ALLEGED "DIPS" NABBED AT WINEGROFF OPENING

Quartet of Suspects Trapped in Spectacular Manner by Amateur Slauth

The spectacular capture of three alleged monopolists with a fourth escaped, followed the sensational opening of the new Hotel "Winegroff" situated on a corner, which the management did not anticipate or reckon, and incidentally it frightened several millionaires and created a stir about the hotel that was not quieted until after the city police had removed themselves and their prisoners to headquarters.

D. B. Gilbert, a St. Louisan and partner in the Hotel, the American representative for the capture of the men. In Mason recently, he says, he lost $100 from his pockets on a crowded street car. "At the Winegroff Thursday night he recognized the men, he says, as the quartet who had looted him in St. Louis when he lost his money there. He notified the management, and word that numerous complaints already had been made of pockets having been picked in the hotel. The police were called upon for assistance, and Mr. Gilbert started through the hotel to locate the men again. Plain Clothes Officers Mason and Malone were assigned to work with him, and were stationed on the third floor of the hotel.

NABBED BY ELEVATOR. Gilbert found his men on the fourth floor. He followed them to the elevator and entered it with them. He whispered to the elevator boy, "If I fall out, now. A moment later, the car halted, started, he said aloud, "That's an emergency door. These men are pickpockets. Don't let anybody out."

Three fashionably attired women who had been in the elevator with the party entered by the excitement of the moment. "Let us out!" they screamed. "Get us out of here!"

"Just a moment," said Mr. Gilbert. "We want to hand these men over to the police. Nobody will be hurt."

When the door was opened on the third floor, officers Mason and Malone were waiting. The suspected quartet made a run through the open door, but Gilbert caught two of them, and Mr. Gilbert caught a third. The fourth escaped, according to the statement and entering the first door, where he disappeared in the crowd.

At the three men and their prisoners reached the lobby, Mr. Gilbert looked free from his captor, Officer Malone, and ran through the crowd. He was captured just outside of the street door.

STENT MONEY TO MOTHEN. At police headquarters the three prisoners were named W. M. Kessler, age forty-eight, of Birmingham; H. J. Kessler, age thirty-eight, of St. Louis; and H. E. Bernard, of Louisville. Bernard appeared to be not more than twenty-four years old. In his pocket was found a money order receipt for $100.00, payable to Mrs. J. P. Frankenburg, at a New York address. It was assumed from his appearance and the receipt was found that this is his mother's name.

The detectives' search of the prison or development made it clear that the valuable stones from false pockets in their clothes. They already had taken to a number of these pockets during the past ten days or so at various places called at police headquarters on Friday in endeavors to identify the prisoners as their pockets. One had lost a pocketbook with $100 in it; another lost a diamond stud, either because he had it or he had it on him positively. See page 20C to 20E.

SEARCH FOR GIRL. Meanwhile the Atlanta officers are searching for the one who escaped and who was captured when the capture was made and for a young girl, whose presence in the city and complicity with the men was indicated by letters found in their pockets.

Several people who claimed to have lost valuables from their pockets during the past ten days or so at various places called at police headquarters on Friday in endeavors to identify the prisoners as their pockets. One had lost a pocketbook with $100 in it; another lost a diamond stud, either because he had it or he had it on him positively. See page 20C to 20E.

NEW SECRETARIES FOR OFFICIALS AT CAPITOL

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES

--BY POP

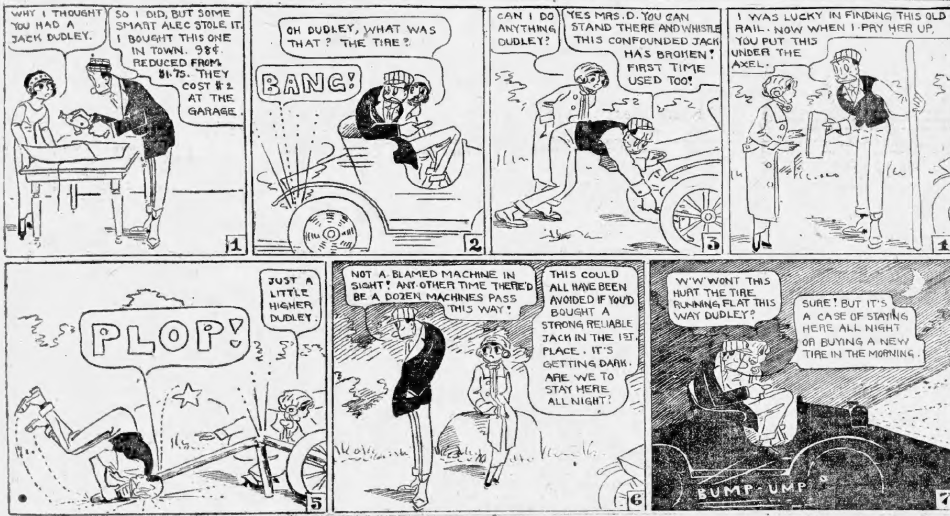

Lord Ballyrot in Slangland

One day on a business thoroughfare, I was attracted to a spot where a crowd of persons were curiously gazing upon a suitcase, which lay on the sidewalk. Its owner, apparently, was unknown. I stooped to examine the tag on the handle, when I was ordered back by a police officer who roared hoarsely: "Back up! Don't wind your eye around the handle on that suitcase! How do you know it ain't full of dynamite? Maybe it's loaded with Russian Nobilit grapefruit and Sylvia Pankhurst biscuit. Don't you dare monkey with that suitcase. I'm going to smack it in a bathtub before trying to risk the grip. My word!"

RAILROADS ARE UPHELD IN MILEAGE BOOK CASE

Commerce Commission Sustains Ruling Coupons Must Be Exchanged for Tickets

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The rule of interchangeable mileage books with the requirement that they be exchanged for tickets before a journey is begun, was held by the interstate commerce commission today to be neither discriminatory nor in violation of the law.

The decision was reached in a proceeding prompted by a complaint of the railroad commission of South Carolina directed against the practice of the Southern railway and other roads operating in the south, which requires that mileage book be exchanged for tickets instead of being used direct for check-trains.

The legislature of South Carolina passed an act requiring railroad companies operating in that state to issue coupon form mileage books on trains for transportation and for the checking of baggage.

A similar act passed by the Georgia legislature was vetoed by the governor. The railroad thereupon adopted a regulation that coupons from mileage books would not be accepted in exchange for a ticket for a journey wholly within the state of South Carolina.

A new form of mileage book was issued for transportation and for check-trains. The state authorities complained to the commission that this South Carolina law was being discriminated against.

In its decision, however, the commission holds that the complaint was based upon a desire to secure discriminatory advantages. In the holder of such coupons are caused to travelers by the use of the mile-exchange books can be removed only by increased efficiency in station operation.

(By Associated Press.) PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 31.—Through the medium of newspapers, Miss Tessie Michael, who has been working as a housekeeper in a lodging house here for more than three years, was reported to be the daughter of a wealthy family.

The state authorities complained to the commission that this South Carolina law was being discriminated against. In the holder of such coupons are caused to travelers by the use of the mile-exchange books can be removed only by increased efficiency in station operation.

(By Associated Press.) A motion for a new trial has been entered and the further action of the court will depend on the result of the hearing. If the motion is overruled an appeal will be taken.

ANOTHER WOMAN WINS FEDERAL APPOINTMENT

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Women in environmental affairs scored another victory today when Mrs. Crystal Eastman Handlett, a leading suffragette of Wisconsin and New York, was added to the staff of the new federal industrial commission, which is about to take up a study of the causes for unemployment in the United States.

Mrs. Handlett was named because of her knowledge of the local side of industrial questions. Mrs. J. Gordon Fitzpatrick, of New York, the only woman member of the commission, has announced her intention of leaving in Washington during the winter in order to be in close touch with the work she has been appointed by Chairman Frank Taylor to assist in his plans as resident commissioner when he goes to be appointed to be absent.

Dockstader-Primrose Performance
Delights Packed Audience
Thursday Night--They Are "All There" and Then Some

Your old-fashioned theatergoer who recalls "the good old days" and bemoans the change from the shadow plays of bygone years to the shadowless display of suggestive sensationalism of the present age...

There are no remarkable innovations in the show, no desperate attempts to win applause by the unusual and the novel...

While Prinrose and Dockstader's minstrel smack at times of the vaudeville William in that many of the show's features were at one time in the same street that makes the Atlanta show terrible odds rather than detracts to what may be deemed up as an ideal minstrel show.

Prinrose and Dockstader themselves were welcomed Thursday night by many old friends...

And George Prinrose? George is something like that old bird of Tennessee.
And not only does he go on for years, apparently, but his show appears to be as enjoyable and pleasing as it was on his first season of the stream.

George Prinrose has made something out of a classic, and although "his barber" possibly that George has about a foot as actively as he did fifteen years back, yet to many in Thursday night's audience it seemed as if that graceful dancer boy and the circus dancer...

The first act of Prinrose & Dockstader's minstrel show is typical of the old-fashioned minstrel. "Happy Jack" Lambert is the prominent feature of the act, and as in Tom Brown. Even the interloper, generally a rather good singer, and a minstrel show, in the person of Harry Stevens assumes prominence.

Four stars, Edna Walker, Mervyn and Starr, were excruciatingly lively in their burlesque on a country band playing its first night. The grotesque things they did with their mouths and their hands, and the audience writhing in chuckles. Another good feature was Tom Brown and his excellent sextet, once a popular vaudeville act, and an ideal number for a minstrel show.

All the valets were good, and blended perfectly in the old home song and the popular rags and ballads of the day.
From grand opera to the best of comic songs their repertoire ran the gamut, and everybody went home with "Tennesses Mour" humming through their heads.

It was a great show, such a show as can be found only where two such jovial fellows as Prinrose and Dockstader are together. Come back, Lew! Come back, George! You'll always find a welcome at Atlanta's front show. We like you and we like your show.

Prinrose & Dockstader's show will be seen at the Atlanta again on Friday night, Saturday matinee and Saturday night. This is the longest engagement they will play in any southern city.

ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

A Fine Array of Union Suits
Junior Department---Third Floor

It may be that we give more specialized attention to Junior Suits that do most stores; it may be that we go to smarter makers; the fact is that the Junior Suits we have gathered here seem a bit more for the money than is usually found.

It begins to show in suits at $15.00.
As sturdy as they can be made--the materials are oftenest Scotch mixture weaves--they are along trim lines, plain, unadorned, youthful in line;
such suits that wear and wear and look well all the while.

School-going girls could hardly be better suited.
Then come the novelties at $19.75, $21.75, $25.00, up to those at $40.00 that are much like those little Miss Paris likes.

These are serges, corduroys, velvets, Scotch weaves, with coats that are cutaways, or blouses with wide sashes, or back belts and with trimmings in the form of vestees, and Oriental embroideries, with skirts draped smartly and gracefully.

It would seem there is a suit for every Junior Miss of Atlanta.

These Are The Junior Coats That Are "Taking"

Bright, attractive in fabric, in line, in trimming.
Hosts of them, to meet all requirements.
School coats, luxurious limousine coats. Boucles, zibelines, chinchillas, cloths, velvets. Three-quarter lengths, often with a belt that is placed-- by a smarter than the usual maker--very low.

Sport Coats that brighten the football crowds.
It's a showing of coats meant to settle happily the coat question of all who turn to it.

Prices go gradually--for these--from $7.50 through $8.75, $10.00 to $35.00.

WASH DRESSES
At 98c At 49c

Sizes six to fourteen years.
See them then compare them with those you have bought at $1.25.
The gingham, the trimmings, the stitching, the whole "get up."
We pause while you turn those $1.25 ones over in your mind.

Wonderful values!
One marvel at the neatness with which they are made. And they are priced at 49c.

An Infants' Store That Is Full Grown

If anything for the baby is left out, we wonder what it is!
As one fond mother expressed it the other day "It is such a pleasure to shop here."

Mothers find we have been just as anxious to get pretty things for the little dear as even they could.
Let's begin with THE BONNETS AND CAPS. Bonnets of velvets and corduroys, soft little frames for chubby, cherry faces, in black and colors, with "heaps" of ribbons, and white faille bonnets. These at $1.25 to $6.50.

Machine made caps at 50c to $3.50, fixed up with dainty laces and rosettes; then come those of faille and crepe de chine, with hand-work making them even prettier, at $1.25 to $3.50.

The hand-made Caps (French) are priced from $1.25 to $6.00.
Infants' mittens, 20c to 75c.
Infants' booties, 15c to $1.50. Oh, so warm!
Crochet sacques, many novel ideas here, 35c to $5.00.

Wrappers of cashmere and silk begin at $2.00 and go to $10.00.
Flannellette wrappers are 50c to $1.00.
Infants' cashmere, silk and Bedford cord Coats, long and short, begin at $3.00 and do not let up until the daintiest hand-embroidered, silk-lined affair at $25.00 is reached.

New dresses, long and short, machine and hand-made, will greet you tomorrow; these priced from 50c to $25.00.

NEW!
$2.00 W. B. Corsets $1.69
$1.50 W. B. Corsets $1.00
Note the word new.
The corsets are fresh from the factory this week.
But seeing them will prove this.
Women who have ever worn a W. B. Corset need not be told its virtues.
There are many.
But they will see more in these new models.
Medium low bust, lace and embroidery trimmed, extra long skirt, six hose supporters, free hips.
Coutils are the materials; heavier in the $1.69 corset.
How can we sell them under price?
We are!

Brassieres 25c Cutting Gloves 50c to $1.50 Splendid values, seldom to be had at such a price. Yoke neatly trimmed with embroidery.

DIVIDEND PRIZES

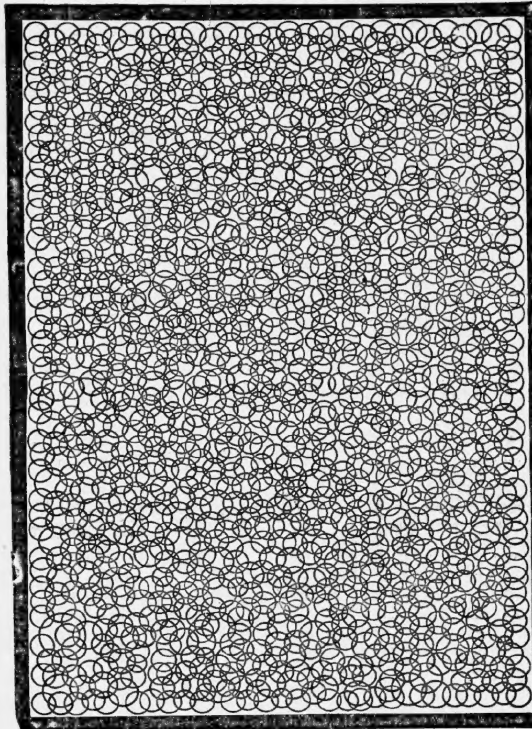

MAKE THEM WORTH

WHAT YOU PLEASE

THE CIRCLE PUZZLE

The Problem

The problem is to count the circles. Every circle is complete and intersects or touches one or more other circles. There are no parts of circles or shams or deceptions of any sort in the puzzle. In the event that no one counts the exact number the prizes will be awarded for the nearest correct solutions. Accuracy and patience are the main requisites for arriving at the correct or nearest count. Those who display these qualifications to the best advantage will solve the puzzle best.

Deciding Ties

In case of ties, a second puzzle will be presented. This puzzle will be practicable and solvable. Only those tied will be permitted to solve puzzle No. 2. No money will have to accompany the solution. The second puzzle will be printed but twice, and those tied will have a week in which to solve it. Mail subscribers at a distance, if tied, will be allowed a week from the time they receive the second puzzle, the time to be determined by postmarks.

In case of other ties, a third puzzle, also perfectly solvable, will be presented. It will be subject to the same conditions as the second. The second and third puzzles will only be used in case of a tie. Their purpose will be merely to decide ties, so that in the event there is a tie, the prizes will be awarded without having to divide them, or without resorting to chance.

However, only three puzzles will be presented, and in the seemingly impossible event of still another tie, the prizes tied for will be equally divided between those tying.

If there are no ties, there will be only one puzzle.

No prizes will be distributed until the contest is finally decided.

Special Conditions

Should there be any ties, as many prizes will be reserved as there are people tied before any prizes are awarded to those sending less correct solutions. That is, if two people tied on the absolutely correct answer, they would have to solve the second puzzle to determine which was entitled to the first prize and which to the second prize. Then the one who sent the next best answer to the first puzzle would be entitled to the third prize. This rule will apply generally.

While the winning of a prize does not depend upon the time the solution was registered, the puzzle is more or less elusive, and the best thing to do is to begin counting at once. Send in your solution, and if you find later you have made a mistake, send in another. There is no limit to the number of different solutions that may be registered.

All those entering the contest will, as a condition, be required to abide by the ruling of the Contest Manager. In the event of any questions arising, the Contest Manager, if he deems it wise, may appoint a committee to assist him in deciding them, and those entering the contest do so with the understanding that such decision is final.

How to Enter

This contest is restricted to people residing in the states of Georgia, Alabama, North and South Carolina, Florida and Mississippi.

A payment on subscription to The Atlanta Journal of from $1.10 to $4.40 for the Daily and Sunday edition, or from $1.65 to $6.60 for the Semi-Weekly edition of The Journal, entitles a contestant to submit a solution of the puzzle. The amount of money paid will cover the subscription price for the paper, according to the regular rate, whether by delivery or by mail.

AS MANY DIFFERENT SOLUTIONS MAY BE SUBMITTED AS THE CONTESTANT DESIRES, UPON SUBMITTING AN ADDITIONAL PAYMENT WITH EACH ONE, BUT NOT MORE THAN $5.00 CAN BE PAID WITH ANY ONE SOLUTION.

It is not necessary to pay the same amount with each solution if more than one be submitted. As the main prizes have an added value according to what is paid on subscription with the winning solution, contestants should familiarize themselves with the dividend schedule before sending in their subscription and solution.

Remit by check, money order, registered letter or in one or two-cent stamps. Solutions unaccompanied by each subscription will not be registered. The contest is open to both old and new subscribers within the territory designated.

Whatever is paid, whether on one or a number of solutions, will apply on a continuous subscription to The Atlanta Journal. No one associated with The Journal in any way will be allowed to enter this contest.

SERIOUS CATARRH YIELDS TO HYOMEL

Be wise in time and use Hyomel at the first warning of catarrh. Do not let the disease extend along the delicate mucous membrane, gradually going from the nose to the throat, thence into the bronchial tubes, and downward until the lungs are reached and you are in danger of consumption.

Hyomel will effectively relieve all curable forms and stages of catarrh. It is an uniformly successful remedy that is always sold on money back if not benefited plan.

There is no other treatment for catarrh that will cure it as quickly and just as good. None can take its place, none give such quick and sure relief and do so little cost. This treatment is breathed through a pocket inhaler that comes with every original outfit, thus reaching the most remote cells of the air passages, killing the catarrhal germ and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane.

Begin the use of Hyomel today and you will soon find that the offensive breath, the droppings into the throat, the discharge from the nose, sniffing and all other symptoms of catarrh, are overcome. The complete outfit containing inhaler and bottle of liquid costs but $1.25. Extra bottles of liquid, if later needed, 50 cents by druggists everywhere.—(A-17.)

RURAL CREDITS

VII. THE RAIFFAISEN SYSTEM

By Frederick J. Harkin

In 1848 there was a season of distressfully hard times in Germany. The heart of Frederick Wilhelm Raiffeisen beat with pity for the poor of Co-

Following year he organized at Eschenau a loan society for the support of the impoverished farmers, its members being rich philanthropists who sold cattle to mortgaged farmers at easy rates.

We can see the development of the idea—then a charity organization to relieve distress; followed by a philanthropic organization to assist the farmer to get back upon his feet; and then an organization of farmers helping themselves and making themselves independent.

In launching his system of farmers' banks Raiffeisen kept the moral aspect constantly before him.

With his system based upon honesty and charity Raiffeisen discovered a new source of credit—his credit being based upon the honesty of the farmer and his thriftiness.
