Dorsey's Assistant Makes Only Short Speech in Attack on Defense's Prejudice Charges.

Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey began Monday afternoon the State's reasons for opposing a new trial for Leo M. Frank with the same dogged persistence on every point that won for him the conviction of Frank.

He attacked the argument against a new trial and maintained that they were sufficient to prevent the court from overruling the verdict.

He characterized Attorney Arnold's arguments as a "three-day harangue of piffle, most of which consisted of vilification and abuse." The Solicitor devoted all the time of the afternoon to an emphatic defense of Juror Henslee. He conceded none of the allegations made against Henslee and contended that the affidavits against Henslee were made in great part by irresponsible persons who since had been impeached.

In a determined effort to batter down one of the strongest arguments for a new trial, for Frank—the alleged bias and violent prejudice of two of the jurors—Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Frank, rushed to the defense of A. H. Henslee, the juror most vigorously assailed, immediately upon the conclusion of Henslee Arnold's address Monday afternoon.

Attorney Arnold finished his argument at 2:30 o'clock, after talking for eleven hours and 43 minutes and consuming a large part of three days' sessions in his discussion of the reasons for a new trial.

Solicitor Dorsey will conclude the State's case in opposition to a new trial when Attorney Hooper finishes.

Calls Charge a Fantasy

Hooper branded Arnold's charge that Henslee plotted to get on the jury and later played a deep game to poison the minds of the other jurors as a "fantasy, improbable and ridiculous, conjured up by the vivid imagination of my friend Arnold."

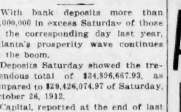

Evoking feeling that one of the strongest entrenchments of the defense was constituted in its contention that Henslee sold his vote, he devoted all the early portion of his address to an argument on what he termed the utter improbability of Henslee making the inflammatory statements credited to him.

He pointed out that Henslee sold eight buggles to Sam Frank, at Albany, on July 8, the date Henslee is alleged to have expressed his opinion of Frank's guilt in the presence of Farrow and other persons.

The lawyer argued that if Henslee ever had expressed such sentiments he never would have sold the buggles to Farrow, a co-defendant of Frank's.

Referring to the affidavits from the Grand Jury, he said that John Holmes, of Sparta, Attorney Hooper declared that inasmuch as all three

The Solicitor declared vehemently that many of the depositions offered by the defense bear the earmarks of fraud, citing the affidavits of Leon Harrison and Julius Lehman as specific instances. He ridiculed Lehman's affidavit, declaring his statement is shot through and through with the absurdity and improbability, and that it is proven false by Henkle's own affidavit. There was too much of Lehman's affidavit, the Solicitor declared; it was too definite and precise. Laughable, he declared, is the way that it fits it.

DORSEY CHARGED WITH MEANS OF WINNING

Undoubtedly were mistaken in quoting Henness as saying he had been drawn on the jury, as he had not been drawn at that time. It was only fair to assume that they might very easily be mistaken in reference to Henness's remarks about Frank and the question of his guilt.

He asserted that nothing in the progress of the trial happened to incriminate the jurors or to warrant Attorney Arnold in his description of the jurors as "twelve scoundrels in wild night at the snap of the gun."

He said that if a new trial was to be granted every time there is a ripple of applause in the courtroom, new trials would be given in practically every murder trial in the State, as the friends of the accused could make the demonstration themselves and thus insure the defendant another change to escape his merited punishment.

Resents Arnold's Remarks. Attorney Arnold, in closing his address, emphasized the responsibility resting with the court and said that if a new trial was refused it forever would put at rest the entire case, so far as the facts were concerned.

Attorney Hooper concluded his argument at 2:30, having taken only one hour. He resented strongly in his closing remarks the bitter criticism made by Attorney Arnold of the manner in which the Solicitor General had conducted the case.

Solicitor Dorsey then took up the closing argument. That the conviction of Leo Frank was accomplished by crookedness, by the "playing of cards under the table" and the "pulling of every string of prejudice" was the sensational accusation made Monday by Henness R. Arnold. He concluded his speech at the afternoon session.

To this he added the charge that Dorsey had political reasons for pursuing Frank and "aiding the negro."

"Dorsey said that no power on earth could compel him to prosecute the negro as the murderer of Mary Phagan," exclaimed Attorney Arnold. "He was a mighty good reason for him to say this. He knew that the people almost solidly were against him and it is the people that elect him to office."

"He virtuously proclaimed that I'll protect this poor, innocent nigger and convict the biggest man in the community if I think it is right. It has been the cry of the demagogue since the beginning of the world. It has come to be dangerous to be respectable or to have any money. One man so much better a target for the demagogue who are seeking to make a name for themselves."

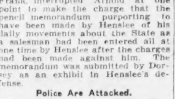

He pointed out the excess in the two instances, denied only that he had made before the grand jury the remarks accredited to him, and that in one case where he had been indicted in Albany on July 11 conclusively had been proved by the hotel register and by a carbon copy of an order which Henness himself had signed, that he was there on that date.

Arnold contended that he had made out a plain and innocent case, that he had been against Henness's prejudice and bias against Henness by persons of unimpeachable reputation and standing in their respective communities.

He argued the point of Henness's prejudice, he said, "just the same as though it were before the trial and I were relating the selection of Henness as a juror and I want your honor to consider it in the same light. If at that time you would have considered him incompetent to serve because of the prejudice indicated and bias, then you can do nothing less now than to declare that he was incompetent and that the ver-

"The Solicitor and the detective were just going to get Frank's robes voted," was the opening declaration of Attorney Arnold when the hearing on a new trial resumed Monday morning.

"The indictment against Frank was brought before the grand jury ever knew about Conroy's conviction, before there ever was anything to warrant the indictment, I just want to show the spirit that has pervaded the investigation all the way through."

"The Solicitor contends that Conroy's story is a mere invention. He is not aware of the facts and statements and therefore there was nothing to warrant Conroy with the crime, except his free and voluntary admission that he was the father of the child. Mary Phagan came in to get her pay."

"People have a right to get to know the facts of this case. It is not fair to let them get their information from the newspaper. It is not fair to let them get their information from the newspaper. It is not fair to let them get their information from the newspaper."

"The lawyer went over each incident and each portion of testimony by which the Solicitor argued during the trial that Conroy was guilty. Arnold contended that Conroy was innocent and advanced his reasons."

"To have a watchman devoted to another man into his confidence, five miles from Geneva, Switzerland, is a thing which is not usually done. It is a thing which is not usually done. It is a thing which is not usually done."

"Why, Conroy did not even stop to look at the girl. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room."

"Every fact of the case connects him more closely to the crime. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room."

"He confessed to having been in the room. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room. He was in the room, he was in the room, he was in the room."

Frank A. Houser, who was associated with the Solicitor in the prosecution of Frank spoke an hour at the hearing Monday after the conclusion of Hensliff's argument, which had consumed a total of nearly twelve hours in his delivery. HENSLEE'S FOES DENOUNCED BY DORSEY

"It was too good a lawyer to lay any great stress on them. They are too good to stand it. Of course, I don't know what Mr. Rosser will do when he stands on the closing arguments for defense."

Thomas Rosser interrupted the attorney to say that he might be a competent lawyer to assist on the conviction of those very points.

Frank A. Rosser, who was associated with the Solicitor in the prosecution of Frank, spoke on hour after the opening Monday after the conclusion of Rosser's argument, which had consumed a total of nearly five hours in its delivery. Rosser denied the allegations of his name. Henslee and declared that the charges of prejudice were so vague and indefinite as to time and surroundings that no credence would be given them in the case out of town.

Third Degree Denied.

Henslee resented strongly the indications that Dorsey had conducted the case in a vindictive and unfair manner and had used "third degree" methods to write false testimony from some of the witnesses, notably Viola McKnight.

Henslee declared that it had been the Solicitor's sole endeavor to get at the truth in the case, and that it had been done by the most honest means that were available. He stated that he was not doing his duty.

ANNIE RUSSELL IS CHARMING IN OLD COMEDY

Well Balanced Company Makes "She Stoops to Conquer" Real Theatrical Event.

Sheldon Day, player and an audience come into happy anticipation from old Miss Annie Russell, her supporting cast and the assemblage of the Georgia Theater tonight when Miss Russell appeared in "She Stoops to Conquer."

The two-hour play, which has been in London (Goldwyn's) since last season, played by world famous actors, but probably never more attractively or sympathetically.

The five of splendid and bewitching was shown in Atlanta. The play was well acted, but Miss Russell for three. In some of all the other plays she has been seen in London (Goldwyn's) since last season, played by world famous actors, but probably never more attractively or sympathetically.

And, as remarked, it was an audience, which appreciated to the full the ability of Miss Russell's playing. She is of course, an exquisite Kati. Her playing, her vivacious impersonation, her dramatic timing, if you can get down to Atlanta to remark that Miss Russell has a perfect voice, but it is so sweet that anyone who has heard it would remember its rich tones and clarity for many years. Miss Russell has been seen in London (Goldwyn's) since last season, played by world famous actors, but probably never more attractively or sympathetically.

SLATON CHECKS PARDON PLEASE ON RUSH

Governor Will Not Review Cases Which Were Recently Decided by Predecessor.

Governor Slaton, overwhelmed with applications of all sorts for executive clemency, has set his foot down and upon indolent petitioning persons, committees, parties and so on, and will consider hereafter no pardon that has been passed upon by former Governor Brown within twelve months of his proposed reopening, save in extremely exceptional and extraordinary cases.

The Governor has been almost swamped since he assumed the Chief Magistracy of the State by an avalanche of applications for clemency. He has tried in every way he could think of to stem the onrush, but with scant success thus far. Every mail brings fresh applications, concerning matters all the way from simple larceny to red-handed murder.

Hereafter any case that has been up before Governor Brown within twelve months of his presentation to Governor Slaton will be summarily dismissed.

The present Governor has great faith in his own ability and common sense of his immediate subordinates in office, and sees no reason why he should be troubled with cases recently passed upon by Governor Brown. He is, however, a conscientious administrator, desiring to give full faith and credit to the decisions of Governor Brown in all cases hereafter coming up, and no attention whatever will be paid to cases that have been ruled upon by the former Governor within twelve months.

Few Exceptions Made. Of course, in cases involving absolutely and honestly discovered new evidence, extreme physical disability, and the like, revisions may be made. But even then the showing must be exact, definite and convincing immediately both to the Prison Commission and the Board of Pardons and Parole.

The master of clemency is one of the most responsible executives residing in the South. It is his duty to see that the public interest is protected, and that the law is not evaded, and that I shall try to do, though it means a full, but it is my duty to call upon the Governor unless the law is made to be made in any case hereafter coming up, and no attention whatever will be paid to cases that have been ruled upon by the former Governor within twelve months.

Parities with petitions for clemency in their minds will do well to remember the foregoing. It is their duty to see that the law is not evaded, and that I shall try to do, though it means a full, but it is my duty to call upon the Governor unless the law is made to be made in any case hereafter coming up, and no attention whatever will be paid to cases that have been ruled upon by the former Governor within twelve months.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN

Should Profit by Mrs. Hurley's Experience—Her Own Story Here Told.

Ridon, Mo.—I was troubled with development, organic inflammation, nervous and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not eat, and I was in constant pain down my right side which increased once a month. I had been at that time and would walk the floor. I could not sit down or sit still for more than a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, had very little appetite, and I was melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world.

After I had tried most every female remedy I had without success, I was advised to try the Pinkettes. I did so and in five days I was able to stand on my feet and in ten days I was able to walk. I had no more pain down my right side and my appetite was restored. I had no more nervousness and I was cheerful. I had no more melancholy and I was able to enjoy my life. I had no more weakness and I was able to do my work. I had no more inflammation and I was able to sleep. I had no more development and I was able to live. I had no more organic inflammation and I was able to be well. I had no more nervous and female weakness and I was able to be strong. I had no more weakness and I was able to be healthy. I had no more weakness and I was able to be happy. I had no more weakness and I was able to be content. I had no more weakness and I was able to be at peace. I had no more weakness and I was able to be at ease. I had no more weakness and I was able to be at rest. I had no more weakness and I was able to be at home. I had no more weakness and I was able to be in the world.

Remember, the remedy which I used was Lydia E. Pinkettes. For sale everywhere. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with development, organic inflammation, nervous and female weakness, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world.

Heavy Docket in Superior Court for Judge Ben Hill

Judge Ben Hill will take his place in the Fulton County Superior Court next Monday, and has notified Sheriff Mansfield to have a jury drawn for that date. Coincidentally with him taking this place will be the swearing in of Judge L. S. Roan as a member of the Court of Appeals.

The appointments of Judge Hill to the Fulton County bench and of Judge Roan to the Court of Appeals were made two months ago, but assumption of duties was postponed on account of the hearing of a motion for a new trial for Leo M. Frank. Judge Roan held it was his duty to hear this motion.

Judge Hill's move in instructing the Sheriff to draw a jury for him is taken as a certain indication that Judge Roan will make his decision in the Frank hearing this week.

SIDELIGHT on
GEORGIA POLITICS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

Speaking of the "off again, on again, gone again, Finney" movement of people here and there, this country's fair game seems to be catching all right.

The Governor of Georgia recently visited one in (Caterville, another in Macon, another in Commerce, and soon he leaves to visit three in South Georgia, in Polk, Lowndes County, in Cordele, (Crisp County, in Dalton, Putnam County).

Every time he gets home from one he says he thinks that it is surely the last one he can manage to get to this year, and then another one comes along, and delegations wait on him and petition him, with genuine tears in their eyes, not to use up THEIR fall, and the first thing the Governor knows he is on his way to another one!

He has to do some grand and lofty "bumbling" meaning no increase whatever, however, in keeping the pot-bellies going in the Capital, the while he looks on in the various fair but to manage.

He is up to his eyes in overtime work, for one thing, and when he goes away he leaves one of his faithful relatives sitting right on the lid.

The Governor, after visiting the State fair in Macon, immediately announced himself in favor of further State aid for that big annual show, and all over Georgia the newspapers were giving his word as the word of God.

They, however, he got an illustration to see he will have to turn down the High Honorific title (Kt., etc.) of London England, he received a bid to be the special guest of honor at Georgia Day, which has been offered to us for September 28-29, at the Anglo-American Exposition to be held in that city.

To Marry Miss Steele

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—No, I think I'll remain a jolly bachelor," was Francis Quimet's blushing reply to the Countess de la Greve's suggestion that since his sister-in-law, Miss Nancy Steele, daughter of a partner of J. P. Morgan, is to marry Devereux Albright, the polo coach, Miss Katherine Steele, a younger sister-in-law, might do well to wed Francis Quimet, the champion golfer.

MEXICAN EFFECTS IN CASO; HUERTA REMAINS IN SEAT; TROOPS FORESTALL ROTTS

Cable to The Atlanta Georgian, MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—This city today as returns from several of the districts made it clear that no candidate had received a majority of the votes cast in the electoral college. Although no districts attended the balloting here today and there was no disturbance in the night, troops were brought to the city at dawn to prevent the proclamation of official candidates from the Government. The balloting had resulted in "no man."

More than 2,000 troops were moved to the city during the early morning. Fear of an outbreak of violence was increased by the receipt of a telegram from Vera Cruz, stating that Felix Diaz would have there during the day and come to the Capital. The result of the election made by Victoriano Huerta will remain in the seat as President. In the return of the votes, Huerta has received 100 votes, Gamboa, former Minister of the Interior, and Felix Diaz, another close race, but because of the vote cast for other candidates, not one of these men will have a majority.

Less Than Legal Total Votes.—The number of votes cast is also less than one-third of the total voting strength of the Republic, which is required by the constitution to make the election legal. The members of the Senate and Deputies, however, are not hampered by this constitutional provision, and it is certain that the Catholic party, headed by Huerta, will have control in the Congress. Huerta's full control of the head of the legislative revolt, which is actually threatened in the last Congress, controlled by Maximilian.

Thus, the outstanding feature of the election is the fact that it has strengthened Huerta in his position as dictator. That Huerta had no doubt that the election would fall was borne out by a decree increasing the strength of the Mexican army from 30,000 to 50,000. This sudden increase in the army is almost double its present strength when the Government is so weak and leans seem unshakable. Huerta is already preparing for a formal war or expects new uprisings in the north as a result of the election. The decree says that the army is to be increased immediately, and there were urgent necessity for such an increase.

Future Ballots Cast.—Predictions that the election would be a farce were fully borne out by the scenes at the polls on Sunday. In some provinces not a vote was cast, and other districts indicate that over four thousand were cast for Huerta, although there are 80,000 registered voters in that section of the Republic.

Blanque is Eligible.—The result of the election will not definitely know until the newly elected Congress meets in November and passes upon the returns. Said Senator Garza Aldape, Minister of the Interior, "Blanque is eligible."

Outside of three complaints regarding the alleged illegality of the election, no small number of complaints were submitted on Sunday. Every complaint will be thoroughly investigated by the Government. All votes cast for the "no man" candidate in the Federal District, in accordance with the "President's" proclamation, General Blanque, who is understood to be the President of the Huerta ticket, can not be prevented from holding office, however, and he will be eligible to hold either the Presidency or Vice Presidency if duly elected.

Though Huerta had announced that he would not accept the Presidency, hundreds of votes were cast for him, and it is probable that when all the returns are in he will be doing ranking third in the country. The chief reason for the light vote is believed to be the law requiring that every ballot cast be signed with the name and address of the voter. In the present situation Mexicans who signed Huerta were afraid to go on record as favoring Diaz. Therefore, the candidate, although having thousands of supporters in the capital, was unable to receive his full voting strength.

It will be several weeks before all the returns are in from the isolated sections of the Republic, but it is probable that before that time Congress will have convened, declared the legislative and Senators supported by the clerical head and chosen Huerta as President, and later.

All Congressmen to 'Chip In' for Gift to White House Bride

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The "White House bride," as Miss Jessa Wilson is generally spoken of in Washington, is home after a visit with friends, and the wedding plans have been given new impetus.

Minority Leader Mann voted the universal good wishes of the members of the House of Representatives toward Miss Wilson. He proposed that the members "chip in" and send a substantial wedding gift to her. His proposal was taken up with acclamation, and Speaker Clark announced that he would appoint a committee to arrange the details. The gift will probably be a pearl necklace.

"Keeping the Pot Boiling"

A homely expression, but rather expressive of industry and busy-ness, and so it fits the goings-on in

The Ready-to-Wear Section

For there is that healthy, fine hustle about things that indicates life and interest. Not a day passes now that something new is not shown. It may be a novel suit that some ahead-of-the-rest maker has sent us. It may be a new coat. It may be another Paris surprise dress. Quite natural, isn't it, that women should show interest in such a ready-to-wear section? It would be odd if they did not. For, say what you will, women, when they are out to select a new suit or coat or dress, do want to see the things that are in some way or another different (new) from the ordinary kind.

The pot is boiling, boiling, boiling—here.

The Fact That "Madame Irene" Corsets Are Favored by So Many Smart Women Has Its Significance

We might tell and retell the merits of "Madame Irene" Corsets, with more or less success in convincing the individual, but the fact that so many women who are "up" on such matters favor the "Madame Irene" tells the whole story at once.

Asked why, these women would probably say that the lines of a "Madame Irene" Corset are those of the present-day fashion, and that they are comfortable; the materials are beautiful; the trimmings neat and dainty; the whole effect one of grace and elegance.

But to go a bit farther into the why—"Madame Irene" Corsets are of Parisian descent. Madame Irene herself (the designer) spends a good portion—at different times—of her year in Paris. She learns what the Parisian style wizards are doing and what the Parisian corsetiere is doing, and brings this knowledge and the materials to America to make "Madame Irene" Corsets for American women. The result is that which usually follows the most painstaking effort, sometimes called genius.

Madame Irene Corsets Are Priced From $5.00 to $37.50

There are Brocades, Silk Batistes, Imported Coutils, Tricots, Silk Suedes and Elastic Corsets (these last have come in for unusual praise by many eminent surgeons), in styles that belong distinctively to Madame Irene and the fall of 1913.

"The Successor" Is the Madame Irene Understudy
It is priced at $2.75 to $6.00.

Made by the same people, who, believing in their styles, would not make corsets along other lines. The difference is a matter of material and finishing, and still there are "Successors" in French Coutil, Silk Batiste, Suedine, Brocade and a new Linen Poplin.

Where Hats Are Most Becoming

125 Hats at $5.00 & $7.50

Until Now These Hats Were $7.50 to $25.00

But let's get at the statistics. The list shows that there were two hats previously $7.50, one hat $8.50; a dozen or more that were $21.00, $23.00 and $25.00; the others were from $10.00 to $18.00, which, now divided into two lots, one at $5.00 and one at $7.50, shows that only three hats are not reduced so much as one-half.

It's to be a fine sale! For somehow or other hats seem to grow prettier and becomingest in this millinery section. They are hats that women "take to," that women like because they are different from ordinary hats.

And now that in this first sale of the season, a readjustment of stocks, prices have been treated so drastically the economy (without sacrifice to the becomingness of one's hat) is compelling.

There are thirty-five hats at $7.50. There ninety hats at $5.00. They are styles you would be wearing right now, with tailored suits and silk dress; a few are for more "dressy" occasions. Velvets and plushes rich, and there are plenty of black velvets.

Trimmings are fancy feathers, the favored wide ribbon bows, flowers, and there is a touch of fur now and then.

But over and above the materials and the trimmings stands that chic and smartness of line and of contrasted and blended colors that tell very plainly these hats were made by artists.

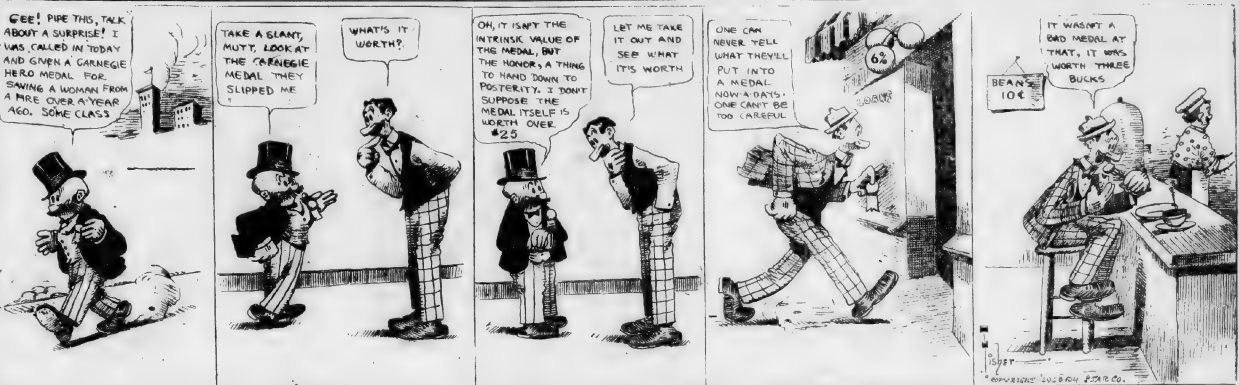

Indeed, it's to be a fine sale! It begins with the opening of the store at eight o'clock.

5 Boys Run Away From Baptist Orphan Home at Hapeville

Five boys, inmates of the Baptist Orphanage at Hapeville, escaped from the home at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning. The boys, nearly all of whom had run away before, apparently had planned their escape beforehand. They slipped out of the dormitory together, carrying with them only their nightclothes and orange uniforms. They are supposed to have gone in the direction of Riverdale. The runaways were Porter Roberts, 13 years old, of Whitfield County; Julian Ayers, 12 years old, of Coweta County; Robert Parrott, 14, of Walker County; Grady Satterfield, 10, of Gwinnett; and Bimmer Ledford, 11, whose home is near Oakford. COLD WIND CHILLS HOTEL FIRE PANIC

Five originating in a coffee house at No. 12 1/2 Marietta street sent 10 male guests of Williams House No. 3 hurrying into the street, but, contrary to the usual custom, the guests were fully dressed before venturing into the street. When the men were aroused by the clang of fire bells and shouting of people in the street, they made a rush down the stairs undressed. Like a bunch of sheep before a hurricane, they turned and ran back to their rooms. All preferred to take a chance on being entrapped by the fire rather than take a chance of getting pneumonia by going out into the cold un-dressed. For half an hour it looked as though the entire block would be destroyed. Before the fire companies reached the scene the fire had eaten its way from the restaurant into a barber shop upstairs, owned by Alfred Nash. The Williams House was slightly damaged. The blaze was discovered shortly before 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, and an hour later was out. The restaurant was not insured, and the loss was estimated at $1,500. The damage to the barber shop was $200.

Ex-Atlanta Men Fight for Job Keating May Oust Al Bridwell

By James Clark. CHICAGO, Oct. 27. - How many of the Cub and Sox regulars of 1937 will be back at their old places when the bell rings next April? That is a question that furnishes interesting chatter for the fans who hang around the radiator these chilly evenings and discuss baseball. The season is gone, of course. The ball players have departed from their clubs and the magazines - well, even the magazines are not there these days with the announcement of general strikes etc. that always make delicious food for the baseball fan's idle talk during the cold weather drift away their baseball spirit.

PLAYING STATUS OF ROBERTSON UP TO MCGRAW

Muggsy' Must Decide Whether He Wants a Fleet Sluggier or Good Twirler. NEW YORK, Oct. 27. - Whether a fleet-footed slugger is more valuable than a sensational pitcher is a question that must be determined by John J. McGraw next spring, when he writes the playing status of Davey Robertson. Reports from the South at the conclusion of the Southern Association campaign this year were to the effect that Davey's left arm had recovered its pitching cunning and that he was demonstrating in practice that he could bust the ball through with all the speed that made him one of the most desired youngsters of his time.

Sporting Food

WINTER BASEBALL. Get out my heavy coat and and get out my mitt in the South. Get out my mitt in the South. Get out my mitt in the South. For I must guard far across a field of endless snow. I do not bid the trail to find the South Pole or the North. 'Tis not for purposes like these that I must seek up some garments and a flock of penicillin. What puzzles us is that some enterprising fellow has made up his mind to travel with the Sox and Giants. The said Doc Cook, being an active member of the League Club, is apparently qualified to be a baseball critic. It is rumored that the Cardinals have been made up money this year, but the rumor may have been started by stockholders who are in a panic. One great who is not overjoyed over the report that Cardinals lost money is R. Freeman.

JOHNSON LEADS ALL IN HURLING ENTIRE GAMES

Only One Team Knocked Twirler Off the Slab - Jim Scott Also a Hard Worker. WALTER JOHNSON not only pitched 26 consecutive games, but he won more than any other American League pitcher, but he has not more than six victories last season. The Chalmers car winner won the title in 1937. The fact that he decided that success in life was worth more than smoking, hoarse fighting and the other vices of those with whom he began life, but quickly passed in his climb upward. JOHNSON pitched 24 full contests. Year One and Fred Flenner, of the Naps, won 22. George Davis and Jess Burbanck, of the Tigers, each 21. Ray Collins, of the Red Sox, and Roy Mitchell, of the Browns, each 20.

Money in Modern Boxing Game

Packey McFarland Good Sample. DOES IT pay to be a prize fighter? Well, not long ago Packey McFarland hit for a ten-round bout in New York was $7,000, something much better than each of the Athletic take-off from the World Series. Which is a lot of money for a young man of 28 to draw down for 30 minutes' actual work. And when his work is contrasted to the weekly wage of the same youngster when he worked about the stockyards of Chicago and drizzled down from $2.00 to $3.00 every time the ghost walked through him to be something in the line that clean living pays. McFarland to-day is understood to be worth at least $20,000, and every year of it is his through the fact that he decided that success in life was worth more than smoking, hoarse fighting and the other vices of those with whom he began life, but quickly passed in his climb upward. There are only three things to learn - a straight punch, a short hook and an uppercut. These three must be mastered so that they can be delivered with either hand - particularly the left. A good boxer does most of his execution with the left, holding the right in reserve, and using it only as a guard. "I think I'm my best now," remarked McFarland the other day before his fight with Marbo. "What I have had lots of experience. I learn something from everybody I face with and I'm picking up new tricks and new points all the time."

Johnston Steals 123 Bases and Now Has New World's Record

San Francisco, Oct. 27. - Jimmy Johnston, the San Francisco outfielder, stole 123 bases yesterday, making a big record for the season. Johnston played seven months "hug" Myers, of the Boston Braves, who stole 112 bases in the 1937 season. Johnston is a former Southern League star. He hit over .300 and stole over 90 bases. So you see there is something in favor of the big who thinks that perform with the club out next season.

Hitch Over Weight in Packey-Gibbons Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. - Gibson's attitude as to a match with Packey McFarland remains in doubt. McFarland is scheduled to fight Gibson on Nov. 10, but Gibson has been reported as having the weight limit at 9 o'clock in the afternoon. Manager Gibson, of the Braves, is reported to talk the fight over with Johnston and will talk when they arrive later in the week. If they agree to accept the match, a date of match will be a certainty.

Which? Who sits in the bleacher. When someone hangs around zero. His shirt and tie. Mid out of her harness. He's either a nut or a hero.

San Johnson avers that Tom Hughes is not capable of making down an opponent in the American League. This is the worst knock we have ever heard of. LEARNING. met a school old and gray who proudly tossed his head. "I'm an old guy who understands the outfield rule," he said. There is some fun in an serious a game football. The instance, coaches and players who are able to excel on the field. While Hinkle says he will not fight at 123 pounds, there is a suspicion elsewhere that he will weigh in at 140. Joe Mandel's system of training with his own spring does not mesh with the system of the Federal League. He said it came down to grip a hard counter - will it weigh in at 140. TWICE TOLD TALE. I know of an athlete who breaks into his own spring does not mesh with the system of the Federal League. He said it came down to grip a hard counter - will it weigh in at 140. As often as Harry K. HARVARD REIGNS SUPREME OVER EASTERN TEAMS

Dartmouth Ranks Second to Crimson Eleven at Present Rating. Princeton Defeat Big Blow.

By Frank G. Menke. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Harvard today reigns supreme in the eastern section of the football world, with Dartmouth second, Princeton third and Yale and Pennsylvania about tied for fourth place.

One of the big regrets of this season is that Harvard and Dartmouth are the first teams in many years who do not meet. Just now it looks as if the Crimson must be champion, but it is now a question whether it is now a question of one or two teams and not from Harvard's position as a standard-bearer in former years.

THE Dartmouth aggression by its Princeton outfit, has demonstrated beyond a doubt that it is now a question of one or two teams and not from Harvard's position as a standard-bearer in former years.

If Anti-Home Rulers Can Defy the Law in Ireland, Why Not Mrs. Pankhurst in England?

The Fact Is That Because Women Can't Vote They Must Not Even Question the Laws That Degrade Them.

We offer you to-day another instalment from the good and much needed talk that Mrs. Pankhurst gave to her judge and jury—before they sentenced her to three years in prison.

The judge in a solemn bromide fashion had informed Mrs. Pankhurst repeatedly that she ought to respect the law, and teach women to respect it.

At the same time, in Ulster, certain eminently respectable gentlemen WITH VOTES were organizing themselves into an army of one hundred thousand, had bought arms, and were openly announcing their intention of resisting with bullets and swords any effort by the British Empire to enforce Home Rule.

Nothing is done to punish those Ulster men WITH VOTES when they defy the law, but the law is quick to put in jail a woman who, without weapons or guns, opposes injustice.

I am charged with inflicting. What I say is that if it is right that I should be charged with inflicting, it is no less right that I should be charged with inflicting on the lawless women to these acts.

CHILD LABOR IN MILLS. Editor The Georgian: I have been reading with interest and approval your articles on child labor.

IMMIGRATION ABSURDITIES. Editor The Georgian: Your excellent paper has been first and foremost an exponent of the cause of the people in general.

DEATH THAW 'INDICTMENT'. Editor The Georgian: I find what you say about New York Grand Jurors' fees? I note that a body of them has just permitted W. T. Jerome to bamboozle them into finding an indictment against Tamm for the alleged crime of conspiracy in having instigated upon his constitutional right to sue "the, the, and happiness."

STARS AND STRIPES. Editor The Georgian: I have just returned from a business trip to the States, and I am sure that you will find that the Stars and Stripes is a paper that is well worth reading.

THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN. Editor The Georgian: I have just returned from a business trip to the States, and I am sure that you will find that the Atlanta Georgian is a paper that is well worth reading.

"GEE! YOU'RE A LUCKY GUY!"

In this cartoon Mr. McCay gives us a powerful lesson in the contrasts of life. By the lowly sorts of the city's refuse, the finding of a lady's long, white gown, suggesting daintiness and luxury, amid such squalid realities, is hailed as an omen of good luck.

Ideal Helper for Women

Dorothy Dix Tells Why Good Housekeeping Magazine Should Appeal to Them--"It Has Backbone and Brains, as Well as a Heart and Tear Ducts."

By DOROTHY DIX

THE editor of this paper asked me why I am enthusiastic over the October number of Good Housekeeping Magazine, and why I think that women should read it.

Because it is both entertaining and instructive. Because it offers to its readers a menu that contains good strong meat, into which they can set their teeth instead of feeding on a solely on fluff and sweeties.

And finally, and most important of all, because it subtly expresses the new note in the great feminist movement. It recognizes that, while women are still, and there will be a long time yet, in the "Pitiful of Rights," that like a breath of October itself, it is a new note in the movement.

Children in Factories

By MADISON BELL, Author of Georgia's Child Labor Law.

Editor The Georgian: I refer to your editorial on "Child Labor" Friday, you offer to your readers the opportunity to "freely and frankly discuss all matters affecting the welfare, progress, etc. of the people."

Give the law publicity, for therein lies the remedy lies. WHAT WE NEED IS LAW ENFORCEMENT. Let's get breakfast before we order supper. Let's try to enforce every line of the present law and then take up the question of expanding and enlarging its provisions.

The Supreme Court of Georgia recently upheld the present child labor law in a civil action. But I am not familiar with any decided movement of those who claim to sympathize with the progress of the bill in enforcing the penal law.

What we need is law enforcement. Let's get breakfast before we order supper. Let's try to enforce every line of the present law and then take up the question of expanding and enlarging its provisions.

The Hungarian Revolt

By REV. THOMAS B. GREGORY.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS ago began the Hungarian struggle for independence. Under the leadership of Kossuth and Batthyany they threw down the gauntlet of Austria, and though their struggle failed their brave fight elicited the admiration and sympathy of all mankind.

It is in addition to which there are recorded the results of the Institute conducted by Good Housekeeping, which tests out all sorts of labor-saving devices. This month it treats of laundry and money, and women's habits, by using electrical washing machines and ironers.

"I don't know who he gets it from," we started talking later. "He must take all his brightness from his dear old Grandpa Kink. He always seems to love her when she comes here to the lot."

"It's going to be a President," his mother proudly said. "The little rascal seems to think at play of his old man. His father was a stupid child, that's what was two years old. He couldn't make a single sound, that's what his mother told."

"Now, darling, show the gentleman how the birdies sleep: Come, Cecil, to what birdies go? Add Cecil went to sleep."

SEES WILSON PLAN FOR INVASION OF MEXICO

HOBSON DISSECTS WILSON'S SPEECH

Congressman Believes President Means That United States Will Go Into Huerta's Country.

MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 28.—Quoting from President Wilson's speech before the Southern Commercial Congress that "the United States will never seek one additional foot of territory by conquest," Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson today said:

"I construe this to mean that we are going into Mexico, but that we will come out when order has been restored.

"It is inconceivable that the President meant to say in this grave emergency that the United States would not under any conditions intervene with force in Mexico. I am sure he did not so intend. I believe that his words were intended to assure the friends of constitutional government in Mexico that if the United States found it necessary to send troops to restore order in that country that the troops would not remain to occupy Mexican territory, but would be withdrawn when peace was restored."

John Temple Graves said: "Read in connection with the President's assurance that this country and the Latin-American countries must unite to insist upon constitutional government upon this continent, there can be no other meaning.

"It was evident also that Mr. Wilson intended to convey the most pacifying assurance of American relations to all South American countries."

Secretary Daniels left early this morning, ordered back to Washington by the President. The seriousness of the situation in Mexico is said to be responsible for the change.

Last night the Secretary of the Navy addressed the Southern Commercial Congress on the subject, "The Panama Canal and the Navy."

When asked about the situation in Mexico, Secretary Daniels said that the best efforts of the Administration were being directed to its peaceful settlement.

"One can never tell. War is a matter of psychology. Sometimes a spark may fan old flames," he said.

MRS. EATON IN TEARS.

PLYMOUTH, MASS., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton to-day showed her first sign of emotion during the second day of the terrific cross-examination in her trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton.

Traces of the severe seven-hour grilling to which the defendant was subjected yesterday were seen in her blanched face, twitching hands and the tears which at times rose to her eyes. But Mrs. Eaton did not flinch. Her eyes swept the crowded courtroom, then reverted with an unwavering gaze to District Attorney Barker.

Mrs. Eaton declared that she believed her husband would have given a large sum of money to have June (her daughter) live with him.

SEEKS PARDONS FOR TWO.

DALTON, Oct. 28.—Judge G. G. Glenn is circulating a petition to be sent the Prison Commission asking for a full pardon for Joe Mathis and Pink Miller, convicted here and sentenced to the penitentiary.

CHECKING FIRE DANGERS.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 28.—Fire Chief Ike Pearce, of the Columbus Fire Department, has started a vigorous inspection of local conditions with a view of lessening the danger from fires at the beginning of the fall season.

American Weds Daughter of Late Senator After Abruzzi Failed in His Quest.

WHEELING, W. VA., Oct. 27.—Katherine Elkins was married this afternoon at Elkins, W. Va., to "Billy" Hitt.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance of seven years during which Miss Elkins was ardently wooed both by Mr. Hitt and the Italian Duke of Abruzzi. Only a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which took place at the paternal home of the bride.

Miss Elkins is the daughter of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of this State.

William ("Billy") Hitt is the son of Reynolds Hitt. When he first wooed Miss Elkins seven years ago his suit was favored by the late Senator Elkins, who disapproved heartily of the Duke of Abruzzi for a son-in-law.

"Seven years will I serve for you, Duke or no Duke," said Hitt to Miss Elkins, "and then it will be to say yes or no."

But the Duke was as faithful a lover as Billy, and it was only when royalty looked with disfavor upon the match that he gave up the American girl.

TELLS JURY TO CLOSE CLUB.

DUBLIN, Oct. 28.—Judge K. J. Hawkins charged the Laurens County Grand Jurors that if they did their duty they would abolish the Dublin Elks' locker club.

The locker has been an issue for some time between the W. C. T. U. and the Elks' Club. Some time ago women of the city signed a petition to the order asking that it abolish this feature, but the petition was not heeded.

BROTHERS SLAIN.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 28.—As the result of a long-standing family feud, Ernest and Hunt Sharpe, brothers, are dead and a brother-in-law, Cornelius Edwards, is shot in the arm. The brothers were attacked by Edwards at Graycourt, Laurens County. Edwards is in jail charged with murder.

It is said that a disagreement over the division of property caused the feud.

Miss Katherine Elkins snapped as she laughed when a reporter the other day asked her if she intended to marry "Billy" Hitt. She laughed then, but she married "Billy" Monday—which goes to show that it pays to stick around. "Billy" was never daunted by the suit of dukes and millionaires. He stayed right on the job in a quiet and persistent manner, and he won the most eligible and attractive young woman in America.

More Lepers in U. S. Says Mission Head

DENVER, COLO., Oct. 28.—William M. Donner, secretary of the U. S. A. Committee of the Mission to Lepers, says leprosy is rapidly increasing in the United States. He says there are 1,000,000 lepers in the world, but the United States has only a small portion.

"The disease is not hereditary," he says. "Our mission has maintained homes for untainted children of lepers for years."

PAYS $25,000 ALIMONY. MEMPHIS, Oct. 28.—J. M. Toohy, who a few months ago paid his wife $25,000 alimony, following a sensational bill for divorce filed by him and cross-bill filed by Mrs. Toohy, died to-day at his Memphis home. He was 50 years old.

"TIGER" SENT UP AGAIN. ANNISTON, ALA., Oct. 28.—W. F. Carson, sent up for violating the prohibition law and paroled by Governor O'Neal, was again convicted in Police Court to-day, being given a sentence of three months and a fine of $100 and costs.

GOVERNOR TO HUNT. JEFFERSON CITY, MO., Oct. 28.—Governor Mator, members of his staff and other friends will go on a possum hunt with 250 motor cars. Old-timers hint that the possum does not frequent macadam roads.

Lawyer Accused of Poisoning Daughter

SANTA FE, N. MEX., Oct. 28.—H. M. Major, an attorney of Alamogordo, N. Mex., is under arrest on the charge of murder, the charge growing out of the death of his daughter, Eudora, who died suddenly following the death of her mother and the payment of the mother's life insurance.

The company refused to pay the daughter's life insurance policy and had the girl's body disinterred for autopsy. Mr. Major's arrest followed his recent marriage to Miss Isabelle Gibson, an El Paso, Texas, school teacher. She is ill.

RIOTING FOLLOWS STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Exactly twelve hours after the chauffeurs employed for the transfer of United States mail in New York city had struck, rioting broke out to-day.

An attack was made by the strike sympathizers on automobile trucks manned by strike breakers and sent out from the barns of the postal transfer service under police guard.

Chauffeur Ray Calderan was injured. Policeman Barry narrowly escaped death. The attack took place at Thirtieth street and Eighth avenue. The crowd had lain in wait. Two men were arrested.

FELIX DIAZ FLEES TO U. S. GUNBOAT

SAYS ASSASSINS ARE SEEKING HIM

Leader Appeals to American Consul—Two Aides and Newspaper Man Also Taken on Vessel.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz was taken on board the United States gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz early to-day after he had informed the American Consul there, William Canada, that agents of General Huerta had threatened to assassinate him, according to a cablegram received here.

The dispatch adds that Jose Sandoval and Ceclio Ocon, two supporters of Diaz, and Alexander Williams, an American newspaper man, were taken on board the Wheeling with Diaz, and are now under the protection of the United States flag.

Advices received here early to-day indicated that the conditions at Vera Cruz are serious. I. Burn, an American citizen who accompanied the Diaz party from Havana to Vera Cruz, is said to have been arrested by Mexican officers.

TO ASK RECOGNITION.
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 28.—Having complied with the request of President Wilson, expressed through Special Envoy Lind, that an election be held in Mexico, General Huerta is preparing to make an appeal to the United States to recognize his regime.

It was learned to-day that Senor Moheno, the Foreign Minister, is at work on the draft of a note, although negotiations are in progress with European powers which may prevent its presentation. It is believed that if the Huerta Administration is able to secure a big loan it will not insist upon recognition by the United States, but will content itself with formal request for equality of relations.

The general apathy over the Presidential election continues, the people realizing in advance what Huerta's proclamation announcing the result will be.

Throughout the maze of Mexican politics a black spirit of intrigue not seen since the Middle Ages of European courts has been and still is evident.

Felix Diaz, who formerly enjoyed an equality of power and prestige with Huerta, is being forced from the stage and into private life. Diaz, who has been detained at Vera Cruz ostensibly by the illness of his wife, but really through fear of arrest or assassination, has told his friends that he is preparing to retire to private life.

TAUNTS WIFE; SHE SHOOTS.
SAVANNAH, Oct. 28.—W. F. Chapman, a well-known contractor, is in the hospital to-day with a load of birdshot in his neck, inflicted by his wife. She is at her home prostrated with grief.

The two were hunting at their country place near here. Chapman, after killing a few birds, taunted his wife for being a poor shot. She playfully pointed her gun at him, thinking it empty. It was discharged, the entire load entering at the right of the jugular vein.

FORMER NUN WEDES.
GUTHRIE, OKLA., Oct. 28.—Announcement has reached Benedictine here of the wedding in Ritzville, Wash., of Miss Ann Lowry, 56 years old, of Guthrie, who for twenty years was a member of the Benedictine Order of Nuns, and W. R. Cunningham, aged 19, of Ritzville, who at Bethany College, Kentucky, founded the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity more than a half century ago.

Two years ago in Guthrie Sister Justina withdrew from the Benedictine Order.

LONGFELLOW KIN A BRIDE.
CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 28.—Miss Amelia C. Thorp, a granddaughter of the poet Longfellow, was married to-day to Robert W. Knowles, of New Bedford.

Miss Thorp, first of the four granddaughters of Longfellow to have a church wedding, is the daughter of Joseph G. Thorp, a golf player of some prominence during the early history of the game in this country.

LOSE AIGRETTES.
DETROIT, MICH., Oct. 28.—Customs officials to-day seized more than $5,000 worth of aigrettes and egret plumes from Canadian matinee goers who crossed from Windsor to visit local theaters.

Miss Freda Zuckreider, an expert on millinery, was employed to detect the wearers in the crowds landing from the ferryboats. Fearful scenes ensued when beautiful plumes were cut from fall hats.

HERO IS ROBBED.
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Prince Paul DeClairmont, the handsome hero of Ellnor Glyn's "Three Weeks," Tuesday was bewailing the loss of $300 in cash and a ring which he said was worth $1,400.

Paul told the police three men attacked and robbed him Monday night.

RENT VILLA AT NICE.
PARIS, Oct. 28.—Er King, an actor and his wife, who was Princess Augustine Victoria, have rented a villa at Nice.

A physician will accompany the couple.

U. S. Fosters Raising Bride Bars 'Obey' and 'Serve' at Marriage

Increased activity among Georgia farmers in growing hairy vetch, a legume closely akin to clover, and which makes excellent hay, is expected to follow the action of the United States Department of Agriculture in distributing, in carefully prepared packages, samples of the bacteria with which it is necessary to inoculate the seed before it will attain its best growth.

Dan Hughes, Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture, has received a package of the bacteria, sufficient to inoculate seed for 50 acres of planting. He will distribute the bacteria to farmers.

PHONES GIRL; ENDS LIFE.
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28.—With a telephone receiver in one hand John Covington, auditor for a big concern here, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head.

Covington was married, but letters found show that he was in love with "Eabe" Marshall, a cabaret performer, who is said to be in St. Louis. He had just telephoned a farewell message to her as he ended his life.

WILSON ALL SMILES.
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 28.—The people of Dixie turned out in cheering throngs to-day to greet President Wilson as he was inducted by the Federal Government into Mobile.

The President plainly showed his happiness by the broad smile with which he received the ovations accorded him at every station where the train slowed down. At every place the crowds were large and enthusiastic. The President is due at Washington at 10:30 p. m.

QUARANTINE CASE.
Monroe Seabolt, a wealthy merchant and cattlemen of Fannin County, has been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury for alleged violation of the Federal quarantine laws.

Seabolt is charged with driving cattle affected with distemper from Lumpkin County over into Union County for shipment to Kentucky. A score of witnesses gave testimony in the case.

FRANK WITNESSES RAPPED BY DORSEY

Juror A. H. Henslee's alleged bias against Leo M. Frank, around which much of the hardest fighting in the hearing for a new trial has centered, again was the subject when Solicitor General Dorsey resumed his argument in defense of the verdict of guilty Tuesday, in the library of the State Capitol. He made a bitter attack on the character of some of the defense's witnesses.

The Solicitor took up the business connections, character and reputation of each of the jurors, paying particular attention to Henslee and Johnning, the two attacked, and sought to show that the jury was unusually and remarkably high class, and that it was utterly futile to allege that any member was prejudiced and unfair, as it has been the endeavor of Frank's lawyers to establish.

Dorsey made an eloquent protest against the upsetting of a solemn verdict of a jury on what he described as the flimsy and insubstantial grounds advanced by the defense. He savagely attacked the reputation for veracity of several of the defense's witnesses who swore to the expressed bias of Henslee, and asked if a new trial should be granted on their irresponsible statements.

C. P. Stough, of Atlanta, a representative of the Mason's Amnity; Samuel Aaron, of No. 217 Crow street, and R. L. Gremmer, of Albany, were the trio most bitterly assailed by the Solicitor. All had testified to hearing Henslee make denunciatory remarks in regard to Frank before the trial began.

"It is up to your honor to say whether you will take the word of Stough, impeached by Lou Castro and H. L. Bennett, or that of Henslee, not only unimpeached, but sustained by the other eleven jurors with whom he was thrown for the 29 days of the trial," said Dorsey.

"It is up to your honor to say whether you will take the word of the irresponsible Sam Aaron or that of the impeached R. L. Gremmer against that of this juror who was unchallenged when he went into the jury box and whose vote of 'doubtful' on the first ballot—the only 'doubtful' vote cast—indicates that he was far from biased or prejudiced."

Bride Bars 'Obey' and 'Serve' at Marriage

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Miss Elizabeth Colt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Colt, founders of the Spiritual Militant League, is the first bride, it is said, to make a practical protest against what the Spiritual Militants call "moral indignities to women" in the marriage service of the Anglican Church.

At her marriage in the Old London Church to Thornley C. Gibson, the bride was not asked either to "obey" or to "serve" her husband.

NOT READY TO WED.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—"No, I think I'll remain a jolly bachelor," was Francis Oulmet's blushing reply to the Count de la Greze's suggestion that since his sister-in-law, Miss Nancy Steele, daughter of a partner of J. P. Morgan, is to marry Devereux Milburn, the polo crack, Miss Kathryn Steele, a younger sister-in-law, "might do well to wed Francis Oulmet, the champion golfer."

"At least, I'm not strong for getting married yet," added Oulmet.

S. SHIPS HELD READY FOR MEXIC TROUBLE

FEAR OF BREAK CAUSE FRACTION

Armed Intervention Certain to Follow if Foreigners Are Made to Suffer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Fearing anti-foreign outbreaks during the Mexican election scheduled for Sunday, the Administration to-day completed its preparations for armed intervention in Mexico should this become necessary. Both the army and the navy are in such form that they can be moved instantly and with the least possible loss of efficiency.

In addition to the three dreadnoughts now anchored off Vera Cruz with their big guns trained on the city, the European cruise of the Atlantic fleet, which is scheduled to begin Saturday, has given the Government an excuse to coal and fully provision nine of the largest ships of the navy. The Wyoming, Utah, Florida, Arkansas, Delaware, Connecticut, Vermont, Kansas and Ohio will steam out of Hampton Roads Saturday morning.

Big Ships in Call.

The big ships will not proceed to full speed, but will cruise leisurely eastward, so as to be within easy wireless communication with Washington three days after sailing. It is anticipated that the anti-foreign outbreaks, if they occur, will take place either Sunday or Monday, and it would be the work of less than an hour to change the route of the fleet and send all nine fighting ships southward to the gulf, where, with the assistance of the torpedo division, now quartered at Hampton Roads and Charleston, S. C., they could land men on the east coast of Mexico.

In addition to these nine vessels, the Navy Department holds the Virginia, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Nebraska ready at Norfolk for the Mexican cruise, which will begin October 29. The dreadnoughts are coaled and provisioned now, however, and can move instantly if necessary. This division of the fleet is intended to relieve the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire, which have been "requested" by President Huerta to leave. In event of trouble, however, this trio of battleships would remain in Mexican waters and land marines and sailors to protect American property.

Army Ready, Too.

The preparations of the army for intervention are no less complete than those of the navy. To "re-leave" the Second and Fifth Regiments of cavalry, which have been stationed on the border for several years, General Wood has ordered the Tenth and Fifteenth cavalry to the border. No date has been set for the transfer, but both the Tenth and Fifteenth have received orders to remain in marching trim.

In addition to this, the Government has 5,000 troops at Texas City, Texas, within a few miles of the border, armed and ready to move. The arrival of the two additional regiments of cavalry would give the Administration close to 12,000 troops of all kinds along the border, and it is planned that this force will be hurled across the Rio Grande at the first sign of trouble or danger to foreigners.

THANKSGIVING DAY SET.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—President Wilson to-day issued his Thanksgiving Day proclamation, setting Thursday, November 27, as the day on which the people of the United States shall offer thanks for the blessings of the year. The proclamation says:

"We not only have had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice.

"We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the Isthmus of Panama, which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will, but also promises new achievements of co-operation and peace."

PLANS CENTRAL BANK.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—A central bank with twelve branches under executive control of the government is proposed in a plan submitted to the Senate Banking and Currency Committee to-day by Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank of New York. Vanderlip declared he believed his plan would safeguard the interests of the people, be acceptable to bankers and meet every political and economic exigency.

HOWARD TO FORCE PROBE.

Declaring that should the Department of Justice refuse to act on the charges of unfit conditions at the Federal prison, made by Julian Hawthorne and others, he would carry the matter into the National Congress, Congressman William Schley Howard in a statement Thursday reiterated his intention to force a full investigation.

DALTON, Oct. 23.—Ira Fisher, the man who produced the latest sensation in the Frank case, was to-day indicted for murder by the Grand Jury in session here.

CLEMENTS IS URGED FOR REAPPOINTMENT

Judson C. Clements.

Colleagues on Interstate Commerce Commission Ask Wilson to Rename Georgian.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Judson C. Clements, of Georgia, senior member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, has been urged for reappointment by all of his colleagues on the commission.

Chairman Clark called at the White House Wednesday afternoon and requested the President, on behalf of the Commission, to rename Mr. Clements a member.

The term of the Georgian expires in December, and the name of former Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, has been presented by friends to the President for Judge Clements' position. The North Carolina man is very close to the White House, and it is known that the President would be glad to honor him in some signal manner. It is thought, however, that Judge Clements will be reappointed.

Mother Shoots Self When Daughter Dies

WILKESBARRE, PA., Oct. 23.—In a scene from grief at finding the body of her 4-year-old daughter accidentally burned to death, Mrs. Mary Moss, of Wilkesbarre, to-day secured a revolver and shot herself to death.

The body of the mother was found stretched across that of her little daughter Mary.

"SLEUTH" CONFESSES.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Oct. 23.—William R. McBride, former warrant clerk under State Auditor Trappe, after a flight of nineteen months, has returned here, confessed to a $28,000 theft and begun a year in the penitentiary.

During his flight McBride worked as a sleuth for Scotland Yard and as a detective for an agency in New York.

Often times he saw pictures of himself as the man wanted in Oklahoma and he went to work on the case.

COTTON HELPS BANKS.

Conservative bankers declared Thursday that bank deposits at present in Atlanta break all records. They estimated that the day's deposits exceeded all previous records by more than $5,000,000.

With the movement of cotton well under way, indications are that even these figures will be beaten before the end of the week. To-day's record is the second that has been set this week.

WILBURN HELPS TO SELECT OWN JURY

Pleads Not Guilty When Arraigned on Charge of Slaying His Employer.

GRAYS, Oct. 23.—The finding of King's dead body at 2 o'clock in the morning, the nervousness of Wilburn on the day after this discovery, the unlawful relations of Mrs. King and Wilburn, and an alleged confession by Wilburn constituted the greater part of the evidence before the jury by the State in the first day of the trial of Nick Wilburn, a farm hand, in Jones County Superior Court, for the murder of James King, a wealthy Jones County farmer, last December.

It was testified that Wilburn as a member of the search party did not want the party to go in the direction of the place where the body was found. This was elicited in the testimony of Dr. C. A. White and J. A. Gordon.

Jesse Barber, a negro, who was arrested for the murder, but afterward released, testified that Wilburn admitted to him that he (Wilburn) had shot King, and threatened his (Barber's) life if the fact was disclosed. Barber said, on cross-examination, that Wilburn wept like a baby while telling how he had killed King. Barber also testified that twice he had seen Mrs. King and Wilburn in compromising positions while King was away.

Confession Causes Fight. There was a prolonged wrangle between Attorney Cooper, for the defense, and Solicitor Fottle over the latter's right to tell the jury in his opening statement what he alleged Wilburn had confessed. The judge upheld his right to outline Wilburn's alleged confession.

Attorney Cooper also objected to the presence in the courtroom of Detective Moore, who obtained Wilburn's confession. He argued that Moore should be excluded along with the other witnesses. Moore was allowed to remain, however.

When arraigned for trial, Wilburn, attired in a new suit and freshly shaven, stood up, smiling, and pleaded "not guilty," in a clear, resonant voice. He aided his attorneys considerably in the selection of the jury, no less than twenty being struck up on his suggestion.

From her cell in the county jail, which is connected with the courthouse by a "bridge of signs," Mrs. King, who is nervously awaiting her trial, can look into the courtroom, even obtaining a glimpse of the jury.

Take Wilburn in Auto. Apprehensive lest the strong feeling which was so manifest at the time of the killing had not subsided, Sheriff Roberts took extra precaution in bringing Wilburn from Macon to Grays. Wilburn was handcuffed and seated in an automobile between the Sheriff and Detective Moore, who retreated out the crime and obtained a confession from the prisoner. The party left Macon at 7:30 o'clock and reached Grays just a few minutes before court opened and just as the train from Macon arrived. The crowd was expecting Wilburn on the train, and there were few at the courthouse to observe the prisoner as he was taken out of the auto and into the jail.

Sheriff Roberts will not allow Wilburn and Mrs. King to see each other. He has arranged a cell for Wilburn on the ground floor, immediately under the cell occupied by Mrs. King. The two prisoners have no means of communication.

FIGHTING DEATH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Can an indomitable will overcome the effects of a deadly poison when every ounce of the will power of the sufferer is bent on getting well?

This is a feature in the case of Isaac Levy, a wealthy Brooklyn clothing manufacturer who swallowed bichloride of mercury by mistake, which is challenging the interest of physicians throughout the city.

Although Levy was told by doctors that the tablets he took would cause death and he was forced to make an ante-mortem statement to the coroner after drawing up his will, the patient arose to-day saying he felt fine.

NICK WILBURN SENTENCED TO DIE DEC. 12

FARMER'S SLAYER DOOMED BY JURY

His Lawyer Makes Preparations to Fight for New Trial—Says Client Won't Hang.

GRAYS, Oct. 25.—With Nick Wilburn condemned to die December 12 for the murder of his employer, James King, a wealthy Jones county farmer, interest in Middle Georgia's famous murder case shifted to-day to King's wife, Mrs. Katherine King, who will be placed on trial before Judge J. B. Park Monday morning, charged with complicity in the crime.

It is thought that the trial of Mrs. King will attract more attention than did that of Wilburn, owing to the fact that she is a woman and the trial will be the first ever held in Jones County in which a white woman is accused of murder.

Mrs. King steadfastly maintains her innocence of any part in the death of her husband, and is confident that she will be acquitted, despite the confession of Wilburn that she told him to kill King.

Mrs. King's trial is not expected to be a long one. Her leading counsel, W. D. McNeill, announced late Saturday afternoon that few witnesses will testify in her behalf, but that these few will produce important testimony.

Widow to Tell Story.

"I propose now to put Mrs. King on the stand and let her tell the jury the truth and the whole truth about this case," said Mr. McNeill. "I do not believe there is a man in Georgia who would convict her if he believes what she says, and we are prepared to support her statements by the testimony of other witnesses."

Mrs. King, though she has retained her courage and good spirits during the week of Wilburn's trial, broke down and cried when she heard this verdict.

"I just can't think what it means," she said.

She refused to see anyone, and sobbed herself to sleep in her cell. She awoke several hours later and held a long conference with her attorneys, the nature of which was not divulged.

Mrs. King has been a prisoner in the Jones County jail since her arrest last December. She has issued several statements repudiating Wilburn and branding his statements that he had killed her husband as untrue. She declares that Wilburn alone is responsible for the crime, and insists that she became intimate with him only because he exerted a strange power over her and forced her to do his bidding against her will.

Fight to Save Wilburn.

Declaring that Wilburn would never go to the gallows unless he was accompanied by Mrs. King, Attorney John R. Cooper has already started his battle to save his client from the hangman's noose.

A motion for a new trial has been set for a hearing before Judge Park on December 6, and if the motion is refused, Mr. Cooper will carry his fight to the Supreme Court, and perhaps ultimately to the Prison Commission and the governor. Mr. Cooper stated that in arguing the motion for a new trial he will contend that Wilburn was convicted on circumstantial evidence, and for that reason should not suffer the death penalty.

Wilburn has been taken to the Bibb County jail at Macon, where he has been kept since last December for fear of mob violence. He probably will be brought here next week to testify against Mrs. King.

FROST STOPS WEEVIL.

"Had it not been for this early frost," said Dr. Worsham, "Georgia farmers would have had to have begun their fight with the boll weevil this fall instead of next year."

"As a result we will be able to secure for the bulletin which this department is preparing on the boll weevil the report of the United States Department of Agriculture, which will outline how far the boll weevil has traveled during 1913."

"With the early maturing varieties of cotton seed, which are now being perfected in Georgia, and the resistant varieties, which fight off the black root and anthraxous and similar diseases, we believe that the Georgia cotton planter will be in the best possible position to cope with the boll weevil next year."

LARGEST LOCOMOTIVE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The largest locomotive that ever poked its pilot into a Chicago roundhouse is on exhibition at the LaSalle Street Station. It weighs almost 500,000 pounds.

206-YEAR-OLD OAK FELLED.

MONMOUTH, OREG., Oct. 25.—In 1812, when Europeans were planting colonies in America, one of the oldest and largest white oak trees in Polk County began to die. The massive oak, which has been cut down on the Blaker farm, was 216 years old, as ascertained by counts of the rings.

ASKS ATLANTA POLICE TO FIND HER MOTHER

Mrs. W. A. Mills, 10, of Palatka, Fla., and her baby. Young bride thinks she was born in Atlanta. Gives Beavers slight clew, and Chief is making diligent inquiry in her behalf.

Young Florida Woman Does Not Know Her Name and Foster Parents Won't Tell Her.

Chief of Police James L. Beavers is taxing the energy and resources of the police department to-day, trying to aid Mrs. W. A. Mills, of Palatka, Fla., in her quest for a mother and a name.

"I want to know who I am," Mrs. Mills writes in a pathetic letter. "I want to find my mother, I have been told that she is dead—but I want to know. I don't know what my own name is, and the people I live with won't tell me."

The only clew Mrs. Mills was able to give the chief was the name of two men, brothers of Samuel Hutchins, of No. 525 Kirby street, Palatka, with whom she has resided since babyhood, and whom she thought was her father until only a few days ago. Then, she says, she learned they were only her foster-parents—not even relatives—and that she had been taken from her mother when a baby.

Mrs. Mills thinks she was born in Atlanta. She remembers living here thirteen years ago, when she was but 6 years old—she is only 13 now—and that Mr. Hutchins had a meat market on Mangum street. They took her to Savannah then, and later to Palatka.

A sister of Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Mills says, a Mrs. Peak, of Covington, Ga., told her that while she was an infant her mother died, and Mr. Hutchins and his wife took her and brought her up. More than that the sister would not tell.

"She has despaired, she says, of ever inducing her foster-parents to tell her who she is. So she has appealed to the Atlanta police to help her learn her name or find her mother—and the police are doing all they can.

Kills Husband; Fails To Slay His Friend

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Arthur C. Drown, son of the late Colonel A. N. Drown, of San Francisco, and heir to a portion of the vast Drown estate, was shot and killed in his home in the Lakeside district, Oakland, to-day by his wife, whose jealousy had been aroused by the interest taken by her husband in Mrs. Marie Miller. The tragedy occurred while Drown was asleep in bed.

After the shooting Mrs. Drown calmly arranged a luncheon appointment with Mrs. Miller for herself and Drown. When the lunch hour arrived, she explained that Drown was delayed. As Mrs. Miller was preparing the salad Mrs. Drown drew a pistol from her stocking and, pressing the muzzle against Mrs. Miller's back, snapped the trigger three times. The second tragedy was averted by reason of an automatic lock on the weapon falling to release.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 25.—A jury in the District Court is trying to decide what the services of a man's eyes are worth to a man who must rent them.

CITY OF MONTEREY IS WON BY REBELS

Place Captured After Siege Lasting for Ten Days—Many Persons Killed.

EL PASO, TEXAS, Oct. 25.—The city of Monterey, capital of the State of Nuevo Leon and one of the most important strategic points in Mexico, has been captured by the rebels after a ten days' siege. The city fell yesterday noon, but no confirmation was received from Monterey until to-day.

A terrific fire from machine guns was poured into the city for 24 hours, according to reports, and many persons were killed and wounded, while damage to the extent of several million dollars has been done to property. The rebel force attacking Monterey was commanded by Fabio Gonzalez and numbered 2,000. Colonel Contreras formed a flank with 1,000 veterans of Persson and Colonel Coss had 500 well armed troops. The Federal garrison numbered about 2,000. The rebels are reported to have had a number of machine guns.

According to the report received here Generals Maas and Telles, with their joint forces, were defeated as they hurried to the assistance of Monterey.

The first skirmish occurred at Morales, a short distance from the city of Monterey on October 15. The rebels were victorious in this and the insurgent forces then divided, one body rushing to Monterey from the west, another from the east and one band got into the city by using the line of the international railway. At the same time another rebel division captured San Luis, a suburb, and controlled one of the main lines into the city.

PISTOL WARDEN NEEDED.

THOMASVILLE, Oct. 25.—When a jury in the Superior Court in session here this week found Cap Thompson, a negro, guilty of murder for killing Bill Daniels, another negro, Judge Thomas declared that if there was a pistol-hunting warden for the county three-fourths of the trouble would be prevented, as pistols were responsible for most of the crimes committed. The Thompson jury recommended mercy. The prisoner will get a life sentence.

Sanders Sauls, a white man, on trial for killing a negro in the Boston neighborhood some months ago, was found not guilty. The killing was done some time ago, but Sauls, after being a fugitive several months, gave himself up a few days ago, and was put on trial. The jury found it a case of justifiable homicide.

PRISON GUARDS FIRED.

While calmly asserting that an investigation would be welcomed, the administration at the Atlanta Federal prison has taken the first important steps to crush the "insurgents" within the penitentiary walls.

It was reported with some secrecy to The American Saturday that six guards and another officer had been temporarily discharged. Warden Moyer declined to discuss the matter. He would neither deny nor affirm the report, but it is declared that the prison is passing through a crisis and the charges first made by Julian Hawthorne are to result in important changes—those the warden makes and perhaps some his opponents may bring about.

TO HIDE THEIR CHARMS.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—The shapely curve of the ankles of woman witnesses is not going to influence any verdicts in Superior Judge Jackson's Court—not if the judge can help it.

The judge has ordered constructed a new stand closed on both ends and the front and open behind, so that witnesses can place their feet underneath and out of view.

"A handsome woman often gets a verdict when, if her charms were less, she might not get it," the court observed.

PRESIDENT PLANTS TREE.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 25.—Throwing aside the cares of the delicate Mexican situation, President Wilson journeyed to Philadelphia to-day, made two addresses, planted a tree in the classic shades of Swarthmore College and enjoyed himself in the manner of his old professional days. Tonight he is on his way to Mobile, where he will deliver an address to the Southern Commercial Congress Tuesday morning.

Presidential Election in Mexico Is a Farce

NOT ENOUGH VOTES TO MAKE A CHOICE

Dictator Huerta Purposes to Increase Army Strength to 150,000 Men.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 26.—At the close of the elections to-day the indications were that not sufficient votes had been cast in Mexico to constitute a legal choice for the presidency to succeed General Victoriano Huerta.

No official announcement was made to-night, but it was unofficially estimated, judging from the results in the capital, where it was expected the vote would be up to the average, that less than 10,000 of the 30,000 eligible voters in the Federal district went to the polls. There are said to be more than 3,000,000 eligible voters in the republic.

It would be no surprise if Congress, the members of which also were voted for to-day, declared the elections void when that body is organized and revises the returns.

Huerta Did Not Vote.
The leaders of the Catholic party claimed a long lead, although they were unable to estimate the number of votes polled for their candidates, Frederico Gamboa and General Rascon.

If this claim is correct, it is generally thought that General Felix Diaz and Senor Requena ran second. The Liberal candidates, Manuel Calero and Flores Magnon, had not printed tickets at the polling places, their constituents being obliged to write their names on blank ballots.

President Huerta did not vote. He spent the day at his Tepic suburban home.

Plans to Increase Army.
A decree will be issued by General Huerta to-morrow increasing the army from 85,000 men, its alleged present number, to 150,000. General Huerta proposed such an increase some time ago, but the Congress, which he dissolved, limited him to 90,000.

Since the Deputies and Senators not subject to the election provisions governing the Presidential elections, it is said to-night that the choice for Congress is assured. It is assumed, on the showing so far as known, that the Catholic party will have a majority in both Chamber and Senate.

There was no semblance of disorder in any quarter of the city. A few patriots were on the streets, but neither police nor troops had any but their usual duties to perform.

Polls Are Opened.
The polling places opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and remained open until noon, when the attendants closed the booths until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the midday meal. They were reopened at 3 and closed again at 5 o'clock.

From 3 to 5 o'clock officials, one of whom was designated "president," were in attendance at each polling place. These officials represented the various parties and assisted in the preparation of the ballot when necessary, but offered no coercion or suggestion as to how the applicant should vote.

THAW DECLARED RESPONSIBLE.
ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Attorney General Carmody to-night issued a statement declaring that the outcome of the present proceeding to bring about the return of Harry K. Thaw to this State will demonstrate "whether the law will be vindicated or whether by the lavish and ingenious use of his great wealth Thaw can break down barriers of justice and defeat the law."

"It never was claimed that Thaw at all times is insane or that he was incapable of committing crime," the Attorney General said, and added that "although under the law an insane man is not held responsible for his acts committed while insane, if a man is sufficiently lucid to successfully plan his escape from confinement it is apparent that he knows what he is doing and is legally responsible for his acts."

ACCEPT CHEAPER RATES.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The five principal express companies of the United States to-day notified the Interstate Commerce Commission of their acceptance of cheaper rates and simplified tariffs recently drawn up. "This decision," said commission officials, "means that all the far-reaching reforms determined upon by the commission will be instituted throughout the country. It is believed that the operation of the new rules and by the commission.

KAISER IN VIENNA.
VIENNA, Oct. 25.—Emperor William of Germany arrived here to-day on a visit to Emperor Francis Joseph, who warmly welcomed him at the station. The meeting of the two sovereigns will go far toward checking rumors of coolness between the two countries because of Germany's support of anti-Austrian policies during the Balkan war.

BATTLESHIPS FOR PANAMA.
VIENNA, Oct. 24.—The battleship Erinny has been selected to participate in the naval pageant at the opening of the Panama Canal.

Royal Wedding Plans Are Halted

Grand Duchess Swears She Will Marry Only Man of Her Choice.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—While the betrothal of Grand Duchess Olga, the Czar's eldest daughter, to Prince Charles, son of the Crown Prince of Roumania, has been announced in Roumania, the Grand Duchess' opposition prevents its announcement in Russia. She has sworn to marry nobody but her cousin, Dmitri Pavlovitch, son of Grand Duke Paul, to whom she was secretly betrothed more than a year ago.

The Roumanian match is favored here because it would strengthen Russia's prestige in the Balkans. The Czar is said to be torn between political reasons and his daughter's happiness. He has been accused of planning virtually to sell the girl, and in the same line of policy, another daughter, Princess Titania, to Prince Alexander of Servia.

A Bitter Struggle On Money Reform

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Reconstruction of the administration currency bill begins to-morrow behind closed doors in the Senate Banking Committee. The issue is clearly drawn between the bill as passed by the House and the central bank plan proposed by President Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank, New York.

Whether the administration bill backed by President Wilson's expressed uncompromising opposition to the Vanderlip plan, and renewed support from administration supporters will emerge triumphant from the Senate committee, or whether a middle ground will be found between the two measures, is the next question in the situation. The Senate committee began work with a majority of its members admittedly favoring the Vanderlip idea. Administration supporters, viewing that fact, declare that such a measure could not be passed in the House, and that the committee, therefore, must work with the administration bill as a basis, reserving its fundamentals, if currency legislation is not to be definitely delayed.

NINE WARSHIPS.
NOBOLK, VA., Oct. 25.—The nine American warships which left Hampton Roads yesterday bound to the Mediterranean at a late hour to-night were 216 miles east of Cape Henry. The Wyoming, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, which is heading the squadron here, is to report its position daily to the Navy Department.

President Wilson Greeted by Crowds

On his way to attend the Southern Commercial Congress at Mobile, President Woodrow Wilson spent twenty minutes in Atlanta Sunday. He was greeted by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

Passing for the first time since his election to the Presidency through his native Southland, where at every town and hamlet he was greeted by a sea of faces calling for over so short a speech, the President on all occasions smilingly declined to talk.

At Charlotte, at Spartanburg and Atlanta always his one act was to raise a gently reproving hand to his friends and say: "Any day but this I will speak to you!"

DRY FARMING CONGRESS.
TULSA, OKLA., Oct. 26.—In connection with the soil products exposition, in progress for the last six weeks, the International Dry Farming Congress will open its four-day meeting here to-morrow. At the same time the International Congress of Farm Women, an auxiliary of the dry farming organization, will hold its sessions. The election of officers and the selection of the next convention city will be held on Thursday.

7 FIREMEN DEAD

AND 24 INJURED

Goodyear Rubber Store in Milwaukee Burns—Loss Estimated at $500,000.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., Oct. 25.—Seven dead firemen and 24 injured were taken from the ruins of the store of the Goodyear Rubber Company here to-night in a fire which caused a loss of $500,000. It is believed there are several more bodies in the ruins.

The flames broke out on the second floor, and while the firemen were fighting the blaze from the front and rear, an explosion sent the walls crashing down on 50 firemen. Windows for blocks around were smashed and the flames spread to adjoining buildings. Rescue companies were sent into the blazing mass and the bodies of the dead and injured were taken out.

Practically the entire fighting apparatus of the city was called to the scene, which is in the heart of the business section. Several other firms besides the Goodyear company suffered losses.

TEMPERANCE TARS CHEERED.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Enthusiasm was aroused this afternoon when eight sailors from the United States steamship Washington, receiving ship at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, appeared at the convention of the world's Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Many in the audience rose and cheered.

Mrs. Mary Harris ARMOR, of Georgia, in a ringing speech declared that many persons when they started to run for Congress suddenly discovered just how strong their temperance sympathies were. She told in a general way how the States of Georgia and West Virginia went dry. "The idea of saying that any good man is in the saloon business is hosh," she concluded.

BODIES BURIED UNDER DEBRIS.
DAWSON, N. MEX., Oct. 26.—The bodies of Mine Superintendent William M. McDermott and Henry F. McShane, the young miner from New York, were recovered to-night in the fourth chamber north of mine No. 2 of the Stag Canyon Fuel Company. Both bodies, with sixteen others, were buried under tons of debris.

It is known to-night that not one of the 284 men caught in the explosion remains in the mine alive. Late to-day the entire workings had been explored by helmet men, and it was learned definitely that the bodies not located are buried beneath tons of debris.

The mine to-day remained relatively clear of the "death gas" which heretofore impeded the rescue work.

RYAN ATTACKS SULZER.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—In a statement issued to-night Allan A. Ryan reaffirmed his testimony before the high court of impeachment at Albany concerning his contribution of $10,000 to the Sulzer campaign fund to which the deposed Governor took exception last night in a speech in the Sixth Assembly District.

Regarding Sulzer's story of the telephone conversation preceding the contribution, Ryan declares that Sulzer "is not telling the truth." Ryan makes the same comment regarding Sulzer's denial of Ryan's testimony that the former Governor asked him to intercede with Senator Root, William Barnes, Jr., and others in an effort to have the impeachment stopped.

SNOW COVERS OKLAHOMA.
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Oct. 26.—Snow fell throughout Oklahoma from Saturday midnight to Sunday noon to a depth of from three inches at Bartlesville and one inch in the panhandle to a slight flurry in the southeastern portion of the State. A bitter north wind accompanied the snow. Temperatures are reported near freezing.

In the panhandle section of Texas the snowfall measured two inches, the temperature dropping from 80 degrees to 35 in four hours.

OWE MILLION FOR JEWELS.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Bills aggregating $1,000,000 for jewelry charged against enlisted men of the army have been forwarded to the War Department by a large instatement jewelry concern on the Pacific Coast, with an appeal for Uncle Sam's aid in collecting the indebtedness. The department has declined to act as collector, and the creditors' only recourse is to proceed against the individual soldiers.

ROOSEVELT LEAVES RIO.
RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 25.—Theodore Roosevelt left Rio de Janeiro at 8 o'clock this evening by a special train for Sao Paulo. The party was accompanied to the train by a representative of President Fonseca, by all the ministers, the diplomatic corps, members of Parliament and high officials. The crowds cheered the departing visitors.

RESTFUL DAY FOR SPEER.
MOUNT AIRY, GA., Oct. 26.—Federal Judge Emory Speer, of the Southern District of Georgia, who has been very critically ill at his summer home here, passed a quiet and restful day and seems to be improving. His family is very much encouraged with his present condition.

U.S. Has Put End to Conquest, Says Wilson

WON'T SEEK ANY NEW TERRITORY

President Declares Government's Policy Is to Foster Friendly Relations With Neighbors.

MOBILE, Oct. 27.—"I want to take this occasion to say that the United States will never again seek another foot of territory on this continent by conquest," declared President Wilson in a stirring address on Latin-American relations before the Southern Commercial Congress to-day.

"I come because I want to speak of our present and prospective relations with our neighbors to the south, the Latin-American states," said President Wilson in opening his address.

"The opening of the isthmus of Panama will open the world to the south," he said, "and the Latin-American states which have been off the main lines will now be on the main lines."

Hit by Hard Bargains.
"You hear of concessions to foreign capital in Latin-America; that concessions are not granted in the United States; that when capital comes it comes invited but is not privileged. The Latin-American states have had harder bargains driven with them than any other place in the world."

The President said that the United States is trying to deal with the Latin-American states in terms of equality and honor and that the State Department is now trying to deal with them in a new spirit. The developments of constitutional liberty in the world was his dearest aim, he declared.

"America is a synonym for individual," he said, "do not think that the questions of the day are mere questions of expediency. We will never condone inequality because it is convenient to do so."

Currency for Farmers.
A currency system for farmers was pledged for the administration by Senator Fletcher, of Florida, in his address before the congress. Senator Fletcher said that he spoke for President Wilson, who has said, "We know that President Wilson does not indulge in id' talk, and by that sign we are assured that legislation providing a plan which will serve the financial needs of the farmers of the country will in due time take its place on the statute books."

The prominence given to the needs of the tillers of the soil at the Commercial Congress was in marked contrast with the national agitation involving the country over the currency reform measure now before the Federal Congress, in which the farmer has had no part.

Fletcher Quotes Wilson.
After touching upon the great accomplishment of the Southern Commercial Congress, in particular its commission to investigate rural credit abroad, Senator Fletcher referred to President Wilson's utterance on this subject in August when he said, "Special machinery and a distinct system of banking must be provided if rural credits are to be successfully and adequately supplied. This is our next greatest task."

While going through these dances Mrs. Hennick wears the most diaphanous Greek robes, with sandals on her bare feet. She depends entirely upon the stimulated circulation of her blood to keep her warm.

Mrs. Hennick, who is the leader in all things artistic in Washington society, has many apostles, who are also using or having fitted up open-air dancing pavilions. Mrs. Hennick and her cult savor to dance the tango and modern dances, but take their poses from the Persians and ancient Greeks.

All Congressmen to 'Chip In' for Gift to White House Bride

Minority Leader Mann voted the universal good wishes of the members of the House of Representatives toward Miss Wilson. He proposed that the members "chip in" and send a substantial wedding gift to her. His proposal was taken up with acclaim, and Speaker Clark announced that he would appoint a committee to arrange the details. The gift will probably be a pearl necklace.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Miss Gertrude Bryan, late star of "Little Boy Blue," has just been married to Charles Fair. Mr. Fair is said to be wealthy in his own right and is the son of Robert M. Fair, of Chicago, a retired member of the Marshall Field Company. The ceremony took place at Red Bank, N. J.

The bride was given away by her cousin, Joseph McDermott, clerk of Monmouth County. Following the ceremony a reception was held, after which the couple left for a three months' honeymoon trip to the West Indies. On their return they will reside at Oyster Bay.

WOMEN AID HOBSON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Despite her protests, conveyed through her brother, that her health would not permit her to serve, Countess Rosalind of Carlisle, of York, England, was to-day re-elected president of the world Women's Christian Temperance Union for a period of three years.

Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, who is a candidate for United States Senator from Alabama, was elected a lifelong member of the C. T. U. and $100 was voted to help his candidacy because of his hostility to rum.

MRS. KING TO TELL STORY TO JURORS

She Sheds Tears in Court When Greeted by Her Three Children.

MACON, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Katherine King probably will know early to-morrow afternoon whether or not she shall be punished for alleged complicity in the murder of her husband. This afternoon she will go on the stand and tell the jurors her own story. She declares that she will not spare herself on the stand, but tell all of the details so far as they affect her.

The trial of Mrs. King began this morning before a courtroom only half filled with spectators. There were less people present than at the trial of Nick Wilburn, who committed the murder and who has been sentenced to hang.

Mrs. King entered the courtroom through the "grille of sighs" which connects with the jail. She found three of her children waiting for her and she affectionately and tearfully clasped and fondled them. The children were not allowed to stay in the courtroom.

Only Eleven Jurors.
The panel of jurymen was exhausted in seeking to obtain twelve unprejudiced men, and when eleven jurors had been selected to sit on the case Judge Park ordered the Sheriff to summon other veniremen. However, the attorneys agreed to proceed with the eleven jurors and the trial began about 10:30 o'clock.

Three witnesses were examined during the morning session. Dr. C. A. White being the first. He swore principally to being asked during the summer of 1912 by Mrs. King for a quantity of strychnine. J. P. Gordon, brother-in-law of James King, the murdered man, testified to finding King's body and also swore to the intimacy between Mrs. King and Wilburn. The testimony of Jesse Barber, a negro, was along the same line.

Market Quotations For Week Ending October 28, 1913

REVIEW OF COTTON MARKET

The bulls succeeded in boosting the price of future contracts to new high levels during the past week. Frequent temperatures over the cotton belt, followed by heavy rains, causing serious injury to the crop, not only damaged the hull, but lowering the grade as well, was given its explanation for the fresh covering by shorts and for new bullish activity, and before the frenzy of buying was ended the market was up about $1.50 a bale, as compared with the closing quotations of last Tuesday.

However, there were no signs of a revival of public interest or any buying of consequence by spinning interests, and it looks like a dreary repetition of professional in-and-out trading for the present. It is plain that neither speculators nor spinners will buy contracts at 14c. Some of the most conservative operators assert that 14c is too high for the staple under existing conditions and that spinners will not buy, for except immediate needs, around that level.

The technical position of the market was very much improved by general liquidation by disappointed longs who had bought on the recent break, but there was little difficulty in sustaining values around the season's high level.

Friday the market was rather weak, being under general liquidation and there was absence of support in anticipation of a bearish ginning report. Encouraged by the lack of relative power the market displayed, bears sold with confidence throughout the day while tired longs who had bought near the top sold. The only buying came from shorts. Liverpool gave the cue for lower prices by adding declines in both futures and spots. It looked as if everybody was loaded, with cotton and was waiting for something else to put prices up. Usually in such cases the market takes a dip and it did. Longs did not want to stay in over the ginning report and traders sold the list on technical grounds, thinking the market was overbought. The bull leaders showed no disposition to support the list, preferring to wait on the report.

The ginning report showed 6,859,583 bales ginned to October 18 this year compared with 6,889,322 bales during the corresponding period last year. In other words, they represented the second largest ginning report in the history of the market.

The report looked bearish—very bearish, but after considerable discussion in conservative quarters they suddenly turned bullish on account of the unfavorable weather, which has not only cut the prospects of a large crop, but lowered the grade to an extent that thousands of bales are unsalable. This, together with the belief that returns will from now on show a falling off, offset the bearish complexion of the report. There was considerable liquidation on long account in anticipation of the ginner's report to be around 7,000,000 bales, and hence the market was in a healthy position to respond to bullish developments. Shortly after the report came out the government predicted unsettled conditions over the western belt, followed by much lower temperatures over Sunday, and bulls at once started to bid the market up on shorts, who scrambled to get under cover. Before the buying was checked, January New Orleans sold as high as 13.95, or 22 points over the low opening. The New York market acted accordingly and closed 14 to 25 points higher than the previous year.

One of the rumors that played on the nerves of shorts was that it was snowing in Oklahoma. There was a general shaking of heads over this fresh disaster and everybody predicted that the market would take another big jump Monday should weather news materialize over Sunday.

The list did not jump Monday, but weather news of Saturday certainly did materialize. Oklahoma reported killing frost and snow in many sections of the State. Texas was given a heavy soaking, as well as the Central States. The news was bullish, but the market wouldn't "bull" except December made a new high mark by advancing to 14.12, against 14.10, the opening quotation, and January sold at 13.85, 2 points over the previous high level for the season. Try as they would, the leaders of the bull movement could not lift the list higher. As they had everything in their favor, the only explanation was that the market lacked buying power. There unquestionably was an avalanche of selling orders—short selling, liquidation by longs and straddle selling. Neither reports of snow, frost nor rains on top of all this could induce the market to open the gain in the face of the government's weekly forecast, predicting another bad spell of weather during the week. Later in the day, when the selling movement was at its height, shorts began to cover, followed by active buying by spot houses and some of the leading bulls, based mainly on the rumor that Pell & Co. had estimated the cotton crop at 13,600,000 bales, without interest. This resulted in the list closing a few points higher than the initial low levels.

While reports from the eastern belt are contradictory, there seems to be little doubt that frost has done great damage—even if it hasn't destroyed all hopes of a top-crop. It was conceded even before the cold wave came that the western belt would make but little more than had already been made, so that unless reports are gross out or gross in, the question is, the likelihood of material additions to the crop as it stands. The question is, how large is it? On this point there is bound to be wide difference of opinion for the next few weeks. Ginning returns give a line on what is available for spinners. Meanwhile, there is a tendency to reduce crop estimates. On the other hand, the bear element seems inclined to discount extreme damage by unfavorable weather conditions, and are still confident that the ultimate returns will exceed 14,000,000 bales, if not more.

Farmers are selling their cotton freely at full basis. It was reported that some old cotton men have advised them to hold on to what staple they have for 10c. Reporters find it difficult to buy good grades, except at premiums. One of the most bullish developments recently has been the relative strengthening of the Atlanta spot market, which is accounted for by the fact that many prominent buyers have transferred the scene of their operations from Texas and Oklahoma to the eastern belt, which has recently been reported good grades at much cheaper basis than the same class of cotton could be bought in the western states.

Picking is being resumed everywhere, weather permitting, but conditions have not been so good for the past few weeks, and it is generally believed that the next government report will show a marked falling off in ginnings.

TUESDAY'S REVIEW.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The opening of the cotton market to-day was barely steady, being under general selling by the ring on Cordell's report, which was construed as bearish; in fact, it was bearish on the crop, but bullish on grade. First prices were at net decline of 4 to 8 points on near months and 13 to 15 points on distant positions.

Despite the unfavorable weather in a large portion of the belt, the list was kept under pressure by the bear element, who were pushing the decline, and at the end of the first half hour the list had widened its decline some 13 to 18 points. The map showed rains having been general in practically all over the area east of the Mississippi River and front in the Central and Eastern States and considerable information came to the effect that the proportion of low grades were increasing throughout the belt. On top of this weather experts predict more rains and general freeze in the weather during the next few days.

There was evidence of good support developing when the market reached 14.00 for October and 13.75 for January. Wires told of a disturbance off the Texas coast over northwest Texas, which was likely to move eastward and cause increasing southerly shifting to bring high northerly winds and much lower temperatures by Wednesday. There was also many bullish crop estimates, all being under 14,000,000 bales. It took very little buying to get the market to check the decline and prices during the forenoon stood about 3 points over the opening, except near positions, which was unchanged from the initial figure. The value of business was rather light.

The market was very dull during the early afternoon. Prices, however, were held steady at a sharp decline. A sale of 16,000 bales of January at 13.64, probably for a German account, attracted some attention, but was easily taken by leading bulls. The report from Mr. Cordell came as a surprise in view of the preceding doleful account of it. This report was the reactionary spirit lately manifested here and accounted for the revival of the bearish feeling for the revival of the market has apparently gotten in a rut, but underlying factors are extremely bullish and old cotton men are advising the purchase of contracts on all recessions.

COTTON GOSSIP

Bulls were inactive at the start to-day and the bears hammered heavily, trying to push the decline further. "I think this decline in cotton offers great opportunities for investment," remarked S. R. Tate, "and I favor selling January and March on the buying May, spreading the difference." It is rumored that Neil of London, estimates the cotton crop at 13,600,000 bales and that the consumption an estimate at 14,500,000 bales. The New Orleans Times-Democrat says: "A one-sided market is the nerves of everybody. It is not fully obvious that cotton is in a fair way to bull itself, consequently the long-horned herd is overcrowded. For this reason speculative sellers are few and far between, and the market suffers from lack of enterprise. Both talent and trade are convinced the South has produced less cotton from the growth of 1913 than the surplus of the world would require between September 1, 1913, and August 31, 1914, and all anticipate very high prices and a very high spot basis on desirable cotton a little later on." "As a matter of fact," say many merchants report they can now sell unlimed quantities of fully middling and better for delivery on January and beyond at a very much higher basis than now.

"Woe EASYTES"

Text: "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the Mountain of Samaria..."

We'll bear the toil, endure the pain. Supported by Thy word. It is not in God's plan for the Christian to be carried to the skies on flower beds...

It would be unwise in such a short space to attempt to speak of the use and abuse of music, and yet the place is so opportune to make a few remarks that we can not resist the temptation...

Procrastinate and woe, as it is now, a terrible sin. To be persuaded that a course is right and then fail to pursue it, or to know it to be wrong and persist in walking therein, is sin...

"Be sure your sin will find you out" is a twentieth century fact just as it is an old dispensation truth. Peter foresaw the day that scoffers should appear walking in their own lusts and teaching that men should be far off. First experience tells us that human nature is constituted that the day of evil is pushed far away into the background...

"The mills of God grind slowly, yet they grind exceeding fine; Tho' with patience He stands halting, with exactness grinds He all."

When a boy was taught that the fourth commandment was "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," when situated the matter for myself I reached the conclusion that such was only half of it, and that the other half was of tremendous importance...

Idleness leads to self-ease, gluttony, weakness, sin. The hardy soldier is no epicure. The profound thinker and statesman has no sinecure's place. The producer has no easy time. The worker finds no place of the midst of the stall.

Christian men who tell you in discussing the problems of our cities that the segregated vice districts are essential, that they are necessary evils. But in the name of reason and common humanity could you feel them essential and know that your daughter or your sister had to dwell in such districts?

Two Orders. Business Manager--Well, how many orders did you get yesterday? Healer--I got two orders in one place. B. M.--That's the stuff! What were they? Healer--One was to get out, and the other was to stay out.

These people had not only been guilty of drunkenness, they had used bowls instead of cups--small quantities had ceased to satisfy them, and their base appetites craved more and more. Sam Jones used to say that some fellows who had quit drinking would go around boasting of the fact and feel that they deserved a chronophore for stopping when, in reality, they should have had a hundred ladies on their backs for drinking.

Men, and Christian men, to-day with all of our experience and enlightenment will say that a man is a clever fellow, but he will drink too much sometimes and abuse his wife and children. Now a saved man couldn't say such. A drunkard is not clever, he is a fool and a lost sinner, and instead of praising him for his cleverness he should be prayed for as a sinner.

In traveling over Georgia I am impressed by the large number of boys and girls who have not adequate school facilities. Give me the money spent in only county for liquor. It is that which debauches and vitiates men, and I will put an adequate education in reach of every boy and girl who is seeking after knowledge.

You have but to open your eyes and look around to see what and deplorable and demoralizing an every side. Give me one year's whisky bill and I will care for the helpless ones of our land for the next five years and they will be adequately provided for, and their every physical want met.

The night has passed, the dawn of a greater day upon us. Let us wake from our sleep of apathy and indifference and put forth our best efforts to remove some of the causes of evil from our homes, our churches, our nation. Confession is essential. We have been asleep. Duty has called and we have not responded. When next heard the Macedonian call, represented all the nations and peoples of the Western World. The Macedonian man was your representative and mine. Paul responded to his appeal. We should respond to the appeal of the dying, needy ones of earth to-day, and do with our might what our hands find to do, realizing that God is going to judge us according to the deeds committed in the flesh, and reward each one according to his work. There is no easy place in the cross it was hard for Christ. From the baptismal waters to the swell of Jordan our paths will be hard, but our great High Priest walked it before us and has promised to be with us always and will walk with us and lead us gently by the hand, and at last come and take us to Himself, that where he is there we may also be with Him for ever and ever.

Good Manners. She was gowned in a severely plain tailored costume and assumed other mannish freaks in her dress. An old lady who was very near-sighted entered the street car. The manish girl waited a moment, but as no man signified his willingness to give up his seat, she rose and gave hers to the old woman. "Thank you, sir," said the other, in grateful acknowledgment. "You are the only gentleman in the car."
