunk kicked, missed another, and then grounded to Fletcher, who threw the ball over Merkle's head. Collins and Baker scored and Strunk went to second. Barry fled to Murray. THREE RUNS, THREE HITS, ONE ERROR.

Herzog got Bush in the hole and then hit to Barry, who threw him out at first. Doyle beat out a drive that was too fast for Bush to handle. With two strikes on him, Fletcher was hit by a pitched ball. Burns popped to Collins, who doubled Doyle at second. Barry taking Eddie's relay. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

SECOND INNING.
Schang fanned, batted by Tesreau's jumping spitter. Bush swung once and then fled to Murray. With two strikes and two balls called, Murphy singled to Fletcher, who got the ball too late to make a play. O'Drigh hit the first ball for a "single" to right, Murphy taking third. Tesreau seemed to be losing his smokes. O'Drigh stole second unassisted, after which Collins singled to center, scoring Murphy and O'Drigh. Baker forced Collins, Doyle making the play unassisted. TWO RUNS, THREE HITS, NO ERRORS.

With one strike on Schaffer, Collins tossed him out on an easy grounder. Murray fled to Collins and McLean came to bat. The Scot swung twice, fouling one, and then fouled to Schang. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

THIRD INNING.
Merkle hit the first ball pitched for a fly to Burns. Strunk hit into the same pocket after an strike and two balls had been called. Barry hit a high one straight up, which McLean captured. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Merkle fled to Strunk hitting the first pitch. Tesreau batted for himself. He fouled off two pitches and then fanned. With the count one and two, Herzog fled to Collins. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

FOURTH INNING.
Schang fouled off a couple of fast ones and then fanned. Two balls were wide of the plate, and then Bush hit a hard drive into right field which Murray failed to reach after a hit run, the hit going for a single. Murphy fled to Schaffer, and Doyle fled to center. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Doyle watched a ball pass him swing twice, and then popped up to foul to Baker. Bush wheeled three balls up to Fletcher and then slipped over two strikes, after which Fletcher fouled into the grandstand. Then he singled over second. Burns fanned on three pitches, fouling one. Fletcher stole second—he first stolen base of the series for the Giants. Then Collins lost out on Shaffer. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

FIFTH INNING.
Collins fouled off two and then fled to Murray. Baker hit a high foul to Fletcher back of third. McLean fled through Baker, scoring Murray. Cooper was sent in for McLean. Merkle missed a curve and then fled high and far away to Murphy. Tesreau fouled off two high fast ones, waited out a low curve on the next, and Cooper pitched second on the check. Tesreau hit the next ball to Baker, who threw to McLean in time, Cooper hustling over to third on the play. Herzog hit in front of the plate and Schang threw him out, ending the inning. ONE RUN, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

SIXTH INNING.
Wilson went in to catch for New York. Strunk fled to Burns. Schang popped to Wilson. Bush fled to Doyle. NO RUNS.

Doyle out to McInnis, unassisted. Fletcher walked. Burns hit into a double play, Bush to Collins to McInnis. NO RUNS.

SEVENTH INNING.
Murphy singled to right. O'Drigh forced him, Fletcher to Doyle. Collins tripled, scoring O'Drigh. Baker singled to center and Collins romped in. Tesreau was taken out and Crandall substituted. McInnis hit into a double play to Doyle unassisted. TWO RUNS, 3 HITS, NO ERRORS.

Schaffer doubled to left. Murray singled to right, scoring Schaffer. Wilson fanned. Murray out stealing. Schang to Collins. Merkle walked. White running. Crandall out, Collins to McInnis. ONE RUN, TWO HITS, NO ERRORS.

EIGHTH INNING.
Crandall flied Strunk's feeble tap to Witte. Barry did the same way. O'Leary's curve fooled the slugger. Schang, however, walloped a home run into the grandstand about the same place Baker's hit landed Tuesday, and the crowd whooped and jeered. Burns fanned. Strunk out, Crandall to Witte at first. Barry out, Crandall to Witte. Schang hit a home run into the right field grandstand. Bush fanned. ONE RUN, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Herzog lined to Barry. Doyle out to McInnis. Fletcher fouled to Schang. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

NINTH INNING.
Murphy fled to Murray. O'Drigh fouled to Herzog. Collins fled to Shaffer. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Burns fled to Murphy. Schaffer walked. Murray forced Shaffer at second, Barry to Collins. Wilson fled to Baker. NO RUNS.

RUTH HANDS RUMMY A LINE OF CHATTER

By TAD.

Fred! Was Baker in the game? Oh, yes, I remember now. The old fence-broker was, but I don't think he broke, or nearly broke, was his back and a large slice of most atmospheres trying to get an intimate terms with one of Matty's curves.

I don't want to rub it in or anything like that, but say, is that a wood-burning car you're going to bring around Saturday night or is it for the Athletics?

They brought a banana peel yesterday, and there is no telling when they will stop.

With Meyers, Merkle and Shodgrass out of the line-up, and they win me my face!

What's that on your chin, Judge? Run it off. Put your clothes on and give the score the once over, Judge. And that he was on his way to the game to-day and let out a few words about it.

Yours till the bay dries out.

RUTH.

His Little Joke on Police Cost Him $15

W. E. Harrison, No. 478 Conradi street, telephoned the police Wednesday night that bandits had held up and robbed two officers at Peachtree and Merritt.

Call officers Watson and Jones, and suspicious of the message, learned from "central" that the call came from No. 478 Conradi. There they found Harrison. Recorder Boyles imposed a fine of $15.

BIG JEFF TESREAU IS HIT FREELY, BUT BUSH BEHAVES LIKE CHAMP

By BILLY SMITH. Manager Atlanta Team.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 9—The game to-day wasn't much of a game—no after the second inning. The Athletics simply piled up a big lead and copped, 8 to 2, in a regular romp over Jeff Tesreau, while Bush, the first of Mack's youngsters to start, pitched like a champion all the way. And the Athletics certainly can hit fast pitching.

That was all there was to it. Bush was good and Tesreau was hum, while Bush's support was fine and Tesreau's wabbling right at the start, which is the crucial time of the game, to my way of thinking.

Right off the reel, the heavy artillery began working on Mr. Tesreau. Murphy was out, but Oldring, with two strikes on him, singled to center. Then Collins, and with two strikes on him, rapped a single to the same place and Ruben went to third. Tesreau's control was good—too good, I guess, for he promptly got two strikes on Frank Baker. Then Frank singled past Fletcher and there was a run over. While McInnis was at bat Baker and Collins pulled a double steal, putting them on second and third. Stuffy fanned, but when Strunk hit to Fletcher that unlucky young man heaved the pill ten feet over Merkle's head and two runs came over.

The game was really settled right there, but nobody knew it. So the Mackies came right back in the second frame. Schang and Bush were easy outs, but Murphy, Oldring and Collins shot off singles in a row, and there were two more runs to give Mr. Bush confidence, if he needed it.

Mr. Bush didn't seem to need the confidence, the way he was going. He wabbed a bit in the fifth and again in the seventh, a walk and a steal by Murray being followed in the fifth by McLean's single through Baker, while Shaffer's double in the seventh was followed by Murray's single. Murray tried to steal with one out and the Giants five runs behind, which was bad judgment, and anyway he was pegged out by Schang, who caught a fine game.

On the only other occasions when danger threatened Bush, double plays stopped the attack dead.

Merkle was at first base again, but didn't figure much in either attack or defense. McLean caught well and produced a pinch hit. But the big bats of Oldring, Collins, Baker & Co. were rapping away and that was all there was to it.

As a result of to-day's victory, Connie Mack's team has a big edge on the series. The next game will be played in Philadelphia and Chief Bender will be on the mound again, while this time it will be McGraw who has to do the keen thinking, unless he plans to take a chance on Marquard.

The official attendance was 35,000, a much larger crowd than that which saw the second game in Philadelphia. It was also a much sorer crowd, or I'm no judge.

This Is the Way the Giants Lost Another to Mackmen

FIRST INNING.
 With one ball and a strike on Murphy, Fletcher took his hommer and retired him at first. With two strikes on him, Oldring singled sharply to center. With two strikes called on Collins, he hit a single in the same place, Oldring reaching third. Baker missed two swings and then singled off Oldring, Oldring reaching second. Collins and Doyle were called, respectively, striking out. Big Jeff's control was slipping and he whizzed up three balls in a row. Then Strunk fouled one, missed another, and then grounded to Fletcher, who threw the ball over Merkle's head. Collins went to second, Barry fled to Murray. THREE! Oldring hit Strunk with a line drive. Herzog got Bush in the hole and then hit to Barry, who threw him out at first. Doyle beat out a drive that fouled one, and then fouled to

Single Testimony in Unusual Divorce Case—Husband Commanded by Court.

One of the most unusual divorce cases in the city was held at the Polo Grounds Thursday when Robert A. Harper testified that he had willingly abandoned his bride on an hour because the girl's parents thought it was best for her to go to the court. The court warmly commended the girl for her course.

How the Girl's Parents are Calculated to Save Much by Having Parents who are Opposed to the Love Affairs of their Children.

Mr. Bertha Dickenson Harper, the plaintiff in the case, was given a first trial for the total divorce as a result of her husband's "desertion." The case was perhaps one of the most interesting in the history of divorce proceedings in Fulton County. The defendant, who is barely 20 years old, was ordered to take the oath of matrimony as a result of his wife's refusal to divorce.

Conference Held.

The separation, it was stated, followed a family conference held at the home of the girl's parents shortly before the ceremony had been performed. Following the testimony of Harper, the jury addressed the girl, commending the young man for his action, and stating that he did the wise thing in yielding to the wishes of his parents and leaving his bride before the altar.

Plames Mother-in-Law For Troubles; Gets Divorce.

Warning his mother-in-law with violence to his home, L. C. Thurman was granted a divorce from her on Thursday. Thurman charged that, at the instance of his mother-in-law his wife had been subjected to a beating and that she had been driven from the home. He alleged that the motive was the possession of valuable property in Texas. The divorce was granted by Judge Thurman.

FREE 1-HR. BRIDE AS PARENTS OBJECT

Unique Testimony in an Unusual Divorce Case--Husband Commanded by Court.

One of the most unusual divorce cases on record was aired before Judge Ellis Thursday when Robert A. Harper testified that he had willingly released his bride of an hour because the girl's parents thought it was very pretty, and told the court that he was very much in love with her.

Harper testified that he had willingly released his bride of an hour because the girl's parents thought it was very pretty, and told the court that he was very much in love with her.

CHARGES REQUIR TO GO SOLZED

Judge Alton B. Parker, in Impeachment Arguments, Bitterly Arraigns Executive.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Judge Alton B. Parker, in the course of a bitter arraignment of Governor William Sulzer before the court of impeachment this afternoon, declared that the Governor had knowingly sworn to a lie when he reported $5,450 of receipts in the face of $37,000 of proven contributions.

He ridiculed the Serecky testimony, declaring it unworthy of belief, and said that the Governor must indeed have been proud of his pupil when he read the report that entitled all of the contributions from the great interests. The liquor dealers or the politicians included in it, and he added: "The man who read that lie, and examined it, knew it was not true. It does not help him for the boy to say he did the best he could; his master knew it was a lie."

For more than two hours Judge Marshall, speaking in defense of Governor Sulzer, attacked the right of the court of impeachment to convene the Governor upon charges that related solely to things transpiring before his term of office began.

In a powerful speech, in so far as his technical legal force was concerned, the attorney hammered this fact at the judges of the high court.

"All of the meat in the impeachment hangs about the one offense of making a false campaign statement which was rendered before the Governor's term of office began, and the court is without power to punish for an act which does not involve official misconduct in office," he said.

A verdict is expected next Monday or Tuesday.

BIG JEFF TESREAU IS HIT FREELY, BUT BUSH BEHAVES LIKE CHAMP

By BILLY SMITH.
Manager Atlanta Team.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The game to-day at the start, which is the crucial time of the game, to my way of thinking.

Right off the reel, the heavy artillery began working on Mr. Tesreau. Murphy was out, but Oldring, with two strikes on him, singled to center. Then Collins, also with two strikes on him, rapped a single to the same place and Rube went to third. Tesreau's control was good—too good, I guess, for he promptly got two strikes on Frank Baker. Then Frank singled past Fletcher and there was a run over. While McLain was at bat Baker and Collins pulled a double steal, putting them on second and third. Stuffy fanned, but when Strunk hit to Fletcher that unlicky young man heaved the pill ten feet over Merkle's head and two runs came over.

The game was really settled right there, but nobody knew it. So the Mackies came right back in the second frame. Schang and Bush were easy outs, but Murphy, Oldring and Collins shot off singles in a row, and there were two more runs to give Mr. Bush confidence, if he needed it.

Mr. Bush didn't seem to need the confidence, the way he was going. He waddled a hit in the fifth and again in the seventh, and a steal by Murray being followed in the fifth by McLain's single through Baker, while Shaffer's double in the seventh was followed by Murray's single. Murray tried to steal with one out and the Giants five runs behind, which was bad judgment, and anyway he was pegged out by Schang, who caught a fine game.

On the only other occasions when danger threatened Bush, double plays stopped the attack dead.

Merkle was at first base again, but didn't figure much in either attack or defense. McLain caught well and produced a pinch hit. But the big bats of Oldring, Collins, Baker & Co. were rapping away and that was all there was to it.

As a result of to-day's victory, Connie Mack's team has a big edge on the series. The next game will be played in Philadelphia and Chief Bender will be on the mound again, while this time it will be McGraw who has to do the keening thinking, unless he plans to take a chance on Marquard.

CITY'S BANKERS PROMINENT IN CONVENTION

Atlantans Discuss Currency and Keep Aspirations of Georgia City Well Advertised.

Continued From Page 1. ...the people with whom I am acquainted haven't the confidence in President Wilson's financial policies that is a prerequisite to their success. Any currency legislation, to be effective, must have the co-operation of the bankers, with whom reposes most of the ready money of the country. It is like the enactment of a private law with reference to liquor licenses until you have the people's backing. The Over-class currency bill can not be a howling success in the present form because it is opposed by the great majority of the bankers of the country.

RACE FOR MAYOR PRO TEM WARMS UP

Launching of Campaign by Alderman Regsdaide Makes Spirited Fight Certain.

The race for Mayor Pro Tem of Atlanta, to be elected by Council the first Monday in January, loomed up Thursday as the most important issue in city politics with the launching of an active campaign for Alderman J. N. Regsdaide of the Tenth Ward. Alderman James R. Nutting, with vigorous support, has been making a strenuous canvass for the place for some weeks, and the activities of Alderman Regsdaide and his friends means a hot fight. Not enough members have committed themselves to make the outcome of the race the least bit certain.

Widow Given $9,000 For Engineer's Death

MACON, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Georgia May Yates, of Macon, has been awarded a verdict of $9,000 against the Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad at Perry in the Houston Superior Court for the death of her husband, an engineer, who was killed in a wreck at Bonair eighteen months ago.

Methodist Hymns Branded 'Tommyrot'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—"I can find no expression which better fits the songs in the Methodist hymnal—the I and Me kind, the songs that sing us into sentimentalism—Tommyrot," declared Rev. G. F. Sutherland, missionary editor of publications of the Methodist Church.

Ask Administrators of $7,000,000 Estate

Attorneys for parties interested in the $7,000,000 estate of the late J. P. Williams, president of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama Railroad, will file application for the appointment of Green Sharp Johnson and Robert C. McTye as administrators. Williams died intestate August 5, leaving his wife as sole heir. It was said a number of educational institutions, including Emory College and the Andrew Female College at Cuthbert, were cut out of large amounts, which, it is claimed, had been promised to them.

'North of 53' Films Highly Interesting

The most genuinely interesting and enthralling entertainment the Atlanta theater has offered this season is a set of moving pictures. As displayed Wednesday, the films, "North of 53," have caught much of the romance of adventurous effort and of achievement that has marked life in Alaska. The pictures will be shown the remainder of the week, evening and afternoon.

Thomas E. Watson's Trial on October 20

MACON, Oct. 9.—United States District Attorney Alex Abernethy has definitely assigned October 20 as the date for the trial of Thomas E. Watson on the charge of sending obscene literature through the mail.

FEW MOMENTS! NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH — PAPER'S DIAPEPSIN

Digests All Food, Absorbs Gases and Stops Fermentation at Once. Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if your gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stink-bombs, your head dizzy and aches, belch gases and acids and eructations, undigested food, breath foul, tongue coated, hot taste, Paper's Diapepsin, and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin, regularly and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Paper's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case of drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and acts those stinks, so gentle, and say that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach, it's so unnecessary. Ask.

FIRST PICTURES OF ACTUAL PLAY IN THE WORLD'S SERIES

MERKLE SCORING FIRST RUN OF THE GAME FOR THE GIANTS.
Ferd Merkle, the Giants' first baseman, is shown above registering the initial tally of the World's Series in the third inning. Captain Larry Doyle brought Merkle home with a single to right after the New York first-sacker got on first through an error by Barry.

EDDIE COLLINS STEALING SECOND BASE.
The Athletics' second baseman sliding into second on a pit-fer in the fifth inning. Fletcher of the Giants is lying on the ground with Doyle in the background watching the play.

"HOME RUN" BAKER BEING THROWN OUT AT THIRD BASE.
This play occurred in the fourth inning. Baker brought in Collins by knocking out a single. Studly Melmae sacrificed the home-run hitter to second, but when he tried to take third on Strunk's hot smash, Marquard tossed to Herzog, who is shown tagging him out.

POSTPONEMENT IN FRANK CASE MADE CERTAIN

Letter From Dorsey Requests Judge Roan to Let Arguments Go Over.

A letter received in Atlanta Thursday from Solicitor Dorsey made certain the postponement of arguments for a new trial for Leo M. Frank which were to have been held Saturday by Judge Roan.

The letter intimated that the Solicitor and his assistant, A. B. Stephens, who are now in Valdosta, would not return to this city before Wednesday or Thursday. Mr. Dorsey requested that Judge Roan be asked to postpone, in addition to the Frank arguments, hearings on five other motions which were scheduled for Saturday. This will clear the Solicitor's plate and will not necessitate his return.

Red Cross Stamps To Go on Sale Soon

Plans for the sale of Red Cross Christmas Stamps are being made by the trustees of the Raoul Foundation, which has been appointed agent for Georgia.

Bernard Butler, of Atlanta, has been selected State chairman for the campaign. He is being aided by Dixon Van Harnum, of New York, representing the National Red Cross Association, who is now in Atlanta.

Last year the sales of the stamps in Georgia totaled 700,000, and this year it is hoped to sell 1,000,000.

FRANK BAKER SMASHING OUT HIS TERRIFIC HOME RUN.
The King of the Home Run Swatters just after having duplicated his feat of the 1911 World's Series. With two out in the fifth inning and Collins on second, Baker smashed one of Rube Marquard's slants into the lower tier of the grand stand. It was off Marquard that Baker made his first home run in 1911.

WICKERSHAM'S FIRST GEORGIA ROAD CHANGE

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—W. H. Vincent, formerly of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad's auditor's office in Atlanta, has been made assistant auditor of the Georgia Railroad, to assist the veteran auditor, Carlton Hillier, who has been with the road more than a quarter of a century.

The Vincent appointment is the first to be made by the new general manager, C. A. Wickersham. It is expected to be followed by others.

MAYOR PRO TEM RACE GROWS WARMER

Launching of Campaign by Alderman Ragsdale Makes Spirited Fight Certain.

The race for Mayor Pro Tem of Atlanta, to be elected by Council the first Monday in January, looked up Thursday as the most important issue in city politics with the launching of an active campaign for Alderman I. N. Ragsdale, of the Fourth Ward.

Alderman James R. Nutting, with strong support, has been making a vigorous canvass for the place for some weeks, and the activities of Alderman Ragsdale and his friends means a hot fight. Not enough money has been committed themselves to make the outcome of the race the least bit certain.

Alderman J. H. Harwell, of the First Ward, also has announced for the place, but he has conducted a very quiet campaign so far. The terms of James E. Warren, Mayor Pro Tem and Alderman from the Third Ward, both expire on January 1, and he can not be a candidate for re-election.

SUFFRAGISTS OF ATLANTA GAIN 77 MEMBERS

Game Warden Mercer Tells League Only Cowardice Prevents Women Getting Franchise.

The Woman Suffrage League Thursday announced a gain of 77 new members following the semi-monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon, which was held in the assembly room at the Carnegie Library. The announcement is one more indication of the rapid growth of the woman suffrage cause in Georgia.

Mrs. Aurelia Roach, who presided at the meeting, said that many of the new members were women.

After a discussion by Mrs. Whiteside, who gave a brief history of the suffrage growth in America, Jesse E. Mercer, State Game Warden, gave a talk in which he declared that he believes woman suffrage is coming in Georgia soon. He said that it was only cowardice that held the politicians back from opening the doors of the law and ballot to women.

Mrs. Albert Howell, vice president of the league, made a witty talk on how her husband had gradually taken an interest in the movement.

Mrs. Howell, who spent the summer in Europe, told of the great suffrage meeting she had attended in Hyde Park, London, where she heard the noted Lady Florence Trevelyan speak from one of 25 booths, each of which had a quota of speakers at the same time, and each with twelve speakers carrying banners topped with the crown of liberty and gaped at a number of policemen. It was at that meeting that Miss Roach was shot in the arm near the shoulder, and a paper by Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. Margaret Gardner, secretary of the league, read the reports of the last meeting.

DEFENSE DESERTS

The postponement is wholly within the discretion of Judge Roan, and the defense in all probability would interpose no objection, even if it did not entirely suit their wishes. It is understood, however, that Frank's lawyers, have given their entire time to the preparation of their argument against any movement which will reopen the sensational murder case. While the hearing before Judge Roan was originally for October 4, will have few of the spectacular features that marked the trial of Frank, the law-

Prison System All Wrong, Says Osborne

ATLANTA, N. Y., Oct. 9.—"It is my firm opinion that our present prison system needs renovation from the old methods and many alterations in the new," it seems all wrong.

This statement was made today by Thomas Mott Osborne, millionaire head of the Prison Reform Commission, who spent a week in Albany to make a prison study of the needs of the system from the viewpoint of a voluntary convict.

The Rev. "Billy" Williams of San Jose, Cal., a picturesque figure in the campaign against the liquor traffic, left Atlanta Thursday for Thomasville, where he will wage one of his characteristic crusades against the liquor law.

From Thomasville he will go to other Southern cities, visiting during the winter months Savannah, Tampa, Memphis, Birmingham and Nashville.

The police were instructed by Beavers to make cases against all contractors who failed to remove the obstructions after being served with notice.

Councilman Hall announced he was preparing to make a fight against the present method of issuing permits to contractors and builders for the erection of barriers on the streets. He said that a resolution pending before the street committee makes the consent of Council necessary before a permit can be issued. Under the present arrangement one may be obtained from the Mayor, the Chief of Construction or the chairman of the Street Committee.

REBELS CLOSING IN ON MONTEREY

Fifteen Thousand in Army, Which Is Being Constantly Increased by Federal Deserters.

MONTEREY, MEXICO, Oct. 9.—A rebel army of 15,000 men is reported marching on this city, and the rebels are terror-stricken.

According to information received here, General Alvarez and many of his officers were assassinated by the rebels every day, and the private message received here today stated that over 175 civilians were put to death there.

General Tracy Aubrey, one of the federal leaders in the north, is reported to have joined the rebels.

Wickersham's First Georgia Road Change

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—W. H. Vincent, formerly of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad's auditor's office in Atlanta, has been made assistant auditor of the Georgia Railroad, to assist the veteran auditor, Carlton Hillier, who has been with the road more than a quarter of a century.

The Vincent appointment is the first to be made by the new general manager, C. A. Wickersham. It is expected to be followed by others.

Joker in Patent Law Can Cost Us Millions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—A "joker" that might cost American manufacturers millions of dollars has been discovered in the Kahn bill recently passed by Congress to protect patents on foreign exhibits at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The State Department has withheld formal notification of the enactment of the law pending an agreement which it intended.

Wilson Places Ban On Roller Towels

SMITH REFORMS IN COTTON WIN EASY VICTORY

New York Exchange Frightened Into Adopting Voluntarily Changes Threatened by Congress.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Frightened by the recent Congressional agitation against trading in cotton futures, the New York Cotton Exchange has bowed to the inevitable and now plans to make voluntary reforms which will have practically the same effect as the bill which Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, and Representative Oscar Underwood of Alabama, came near making law.

Congress, at the last moment before passing the tariff bill, dropped the amendment regulating the cotton exchange, but it was evident such a measure would pass almost without opposition at the next session. Now the New York Exchange will do its own housecleaning, being, of course, that such action will prevent any further lawmaking.

Senator Charles C. McNary of Oregon, one of the board of governors, states frankly that the exchange hopes to disarm all criticism by reforming the methods of handling business, the grades recognized by New York contracts, and the method of settling disputes.

He says the exchange can not adopt the Government grades, because they are based on Gulf cotton, and make no recognition of the upland types grown in Georgia and other Southern States. He believes, however, that grades can be adopted which will please all concerned.

Seven members of the exchange have been appointed a committee to go into the entire question and report not later than October 29, to a special meeting of the board of governors.

Years of protest from all the cotton growing States, the English and New England spinners and all consumers of actual cotton against the unfair New York contract availed nothing.

Then Senator Charles McNary introduced a bill in Congress which would have wiped out all the cotton contracts. This was defeated when Senator Hoke Smith presented his substitute, which would have hit only the New York exchange. With some changes made by Senator Underwood, this amendment is acceptable to Congress and to all the cotton trade except New York.

Before all this pressure the exchange had to give way.

WARNING ISSUED TO HUNTERS ON GAME LAWS

Mercer Explains Changes in Letter to Wardens Urging Rigid Enforcement.

The game laws Georgia hunters must obey in the future are set forth in a letter State Game Commissioner Mercer has issued to State game wardens.

Many changes are shown in the national game law, which went into effect October 1, and which protect a number of birds either by shortening the season or preventing their destruction.

One of the most important changes relates to migratory ducks. The Georgia law has had an open season from September 1 to April 29, but the national law limits it from November 20 to February 15.

The State wardens will enforce the national law as well as the State law. Under the national law hunters are not permitted to kill insectivorous birds before sunrise or after sunset.

The season for quail, doves, wild turkey gobblers and plovers runs from November 20. Wild female turkeys must not be slain. Only three turkey gobblers may be killed in one season by one hunter.

Dr. Hutchinson Holds Drink Divorce Cause

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.
LONDON, Oct. 9.—Dr. Woods Hutchinson, in a lecture before the National Council of Morals on Human Misdeeds, said drunkenness should be a sufficient cause for divorce.

He referred to the case of a woman, a victim of alcoholism, of whom 700 defendants two-thirds became public charges of 400 decrees from the same father, who married another woman, only five became public charges.

Ball Lost 38 Years Turns Into Stone

NORFOLK, NEB., Oct. 9.—A baseball batted over into a cornfield 38 years ago by E. K. Balthazar, later sergeant at arms in the United States Senate, was found yesterday when excavations were being made for a new building.

The ball had completely turned to stone, but the seams and stitches were perfectly visible. A slight dent on one side marks the terrific blow given the ball by Balthazar.

Chicago Council to Investigate Tango

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Alderman George Prentiss introduced in the Council a resolution for an "investigation of the tango dance." His suggestion was welcomed almost with cheers. A committee will be named by the Mayor to visit dance halls and take notes. Then something may be done.

Let's investigate all skirts, too," eagerly suggested Alderman Coughlin.

MAYOR BLAMES MANAGEMENT OF SCHOOLS

Probably Will Urge Redistricting of City—Would Remodel Buildings to Relieve Crowding.

Mayor Woodward intimated Thursday that after making a personal inspection of the most crowded school-houses in Atlanta and carefully studying the reports of the principals of the various schools he might send a message to City Council in the nature of an address to the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools William M. Stinton.

"I am inclined to believe that most of the trouble is due to the management actively in charge of the schools," he said.

"I am convinced that the overcrowding is not so bad as it has been pictured. The greatest trouble seems to me to be the distributing of the city. There doesn't seem to be much system in the division of the pupils among the schools."

Would Remodel Buildings.
Mayor Woodward's idea is that about $50,000 spent on remodeling old buildings would give relief for the next year. He likely will advocate an appropriation for this purpose before the new Council.

Members of the Council have become much interested in the situation and at the next meeting a special committee to investigate conditions probably will be appointed.

Councilmen say that while they are powerless to do much before the first of the year on account of a lack of funds that they are determined to do all in their power to prevent suffering among Atlanta school children from bad buildings and overcrowding conditions next year.

DOES OF SULZER CLAIM. 40 WILL VOTE 'GUILTY'

With Testimony All in, Lawyers Begin Arguments—End Expected Early Next Week.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 9.—A verdict in the impeachment trial of Governor William Sulzer is expected next Monday afternoon on Tuesday morning. Following the unexpected termination of evidence taking, to-day was given over to oratory.

Louis Marshall, of counsel for the Governor, who was selected to address the judges in behalf of the defense, went into court prepared to make the speech of his life.

Judge Alton B. Parker, who had been scheduled to close the case Friday afternoon for the prosecution, was expected to give way to Edgar T. Brackett, who is more pitifully paragon than his academic colleague.

As the case draws to its climax opponents of Governor Sulzer claimed to-day that they have 40 votes. Only 38 votes are necessary to convict the accused executive.

The point now upon which the greatest uncertainty hangs is: What punishment will be meted out to Governor Sulzer if he should be found guilty.

Many legislators believe that the trial, under such circumstances, should be tempered with much leniency. They found guilty Governor Sulzer, many desires, the court could bar him forever from holding office.

The Rev. George Chalmers Richmond of Philadelphia, friend and advisor of Governor Sulzer, who has been attending the trial and who was surpassed by the prosecution but called to the stand, had a message sprang had been hailed by his friends. The clergyman assured that a message of Mr. Sulzer to change him. It is against Tammany Hall, using as the word "Hell."

Actress Tells Secret

A Well Known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair and Promoted Its Growth With a Simple Home-Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Ross, a well-known actress, who darkened her gray hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, has a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add one of bay rum, a small box of Berbo Compound, and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a gray-haired person look 25 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, relieve itching and scalp humors and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair."

THE Atlanta Telephone & Telegraph Company wishes to present the following facts for your consideration: We have 155 employees on our pay roll. We pay annually for wages, taxes, supplies and to Atlanta tradesmen over $172,000. We are handling an average of about 70,000 calls per day, costing our subscribers a trifle over eight mills per call. Our rate for a business telephone is $48 per year, while the average rate of ten other American cities of similar size without competition is $86.60 per annum. There are approximately 13,000 business phones in Atlanta with an average rate of about $62. A saving of only $20 per instrument would amount to $260,000 per annum, exclusive of nearly as much saved to residence users. We offer you a highly efficient telephone service at reasonable rates, and earnestly solicit a part of your patronage. ATLANTA TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH COMPANY

Very Fine Muscle, But You Need Not Envy It. The Thinking Machine in Your Head is the Power That Drives. Muscle Counts No Longer.

This is a picture for young men who read the sporting page and envy the muscles of fighters, wrestlers and others to think about.

This picture is supposed to represent the most splendidly muscled man in all Germany, the king of the gymnasts in a nation whose "Turn-Verein" produce the best gymnasts of the world.

Young artists are gathered about him in this picture, admiring and envying. They pay him well for the right to use him as a model, but, young men of Atlanta and the rest of the United States, DON'T USE HIM AS A MODEL.

The muscle on his arm, displayed so proudly, is magnificent. It would be splendidly in place on a cart horse or a coal heaver. But you who are competing in the American game of life do not want to be cart horse or coal heaver.

This young man has magnificently developed legs and shoulders. He can stand without finching and carry a ton weight or more, so powerfully muscled and fortified is his backbone.

The muscles across his stomach are like bands of steel. He can make them nearly as rigid as iron, so that they could stand a blow from a hammer.

If he shakes hands with you and forgets himself, he returns your hand brushed with nothing—all very fine, BUT LOOK AT THE BACK OF HIS HEAD.

If this young muscular giant could exchange that round lump on his arm for a similar round lump filled with brain tissue at the back of his skull, he would be driving and directing 10,000 men, perhaps, instead of posing and wriggling his muscles to amuse a few artists, who pay him a few dollars a day as a model while his muscle and his youth last.

This is an interesting picture, with a useful lesson to all young men.

Do not despise muscle, and do not worship it. Don't worry whether the machine in which your brain lives can lift a thousand pounds or two hundred, run a hundred yards in ten seconds or fifteen.

Be content to keep your body, through which your intellect works, ABSOLUTELY HEALTHY, whether the muscles be big or little.

Get this formula fixed in your mind. Your brain depends on the blood that fills it and lends it vitality.

Your blood depends on a constant supply of pure air, plenty of oxygen, moderate exercise, causing metabolism—which is changing of tissue and getting rid of poisons—AND UPON ALL THE FOOD THAT YOU EAT.

Brain and blood depend upon your nerves, mysterious carriers of force regulating every function of the body, controlling the feeding and the breathing of the thousands of millions of separate cells of which your body is composed.

Your nerves depend upon GOOD LIVING, GOOD MORAL CONDUCT, plenty of sleep, sobriety, freedom from poisoning by alcohol and nicotine.

Take care of your blood for the sake of your brain. Take care of your body, your stomach and your breathing for the sake of your blood.

Take care of your nerves, the electric forces of your body. Live like a self-respecting, moral, self-controlled man—and you will take care of the entire complicated machine "fearfully and wonderfully made"—which is yourself.

Let him have the big muscles, the high jumping record, the peculiar and utterly useless power for pitching a baseball, or making a pool ball drop into a pocket.

Only one thing counts IN YOU. That is activity, noble aspiration and a good blood supply within "that ivory temple," your skull, the palace of the really you.

Better arms and legs like match sticks, a feeble back that must be sewed in a canvas sack each day and the brain of Pope, who wrote the "Essay on Man," than all the muscles of this fine young German giant, whose biceps stick out like the forehead of a genius and whose back head is as flat as his thoughts probably are.

BE YOU A THINKER.

A New World and a Better One?

According to a noted French scientist, Jupiter is preparing to throw off a new world. Of course, this promised addition to our solar system may not make its advent for a million or so years, but it furnishes a topic for speculation. What chiefly concerns us is:

What is this new world to be, morally and ethically? Will human inhabitants, should there be any, be thirty feet tall and have heads like elephants, or will they conform to the dimensions of the marmoset?

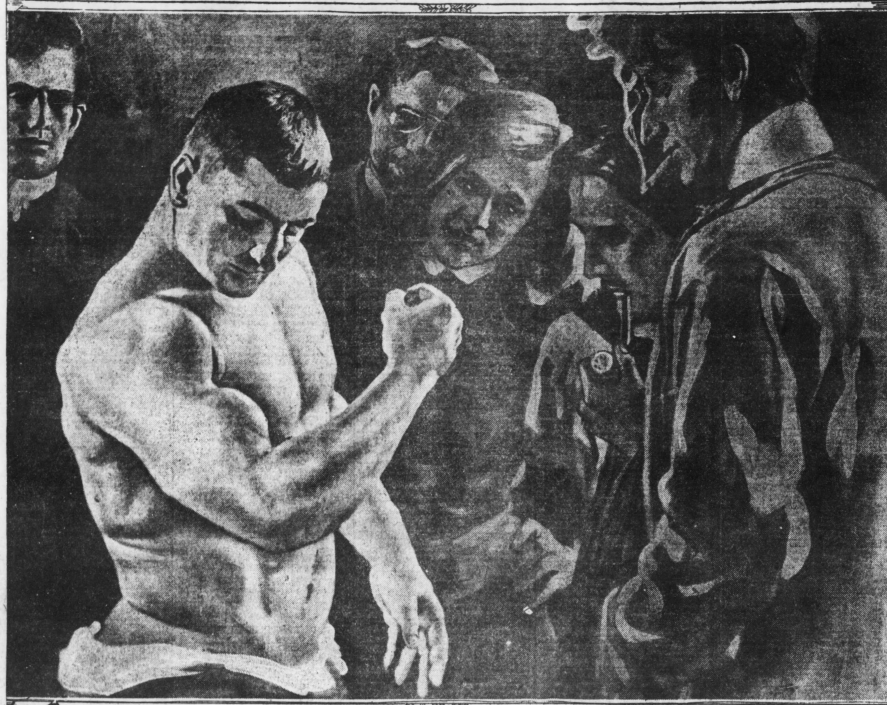

Will this world have airships, subways and militant suffragettes, or will it be peopled by drowsy-eyed savages, living in caves and forests?

Will there be silk skirts, radium gowns for women and pink tees for highly perfumed poolers, or will the spirit of Mother Eve abide that women may be content to do their afternoon calling in the radiant raiment of her day?

Are there to be Tammany Halls and Huertas and the eternal Balkan uprising, or is it, after all, to be a place where Mr. Carnegie may erect his peace temple without feeling the necessity of fortifying it with fourteen-inch guns?

If this new world is to be no improvement on the new one we now inhabit, it ceases to be of more than passing interest to most of us.

The Muscle Man---Don't Envy Him

He admires himself, and the foolish young men share his admiration. It would be better for him if he could move that lump from his arm to the back of his head. (See editorial.)

Gospel of Play From EDWIN MARKHAM.

W E have been told that the pet of work, and now comes the equally valid gospel of play. "The Church and the Young Man's Game" is the title of a book from Doran's, written by F. J. Millar, president of the National Indoor Game Association. Says Karl Gross, in "The Play of Man," "is as fundamental and irreplaceable as the craving for food. We come into the world with two primary instincts, hunger and playfulness. Which antedates the other is not certain. But in the course of human evolution the exercise of the game-impulse has had a large co-ordination between man's physical and mental natures. Moreover, this co-ordination—or, more specifically, the subjection of the body to human will—furnishes the basis of morality.

"A prompt muscular response to motion is the basis of self-control, and self-control is the basis of character. That is to say, games are a preparation for life. Long prior to any sense of obligation toward work the child gets his elementary ideas of form and color, cause and effect, pain and pleasure, as well as his sense of relationship, justice and integrity, through play activities. We learn to live by play, and that, too, from ideal methods of instruction.

"Contrary to the old traditional opinion, more rapid, vigorous and symmetrical development takes place under the stimulus of play than under that of toil. The only exception to this is that in which the task is so fittingly adapted as to become itself a form of pleasure or actual amusement. Phillips Brooks said: 'It's fun to be a minister.'

"Work is a necessity; play is a pleasure. Work is endured, play is enjoyed. The joy of work exists rarely, save in the minds of poets and dreamers, who have never experienced the drudgery of common labor. John Ruskin may sing of 'our pleasure growing out of our work like the color petals from a fruitful flower.' But as we see it down on earth—in the city, for instance—as we observe it among the hands on the farm, the peddler on the railroad, or among the clerks and office forces of business in the multitudinous strings of everlasting toil, work would not be tolerated were it not the only means of getting the necessities of life.

Mothers! Warn Your Girls of Life's Lures

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX (Copyright, 1912.)

IT is more than probable that many parents of young girls will read this article and consider it an "improper" subject for discussion. And it is more than probable that several of these daughters will read it and regard it as their own experience, and wonder how their secret became known.

This one young woman whose story is given here has arrived at a marriageable age and is betrothed to the man of her choice. He is several years her senior, but says he will not be in a position to marry and establish a home for two years.

He has given the girl a ring, and declares he is most anxious to make her his wife. Meaning, he asks her to consider herself his wife in reality now, and to show her confidence in him by giving him all the privileges of that holy state.

He assures her that her refusal is a proof that she does not really love and trust him; that she doubts his honor and his word. He also assures her that all engaged people regard the matter from his standpoint, and that her conduct is childish and silly. All over the world such men are to be found.

It is their method of testing the weaker sex. In many small country towns, where American girls are unchaperoned and unprotected by foolish parents, and allowed to go about freely with their admirers, a letter of this order is not infrequently able to engage several trusting girls at one time.

And, as a rule, he never marries any of them. He disappears from the town after a time and establishes himself in pastures new.

The Rev. Mr. Richeson was a man of this type, but he paid for his amusement in the electric chair.

It seems a sad commentary on the mothers of the land that any girl could grow to a marriageable age and not know the truths of life and the facts of the relations of the sexes, sufficiently to warn her from listening to men of this type. No girl whose mother talks to her familiarly, sweetly, tenderly, as he had gained the favors he sought.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

It is and she has not. He is her worst enemy. He does not love her. He loves only his own appetites and passions. The man who really loves a girl guards her, not only from all men, but from himself.

He does not despoil what is his own. He does not strip the flowers from his own beautiful plants. Better die of loneliness and sorrow than to yield to such a selfish and unworthy lover.

The sexual fascination is a powerful one, but that alone never kept a man and a woman happy comrades and constant lovers for life.

There must be other attractions; other interests; other ties. Most important of all, there must be mutual respect and absolute confidence.

There must be a strong and beautiful foundation of friendship, in every marriage which proves happy and lastingly sympathetic.

About this foundation passion flowers will grow and thrive; but when autumn winds blow and frosts come, and the vines perish, the strong, beautiful foundation remains.

This man is seeking to twine vines and flowers about the fragile trellis of youth, and the first wind will cast it all to earth and there will be nothing left.

And the vines he seeks to train about this trellis are poison ivy. Let the girl beware of such a lover. He is not her friend. He is her worst enemy. He does not love her. He loves only his own appetites and passions. The man who really loves a girl guards her, not only from all men, but from himself.

Peace of Amiens

By REV. T. B. GREGORY.

IT was one hundred and twelve years ago—October 1, 1811—that the preliminary articles of peace between England and France were signed in the city of London; and the definitive treaty was subscribed at Amiens on the 27th of March following.

Europe rejoiced at the termination of the long and bitter struggle, but to those on the inside the peace was not worth the paper it was written on, and the sequel proved that the faith of the cabinets were only too well grounded.

The First Congress was only playing for time and never intended to allow a piece of parchment to stand between him and the goal of his insatiable ambition. The ink with which the treaty was written was hardly dry when Napoleon began his aggression. Piedmont was annexed, as was also the island of Elba; Switzerland was occupied and Holland was huddled into subservience to France.

When England protested, Napoleon insulted her envoy and dared her to resent his action. England's answer came on May 18, 1813, in the shape of a declaration of war—a war that was to last, with a brief respite, until 1815.

Stars and Stripes

The man who talks long generally demonstrates that he has not much to offer that arouse warm feelings as attractions.

A leopold under the rays of the limelight is just as liable to reveal blunders as attractions.

We sometimes wonder if everything is all right beneath the exterior of the polished man.

Running for office is almost as good a test of friendship as the attempt to negotiate a loan.

Secretary of State could salt away a few more shekels every day by "sounding in brass."

New Hampshire might elect that Governor and let him pass on his own extradition.

Some men are never loyal save to those in a position to hand them something.

Women are so peripatetic. Soon they'll be demanding that their votes be counted.

To the pessimist possibility is always probability when it refers to calamity.

Writes on

What Is It the Cowards Fear?

By WINIFRED BLACK.

J UPITER is throwing off a new world, is he? If you could have the way, what would you do about that world?

What would you keep off it—the human qualities and all the human failings and all the human vices, which would you banish from the new world—would you could?

I believe I'd take cowards, if I could only choose one.

Cowards are at the bottom of so much that is wrong and foolish and cruel, so much that is true, in this world of ours. It's all the cowards out of the New Jupiter if I had my way.

It's the coward who commits nearly all the murders. He's afraid someone will kill him, so he shoots first. He saw the other man put his hand toward his pocket, so he grabbed his knife.

He's the coward who kills his wife because she's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor. He's the coward who kills his neighbor because he's a doctor.

Christie Puts Out Madden in 3 Rounds

DAYTON, OHIO, Oct. 9.—In the third round of what was to have been a fifteen-round fight, Gus Christie of Milwaukee, landed a home-rocket on the jaw of Billy Madden of New York, and the latter went down on an ox and was counted out. Madden was out-cocked.

I use the "we" editorially, for I had no part in the glorious victory. You may imagine my emotion as I sat nursing my mashed thumb. I never fully realized before the strain and tension of inactivity. It was a struggle to repress the tears. I felt that I would give a big share of my pin money for just one crack at Eddie Plank some of those times when a hit would have broken up the game in our favor.

For had we lost that game in Philadelphia it would have been all off with our crippled club. That's why there was such dash and fire and heat in the attack and defense from the time that wonderful southerner, the Marquard, made the first pass at Herzog till we had driven the Gettysburg Marvels from the North Side, will meet to-night at Kenosha in a ten-round fight with the most important welterweight contests staged in this section in years.

MARQUARD SAYS 'GIANTS CANNOT BEAT MACK MEN'

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—"I've got to be a good time. I'm an old man, thirty-four years old. I can't look at that ball and throw it the next day."

This was the remark made by Eddie Plank yesterday afternoon, and we follow thought there were tears in his eyes.

The Athletics' infielders were trying to hurry Plank along. Plank simply couldn't get the pace with Christy Mathewson. He was without doubt, the greatest pitcher that ever lived. Matty was out-gunned by Collins and Baker all the way through.

FIES OF SUREN GLAM AD LOTE 'NOTE' 'REVIEW'

With Testimony All in, Lawyers Begin Arguments—End Expected Early Next Week.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A verdict in the impeachment trial of Governor William Sulzer is expected next Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning. Following the unexpected termination of evidence taking, today was given over to oratory.

Louis Marshall, of counsel for the Governor, who was selected to address the judges in behalf of the defendant, went into court prepared to make the speech of his life.

Judge Alton B. Parker, who had been scheduled to close the case Friday afternoon for the prosecution, was expected to give way to Edgar T. Braddock, who is more plucky of an orator than his academic colleague.

As the case draws to its close, 28 votes are necessary to convict the accused executive.

The point now upon which the greatest uncertainty hangs is: What punishment will be meted out to Governor Sulzer if he should be found guilty?

Many legislators believe that if, under such circumstances, should be imposed on a woman a college degree. Then why should not the world be a friend to the educational work of men and create a market for her work by removing from them the right to hold office?

If, however, the court should hold otherwise from holding office.

The Hon. George Chalmers Richmond, of Philadelphia, chief counsel for Governor Sulzer, who has been attending the trial and who has been subpoenaed by the prosecution but not called to stand as a witness.

The clergyman charged that a conspiracy had been hatched by enemies of Mr. Sulzer to assassinate him. Mr. Richmond plans to preach a sermon against Tammany Hall, using as his text the word "Hell."

Superintendent H. S. Bowden, of Blakely, the well-known educator, just announced himself a candidate for State School Commissioner, to succeed the present commissioner, M. L. British.

Professor Bowden will have but one term—State school books, written by Georgians printed by the State, to be furnished the children at cost.

The professor proposes to go straight to the people with this issue, and says he will stump Georgia from one end to the other—and they say he is a some stumpy speaker, moreover.

This issue of State school books printed by the State was quite a lively topic in the Legislature at the summer session, and it seems that the matter is to be fought to a finish between this time and the primaries next fall.

In his official platform, Professor Bowden says: "Georgia was the first State in the Union to establish a State University."

There is no doubt Professor Bowden is able to stir up considerable interest in this platform, even if he does not get elected thereon.

Any platform upon which he is able to stir up considerable interest in this platform, even if he does not get elected thereon.

Gar Optimistic Over Business Prospects

Steel Trust Head Says People Are Wiser and Administration Is Just.

By B. C. FORBES.

(Copyright, 1913, by Star Company.) I had a long enlightening heart-to-heart talk the other day with Judge Gary, commander-in-chief of the greatest industrial army in the world, perhaps the best, and certainly one of the best-billed positions in America.

Judge Gary is democratic rather than aristocratic. He has always favored a vigorous campaign against the overworking and underpaying of workers, against all dangerous phases of work and in favor of enabling workers to become personally interested in the business process.

With a frankness that startled his political intimates at Washington some time ago, Judge Gary declared he had not the slightest objection to having the Government regulate industry even to the point of limiting prices in certain cases and under certain conditions. He is not bigoted, as you will thus see.

Before quoting what Judge Gary said to me, I should like to explain that our talk was strictly confidential, and that not one word of it was meant for publication, but as no newspaper, however, with some of the Judge's statements that I succeeded in persuading him to allow me to print them. He said, for example:

"The gravest menace to this country is that the politicians who rule affairs to-day have so little to say in the outcome of their acts."

They are little affected if they turn properly into depression. Few of them have large bodies of employees dependent upon them for regular work at living wages. If they had they would count the cost of action, they would feel a heavier weight of responsibility.

After all, a nation is dependent upon its business activities and its industries. It is useless to talk to him about non-material things, such as have been conducted with great success by the Rev. John Farborough, of Jefferson, and the Rev. Charles A. Bass, the pastor, who has continued until the end of the week.

A number of persons have professed relief, many of them railway employees who are holding daily prayer services in the shops.

Gar Optimistic Over Business Prospects

Steel Trust Head Says People Are Wiser and Administration Is Just.

By B. C. FORBES.

(Copyright, 1913, by Star Company.) I had a long enlightening heart-to-heart talk the other day with Judge Gary, commander-in-chief of the greatest industrial army in the world, perhaps the best, and certainly one of the best-billed positions in America.

Judge Gary is democratic rather than aristocratic. He has always favored a vigorous campaign against the overworking and underpaying of workers, against all dangerous phases of work and in favor of enabling workers to become personally interested in the business process.

With a frankness that startled his political intimates at Washington some time ago, Judge Gary declared he had not the slightest objection to having the Government regulate industry even to the point of limiting prices in certain cases and under certain conditions. He is not bigoted, as you will thus see.

Before quoting what Judge Gary said to me, I should like to explain that our talk was strictly confidential, and that not one word of it was meant for publication, but as no newspaper, however, with some of the Judge's statements that I succeeded in persuading him to allow me to print them. He said, for example:

"The gravest menace to this country is that the politicians who rule affairs to-day have so little to say in the outcome of their acts."

They are little affected if they turn properly into depression. Few of them have large bodies of employees dependent upon them for regular work at living wages. If they had they would count the cost of action, they would feel a heavier weight of responsibility.

After all, a nation is dependent upon its business activities and its industries. It is useless to talk to him about non-material things, such as have been conducted with great success by the Rev. John Farborough, of Jefferson, and the Rev. Charles A. Bass, the pastor, who has continued until the end of the week.

ECZEMA LOOKED AWFUL ON FACE Started with Watery Pimples, Itched and Burned Badly. Awful Sores. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Boy Now Well.

R. F. D. No. 2, Fredericks Hall, Va.—My little son was very bad off with the eczema on his face. It started with watery pimples and it itched and burned so badly that he wanted to scratch it all the time and he made a awful noise on his face. I would sit and hold his hands a lot of the time to keep him from scratching it. He didn't sleep and he looked awful white on his face. I was afraid it would last for life. He was red, raw and fretful.

"I had him treated and he grew worse daily. As soon as I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I sent and got a twenty-five cent box of Cuticura Soap and a short tube of Cuticura Ointment and began using them. I saw a difference in a short time. I only used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment a few weeks before he was a well boy." (Signed) Mrs. Kate B. Pinnace, Dec. 13, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of eruptions of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are almost invaluable for every day use in the bath, and nursery, because they promote and maintain the health of the skin and hair from infancy to age.

Cuticura Soap (2c) and Cuticura Ointment (5c) are sold everywhere. Liberal samples sent mailed free, with 25¢ Size Box. Address—Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston, Mass. Write for sample and stamp with Cuticura Soap will find it free for a trial and sample.

WIDELIGHT on POLITICS BY JAMES B. NEVIN

Superintendent H. S. Bowden, of Blakely, the well-known educator, has announced himself a candidate for State School Commissioner, to succeed the present commissioner, M. L. Brittain.

Professor Bowden will have but one big and instant plank in his platform—State school books, written by Georgians, printed by the State, to be furnished the children at cost.

The professor proposes to go straight to the people with this issue and says he will stump Georgia from one end to the other—and they do say he is as good a stump speaker, moreover.

This issue of State school books printed by the State was quite a lively topic in the Legislature at its recent session, and it seems that the matter is to be brought to a final vote between this time and the primaries next fall.

In an official platform, Professor Bowden says: "Georgia was the first State in the Union to establish a State University. A Georgia institution was the first in the world to confer upon a woman a college degree. Then why should not Georgia be a friend to her educational reformers and create a market for school books written by Georgians?"

The advantage and law of the State should be jealous of any competition that would diminish the ability of her educators. Instead of importing books, it should be encouraged by the passage of her own educational legislation.

The next Legislature should pass a law authorizing all school book contracts to be awarded to the lowest bidder. It is a matter of course that the State should be able to purchase school books at the lowest possible price. It is a matter of course that the State should be able to purchase school books at the lowest possible price.

The disposition of the Western and Atlantic Railroad is sure to be one of the very liveliest topics of discussion for the next few months, not only among business men and taxpayers generally, but also among the people.

There is a very great and emphatic diversity of opinion throughout Georgia with respect to the State railroad. Some think it should be leased upon the most advantageous terms possible, others that it should be sold outright, and still others that it should be extended to the Atlantic coast, and possibly operated by the State itself.

There is no dispute that the road is the State's biggest and most valuable asset. In the matter of disposing of it for a term of years, therefore, there is bound to arise sharp differences of opinion, and a solution will be found without difficulty.

One of the great dangers in the way of a businesslike disposition of the road, perhaps, will be the politics that inevitably will get into the negotiating. There will be subtle jockeying for position, to begin with, and finally, the matter will be decided by the voters in a referendum.

At this very minute one assortment of partisans is wondering and planning as how it will get the other assortment "in the hole" on the State road disposition.

If the people will keep up with what is going on, they need not be deceived, however. Much of the maneuvering will be transparent enough. The State road is a mighty valuable piece of property—too valuable to be sacrificed or in any way endangered by political differences and animosities.

BAKER BUSINESS COURTESY TO BELL'S Judge Fite Defends Reversal Record

CARTERSVILLE, GA., Oct. 9.—Judge A. W. Fite, of the Cherokee Circuit, having noticed that the newspaper reports credited him with four reversals and no affirmations in the October Supreme Court decision handed down, calls attention to the fact that, while the statement is true, he affirmed five times and reversed only twice in the September decision.

The Judge also disclaims any loss of high opinion of the Supreme Court because of the October reversal, and says: "I know the judges of the Supreme Court personally and I think that, while they are not infallible, they are able lawyers and intelligent judges, and I have no cause of complaint against them."

BY JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES. WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The hearings before the Senate Banking and Currency committee have unquestionably been of much practical value in pointing out the advantages and the disadvantages of the Federal Reserve bill, and have served also to assist members of the committee in formulating their report.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who is one of the members of the committee, has also been very active in pointing out the advantages and the disadvantages of the bill, and his views will be vigorous throughout the West. Among many individuals and newspapers, Joe Cannon, began his answer to my request for his views. This is what he said:

Before quoting what Judge Gary said to me, I should explain that our talk was strictly confidential, and that not one word of it was meant for publication. I was so impressed, however, with some of the points made, that I succeeded in persuading him to allow me to print them. He said, for example:

The gravest menace to this country is the political situation. It will take a few years before the political situation will be such that we can afford to take any steps in the outcome of their acts.

They are little more than a few of the large bodies of employees dependent upon them for regular work at living wages. If they had their wages cut, the cost of action, they would feel a heavier weight of responsibility.

After all, a nation is dependent upon its business activities and success. Unless you can fill a man's stomach it is useless to talk to him about non-material things. You can not build on an empty stomach. You must give to both the body and the mind.

During my vacation I have had time to think things over, to study the general record, as you know, I have felt uneasy for the last two years. I could see many things that were wrong in our social and political life.

But I have changed my views somewhat. I now feel more optimistic—more like my old self. I believe that we are beginning to see things in the right light. They are less ready to be stampeded by demagogues. They are getting tired of corruption—bribery, of senseless attacks upon capital.

They are beginning to realize that their own welfare is bound up with the welfare of general business more than with the welfare of the demagogue.

The great majority of the people have stopped listening to revolutionary proposals. They don't want to turn our institutions upside down. We have, I hope, passed the outburst of hysteria that at one time threatened to prove frightfully disastrous.

What has all the political clamor against our company amounted to? What have the investigations revealed? Has anything been learned anything whatever—been discovered?

This corporation early in its history laid down these maxims: "We are very big. The only way we can be controlled is by being absolutely fair and above-board—fair to our stockholders, fair to consumers and frank with the public."
