At Eleventh Hour, Mayor Issues Another Statement Scoring Committee or Election Arrangements

Although there was considerable interest in the city primary Tuesday on account of three hotly contended Aldermanic races and several lively contests for councilmen, the vote during the afternoon falling upon the voters, the polls as a whole were not another rush, which will swell the total number of ballots cast.

WOODWARD'S ATTITUDE

Special attention has been attracted to the primary because of the fact that Mayor Woodward is openly supporting certain candidates and opposing others; because the ministers of several local churches touched upon the political aspect of the election; and because the Mayor's attitude has been interpreted as favoring an "open town." The Mayor's attitude has been interpreted as favoring an "open town." The Mayor's attitude has been interpreted as favoring an "open town."

CRAWFORD CASE MAY BE ACTED ON NEXT WEEK

Famous Suit Sure to Be Among First Which Grand Jury Will Consider

During the next week it is probable that the Fulton county grand jury will take some action in the case of Mary Belle Crawford, who is charged by a justice court warrant with the murder in 1910 of her good husband, Joshua B. Crawford, wealthy and prominent Atlanta.

The grand jury was anxious to dispose of all of the pending business possible, and the foreman has especially named the Crawford case to E. A. Stephens, the assistant to the superior court. Judge W. P. Stephens on Tuesday stated to Judge W. D. Ellis, of the superior court, that the grand jury was anxious to hear the evidence in the Crawford case and to dispose of the bill pending against her. Therefore the matter will be brought before the grand jury some attorney will have to be appointed to act as prosecutor, general, as Solicitor Dorsey is disqualified.

Solicitor Reid, of the Stone Mountain circuit, was named to act in the Crawford case. It is now that he will be appointed judge of the Stone Mountain circuit to succeed Judge Reid. He will be appointed to handle the Crawford case as prosecutor.

It is expected that Judge Ellis, following his conference with the assistant solicitor, will appoint Colonel George M. Napier, who is the named solicitor of the Stone Mountain circuit to succeed Mr. Reid, to act in the Crawford matter. It is hardly probable that the case could reach the grand jury by its next meeting.

Following his conference with the assistant solicitor, will appoint Colonel George M. Napier, who is the named solicitor of the Stone Mountain circuit to succeed Mr. Reid, to act in the Crawford matter.

GEORGIANS WILL OTE DOWN COTTON FUTURES

Delegations From This State and South Carolina to Oppose Tax

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 29.—The Georgia and South Carolina delegations in the house decided unanimously this morning to oppose a tax on cotton futures. The Georgia delegation is in any form when the question comes up on the first of strength at 4:30 this afternoon. Each delegation led a caucus in the lobby of the house immediately after the conference on the tariff bill was taken up for consideration. Under an agreement the cotton futures matter will not be touched until later in the day.

The parliamentary status of cotton futures is such as to justify and expedite an adverse vote on the first test of strength. If congressmen opposed to the Clarke amendment want to maintain its defeat. The first test will come on a motion to recommit the house conference report to the Clarke amendment. If this carries, the test will come on a motion to concur in the Clarke amendment. By voting against the motion to recommit the Georgia and South Carolina hope to hold the question back to conference. The senate will confer in the afternoon and the whole question will be dead for the present.

It was decided by the Georgia and South Carolina delegations that in the event of their meeting defeat in their attempt to prevent the house from receding, they shall vote against concurrence in the Clarke amendment and vote for the Smith-Lever substitute, which they regard as more preferable.

Congressional Lever, of South Carolina, author of the Smith-Lever substitute, declared that in his opinion the whole question would fall. He believes the house will refuse to recede and that the senate will eliminate the objectionable amendment from the tariff bill.

The question is of importance enough to justify that congress consider it on its merits as an original proposition, said Lever, "and we are going to vote against receding, even though some vote may deprive us of an opportunity to vote for the Smith-Lever substitute."

Members of the Georgia delegation felt that the cotton exchange should be regulated or suppressed, but they are opposed to licensing gambling, as they considered the Clarke amendment does. They believe that the question should be left to the states to decide for or against a distinct proposition, divorced from any tariff bill or other measure.

Advocates of the Clarke amendment in the house were very active this morning. The Arkansas and Mississippi delegations are understood to have decided to support the Clarke amendment. It is reported that they have formed a combination with Republicans and Progressives to vote over the Clarke amendment, if possible.

HUB TALLEY LANGUISHES IN COBB COUNTY JAIL

"Kid" Duker Is Keeping Hub From Being Lonesome in the Dungeon Keep

Hub Talley, the notorious whom Atlanta police have arrested time and again as a blind tiger and for other alleged offenses, languishes now in the Cobb county jail at Marietta. With him in the dungeon keep is a one-time prize fighter of Atlanta known as "Kid" Duker. The two of them are being held for the state courts to try. They are accused of having tried to bribe a police officer, and of having resisted an officer. Monday evening the conductor of a passenger train found Talley and Duker going north, put them off and delivered them into the custody of a policeman, saying they had refused to pay their fare. The policeman, attempting to put handcuffs on Talley, found him a tough customer, and in the ensuing wrestle a pistol fell from Talley's hip pocket. Both were jailed without much more ado.

HISTORY OF ATLANTA TO BE TOLD AT LIBRARY

Atlantians Invited to Help Make "Atlanta Room" More Complete

The history of Atlanta and Georgia, from early to modern times, will be the principal theme this year of the quarterly bulletin of the library. Just issued, says that the plan is also to have some of the older residents of Atlanta tell to the children their early experiences. Uncle Remus stories also are to be told. When spring and grand opera season roll around, a series of grand opera stories will be introduced into the program. For the springtime program of the younger children, a course formed partly by bird and flower stories has been planned. Miss Amelia Whitaker, in charge of the children's room at the main library, who arranged the reading lists, and Miss Henrietta Massingale, who will tell the stories, arranged the program together. Friday will be story day at the main library and Wednesday at the Anne Wallace branch.

READ IN NEWSPAPER THAT HUSBAND WANTED DIVORCE

Mrs. Mary Burton against whom J. O. Barton recently filed a sensational suit for divorce, on Tuesday entered a formal answer together with a cross-bill, asking alimony.

Mrs. Barton asserts that she considered herself living in a "state of matrimony" until she read in a newspaper that her husband had filed a suit for divorce. She says that she was shocked and that she frequently beats and abuses his children, and that finally one of her daughters had to have him arrested for whipping her.

Mrs. Barton declares that she could live in perfect happiness with Barton if it were not for his "vicious habit of abusing the children."

THE ATRES

(Reviews of theatrical performances at the local theatres are written by members of the Journal staff, and are furnished by the theatre management.)

ATLANTA—"Ready Money," Monday night. It should have been a horse play. If Atlanta really appreciates a good play there will be a different story when "Ready Money" reaches its stage here Tuesday night.

"Ready Money" breathes with the quality commonly known as "punch." It begins with an awful kick and before the second act is halfway over the audience is alternately laughing and thrilling.

James Montgomery wrote "Ready Money" and he wrote a masterpiece. The sparkle with which he writes the scenes along in a series of dramatic episodes that all move forward and on.

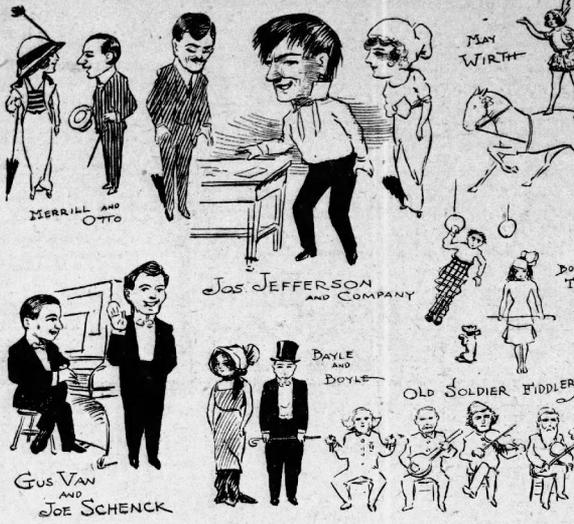

When the hero flashes his roll his friends jump to the conclusion at once that the day has come when he will be well on his way to the top.

There comes a time when one Jackson lives who makes the "quicker" better than the presentment itself.

When the hero flashes his roll his friends jump to the conclusion at once that the day has come when he will be well on his way to the top.

JUDGE RULES IN FAVOR OF PROBATION BREAKER

Holds Sentence Illegal, but Ruling Will Not Affect Probation Law. In ruling on a writ of habeas corpus brought before him Monday, Judge George L. Bell, of the superior court, held that the city recorder has no right to impose sentences for the violation of the probation ordinance.

The holding of the court will not have an important effect on the probation system of the recorder's court, for in future when a prisoner is put on probation he can at that time be sentenced to thirty days in the city prison and the sentence suspended. If he should violate the pledge he can be arraigned on a second charge and made to serve both terms.

One of the most helpful hat sales we have ever planned. It started two weeks ago in New York. Having captured a maker's entire stock of untrimmed hats underprice, our millinery chief determined to set the town agog with a hat sale at $10. To this end our milliners have been busily working the past ten days. Under their artistic touch, those untrimmed shapes have developed into the prettiest trimmed and tailored hats imaginable. In each hat there is full ten dollars ($10) worth of material and trimmings. The usual charge of making and trimming has been omitted. Were we to add that to the cost of the hats, you may be sure these hats would never be offered as low as $10. With these newly trimmed hats at $10 we have included a number of hats from regular stock formerly priced from a third to a half more. Your choice $10. $10 Hats in Models that Reflect Paris. The hats are of plain and panne velvets and rich plushes. Soft and semi-stiff crowns with the smart irregular brims now so fashionable. Trimmings of flowers, furs and feathers, fancy ostrich and egrette effects. Black, blue, brown, purple, tango, tete de negre, etc. A magnificent show and choice at $10. B-U-T-T-O-N-S. Everyone's Wearing 'Em. Rich's Alone Has 'Em. "I've shopped two weeks over," said a lady. "Here alone have I found a satisfactory stock of buttons." Thanks, But buttons are fashionable, so we must have every size, color, shape and price of buttons imaginable. We cannot imagine a woman coming here and not being satisfied. High self praise! But come and see the buttons. All of the staple kinds and a host of novelties. Buttons enameled with rosebuds, some with colored designs set deep in the crystal. Round buttons pearl painted with roses, cameo buttons, queer Oriental looking buttons which look as though they were made of yellow, blue, green and red all melted together. The jeweled buttons are wonderfully brilliant—they were actually made by jewelers. Also slides and ornaments—Note the collection of rhinestones and set steel slides, and other beautiful ornaments. MASTER OF HUNDREDS OF TERRAPINS IN ATLANTA

With "Toby" in His Pocket, W. M. Barbee, of Savannah, Arrived Here Monday

Seven little terrapins were born Monday at the Georgian Terrace hotel—a very proper place for them to be born, for they are aristocrats in their own right and the per capita value of their tribe is considerable.

Mr. Barbee left their protectors in his terrapin crawl on the Isle of Hope, bringing the youngsters with him in their respective cages in a specially devised traveling case. The case holds a series of cages, all dated accurately, which will hatch of their own accord, and that during the past year several other denominations than Methodists have been represented among the patients.

PLAN NEW BUILDING FOR WESLEY HOSPITAL

Ways and Means Committee Will Meet Tuesday Afternoon

The erection of a new building for Wesley Memorial hospital will be planned Wednesday, when steps will be taken for gathering subscriptions toward that end. Suggestions will be discussed in the morning of that day at a meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the hospital.

The following committee has been named to represent the auxiliary: Mrs. Henry H. Tucker, chairman; Mrs. John C. Miller, treasurer; Mrs. W. R. Prescott, secretary; Mrs. R. G. Millard, Mrs. George Thompson and Mrs. W. A. Candler.

BARNESVILLE CITIZENS AT CONSERVATION CONGRESS

BARNESVILLE Ga., Sept. 30.—Mayor J. M. Cochran, who is an official member of the National Conservation congress, being entitled to name two delegates and two alternates to attend the congress, which meets in Washington November 18, 19 and 20, has named the following citizens to represent Barnesville: Captain John F. Howard and A. Peacock and Edward Elder and J. W. Stafford.

The warden's office. He declares that it means the conservation of the terrapins, which really was near extinction at one time.

SOUTH GEORGIA HUMMER IS GIVEN FINE WELCOME

New Train on A. B. & A. Makes First Run—Daily Except Sunday

The first train on the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic's new schedule of a one-day round trip to Atlanta were run Monday.

"The start was a dandy success," said W. W. Croston, general passenger agent of the road, Tuesday morning. The authorities of the road were pleased exceedingly by the interest manifested all along the line and by the repeated assurances that the new schedule will meet with such favor that it cannot help being a winner.

The new train has been named "The South Georgia Hummer," and very appropriately, too, for it comes from a section that burns with industry, and it is a most venturesome itself.

MACON GINNER MAY DIE FROM NEGRO'S ATTACK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) MACON, Ga., Sept. 30.—A. G. Cooper, gin manager and superintendent of the farm of J. B. Thompson in the Rutland district near Macon, is in the Macon hospital suffering from a fractured skull he sustained when Mack Johnson, a negro laborer, struck him with an iron bar. Mr. Cooper is in a critical condition and doctors say he will not live. Johnson is in the Bibb county jail awaiting developments in the condition of Mr. Cooper.

SUNDAY MAIL WANTED BY POSTMASTER JONES

Asks for Open General Delivery Window and 10 o'Clock Box Service

Two innovations, an open general delivery window on Sundays, and the 10 o'clock postoffice box service on Sunday, have been requested of the department by Postmaster Jones.

Both these services were discontinued during the Hitchcock "economy" administration. At that time box distribution was stopped after midnight Saturday.

ENTHUSIASTIC REVIVAL AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Officials of the St. Paul Methodist church believe that the result of the first three days of the revival services under the direction of Rev. L. B. Bridges, indicates the most successful revival in the history of the church. Extensive preparations are being made for the great mass meeting for men only to be held next Sunday afternoon.

A number of interesting features are to be announced later. Mr. Bridges will deliver two sermons daily during the revival services, which will continue through next week. At 10:30 o'clock each morning there will be a song service followed by the sermon at 11. The evening services will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

HAIR COMING OUT? GOT DANDRUFF OR DOES SCALP ITCH?—25-CENT DANDERINE

Save your hair! Make it soft, fluffy, lustrous and beautiful

Try as you will after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it over your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxury, since the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Keeping the Body in Repair

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.

Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk.

The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

Braselton Replies to Thomson's Eleventh Hour Attack

I F the city tax fi. fa. of 1912 referred to by Mr. Thomson was not made from the fact that the same piece of property was returned for taxes by myself as lessee of the corner of Ellis and Peachtree and by Mr. J. B. Frost as owner through a mistake caused by a 99-year lease, and if the taxes which said fi. fa. as issued for was not paid during the year 1912, I will resign as alderman from the fourth ward, which I will be elected to today by the biggest majority of any candidate for alderman in the race.

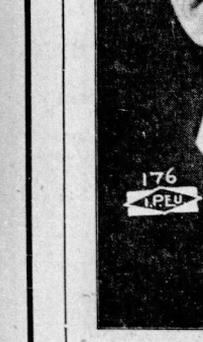

As to my not being registered, I am just one of the five or six thousand citizens of Atlanta who have been disfranchised by the ring politics in this special primary. The ring politicians allowed such little time for registration that between five and six thousand people failed to get registered.

As to Mr. Thomson being backed by ring politics, petty politics and petty politicians, I positively state that I was forced as a candidate against Mr. Thomson for alderman for the fourth ward to go to his private office, his business office, and pay my entrance fee so that I could become a candidate for alderman from the fourth ward.

Mr. Thomson says now that he voted for the referendum and recall, but he did not vote to let the people vote and he would not trust the people to vote, and he cannot deny it. It's a matter of record.

MY PLATFORM: I STAND FOR A LIBERAL, PROGRESSIVE, STRAIGHT BUSINESS POLICY.

How About Starting With the Dining Room Floor, So to Speak?

You've heard of the man whose daughter was a suffragette, haven't you? "What do the suffragettes want anyhow?" he asked her. "Why we want to sweep the country, Dad."

"Well, all right then. Suppose you begin with the dining room floor."

Dad was right. He wasn't unlike the old lady whose husband kept a store. Also he whittled a good deal and made things sociable for the local politicians.

"Si," said the old lady in her man o' war voice one day when she ran into a full-fledged debate on the currency question. "You git up from here. I'm plum tired o' hearing you all running the government while them front windows needs washin' so bad."

And it's pretty safe to guess that Si got busy on the front windows right away. Commerce, like charity and cleaning-up, should begin at home.

That's the way we feel about it and that's why we are spending time and money telling our HOME-FOLKS that they ought to use ATLANTA-MADE goods.

Once upon a time there was an advertising man who crystallized his advertising creed into a batch of splendid little paragraphs.

He was a thinker as well as an ad-man (which may sound funny); but anyhow he managed to corral a lot of good ideas and out of them he made him a creed.

Here's the heart of it: "I BELIEVE in the house I am with; in its soundness, its integrity, the wisdom of its methods and the goodness of its merchandise. "I BELIEVE in my public; in its friendliness to my house; in its appreciation of our honesty, our methods, our ability. "I BELIEVE in talking in print to my public confidentially, that our confidence is mutual; WE DO NOT FAIL EACH OTHER."

That, brother, is SOME creed! It's a good one for every mother's child of us who is concerned with the business end of a Supply-and-Demand proposition, salesman, merchant, manufacturer, consumer.

It's a good one for ATLANTA. Adapted to ATLANTA, here's what it comes to: "I BELIEVE IN MYSELF. I've got the best assets on the face of the earth, men who cherish me, women who love me, merchants who uphold me, manufacturers who enrich me, workers who boost me, a citizenship that honors me!

"Besides, I have the ATLANTA SPIRIT, the tonic marvelous! "I BELIEVE IN MY FOLKS, their pride, their enthusiasm, their desire to set me upon the pinnacle of commercial fame.

"I, too, BELIEVE IN TALKING in my people, my public, in a confidential way. AND— "I BELIEVE THAT WE WILL NOT FAIL EACH OTHER."

Thus ATLANTA. ATLANTA has more factories than any other town of her size in the country.

These factories produce more and better goods, and in wider variety, than the factories of any other town of ATLANTA'S size. We who sign this bulletin are manufacturers of PURE FOODS.

These goods are sold in a daily expanding market. They are growing in fame and favor.

They are traveling far and traveling fast. Merit is the motive-power. They are bought with eagerness and used with confidence by thousands of people all over the State, the South, the Country.

The going is good. We're well pleased. But— We folks who sign this message to you don't propose that a prophet shall be without honor in his own country.

In other words, we are just setting out in a vigorous, whole-soled campaign to show why it is to your own individual advantage, ATLANTA MEN AND WOMEN, to buy and use ATLANTA MADE STUFF.

Make up your mind to help us. Start home—your own home. Your grocer will give you what you want, if you only make it plain to him. Look over this list and get our goods. They're the best you can buy. They're a-going to sweep the country, but we want to start with our own dining-rooms.

TAX BILL LOOMS BIG IN GUBERNATORIAL RACE

Equalization Questions to Be Big Issue in Political Campaigns

The question of whether the state tax equalization act, passed by the last general assembly, shall remain in effect or be repealed will, according to Representative B. H. Moyer, of Johnson county, be one of the principal issues in the gubernatorial and legislative campaigns next fall.

Representative Moyer, an attorney of Wrightsville, and who was in Atlanta Tuesday on business, states that the grand jury of his own county last week adopted resolutions calling upon him to introduce a bill to repeal the state tax equalization act, and he says he has been informed that grand juries of other counties have taken similar action and that still others are planning to do so.

"I was called before the grand jury of my county," said Mr. Moyer, "and informed of the action taken. I told the members that notwithstanding I had opposed the tax equalization bill in the house and had voted against it I would be compelled to decline to introduce a repealing bill. I gave as my reason for such declination that the personnel of next year's legislature would be the same as that of this year and that the majority of the members, who supported the tax equalization bill, would oppose its repeal until after it was given a trial of at least two years.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

More Estelle Mershon Hats Have Arrived

Announcement of the arrival of hats from Estelle Mershon, 20 E. 46th Street, New York, carries with it its own argument.

The fact that this shop has been held up to fashionable New York as showing some of the smartest Paris ideas is not without significance.

Nor did it "just happen." Estelle Mershon is in very close touch with Paris--through its emissaries it sends to Paris every season and its permanent organization it maintains there.

Nothing new along the Rue de la Paix escapes Estelle Mershon and consequently nothing escapes Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose.

These hats that were unboxed Monday are fine evidences. Will you see them? We warrant they will be happy surprises.

All the Favored Silks Are Here

Not just a few to choose from, but a splendid array--as broad as fashion itself, but no broader.

We have excluded the bizarre that too often clutters ordinary silk stores when the style tendencies turn toward richness of fabric and patterns.

The silks you are invited to see here are those that women of good taste will want--because they are really marks of true beauty!

These are some of them.

Crepe de Chines $1.50 yard, 40 inches wide, in navy, brown, green, red, Alice, taupe, shades of rose, light gray, the prune shades to wistaria, pink, morning, light, maize and black and white.

Crepe Meteors $2.00 a yard, 42 inches wide, dahlia, wistaria, copper, navy corbeau, taupe, light blue, king's blue, pink, black and white.

Pebble-back Meteor $2.50 a yard Much sought right now, in copper peacock blue, navy, dull brown and other shades.

Failla Charmeuse $3.50 a yard, 42 inches wide. A wonderfully soft fabric for the draped fashions of this season. The color card is complete.

Failla Sublime Poplin $3.00 a yard. A perfected poplin for street dresses, long-wearing, soft, supple--in the darker shades.

Mikado Brocade Crepe $2.50 a yard, 42 inches wide. It has the real crepe appearance. About all shades. The plain Mikado crepe to match is $2.00 a yard.

Balkan Crepe $3.50 a yard, 42 inches wide. One of the aristocrats of the crepe realm. In navy, Alice, wistaria, bronze, taupe and black.

Brocade Silks at $2.50 to $7.50 a yard, that are variously named and variously rich--charmeuse, meteor, poplins, failles--many, many shades--many new ones, including corbeau, tete de negre copper, bronze and morning light.

Moire Silks at $3.50 a yard, 30 inches wide; especially good this season for coats.

Chiffon Velvet Broche at $8.50 a yard. The chiffon with the brocade velvet wonderfully woven over it. Exquisite shades and black.

Viole Velvet Broche at $12.50 and $13.50 a yard. A Paris fabric, showing great rose and winding patterns in reds and blues on black and navy, green, rose, tete de negre and brown. Forty inches wide.

Charmeuse Velvet at $7.50 yard. A new and light weight velvet in French colors, 40 inches wide.

Plain Black Velvets at $3.50, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 to $9.00 a yard, in the very light weight best for dress, 42 and 44 inches wide.

Plushes at $5.50 and $7.50 a yard, in black, wistaria, navy and taupe, 40 and 42 inches wide.

The New Woolens

A display that grants you the privilege of making up your own mind! Sit here for half an hour and have one new fabric after another spread before you.

Does your taste turn to the simple and unobtrusive? Does it turn to the rich, glorious fabrics that have such a claim on the fashions this Fall? It matters little.

They are here. You will not be urged one way or the other. But these are some of the notables--

Wool Crepe $1.00 a yard, 44 inches wide, in black and colors.

Basket Weave Crepe $1.00 a yard, 44 inches wide, a favorite this season, black and colors.

Crepe Solie $1.25 a yard, a beautiful silk and wool fabric, black and colors.

Crepe Bengaline $1.50 a yard, 54 inches wide, a crepe-finish bengaline of fine texture, black and colors.

Failla de Laine $1.50 a yard, 44 inches wide. We find it used in many novelty suits, black and colors.

Woolen Cut Velvet $2.50 a yard, 54 inches wide, a heavy velvet that will find favor this season, novelty shades.

Silk and Wool Matelasse, 44 inches wide in soft, rich colorings for suits--plain cloths to match.

Broadcloths $3.00 a yard, 54 inches wide, with invisible self-stripes, a novelty, many shades.

Eponge $2.00 yard, 54 inches wide, a color card that shows the season's favored shades.

Charmeuse Serge $3.00 a yard, 54 inches wide, a brilliant surfaced long-wearing fabric, in black, navy, taupe and brown.

Peau de Soie $4.00 to $5.00 a yard, 54 inches wide, in black only--a fine, supple beaver cloth.

Unadorned Furniture

Oftenest it is the most worthy kind. It is difficult to hide inferior qualities of wood and poor workmanship in furniture of simple design and plain lines. Quality will tell.

We would have you judge this furniture store by the quality and grade of the unadorned furniture it shows.

And how well this kind fits into the average Southern home --where things are what they seem, where we live what we are.

In the new stocks now filling this five-story furniture store (reached through either Whitehall St. entrance) there are many, many pieces and sets of such furniture. Unadorned and inexpensive, but sturdy and genuine and carrying with it the assurance of always being in good taste.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BED TIME

Copyright, 1913, by J. G. Lloyd. Danny Meadow Mouse had kept perfectly still for a long time inside the old tomato can in which he had found refuge from Redtail the hawk...

"If I stay here long enough he'll get tired and go away, if he hasn't already," thought Danny. "This has been a pretty exciting morning so far, and I find that I am a little tired. I may as well take my nap while I am waiting, to make sure that the way is clear."

With that, Danny curled up for a nap in the old tomato can. But it wasn't long before he was awakened by a loud noise. He had closed his eyes, but his ears were still open, and presently he heard soft footsteps drawing near. His eyes flew open and he forgot all about sleep.

"Oh, dear! I hope he doesn't find out that I am in here!" thought Danny. "I wonder what Dasher the sun has brought him up here just now?"

If the truth were to be known, it was curiosity that had brought Reddy up there. Reddy had been hunting for his breakfast some distance away, on the Green Meadows, when Redtail the Hawk had tried to catch Danny Meadow Mouse. Reddy's sharp eyes had seen Redtail the hawk and he had dodged into the old tomato can.

"Now, I wonder what Dasher Redtail was after and why he didn't get it?" thought Reddy. "He acts terribly out of the ordinary. I believe I'll go and see what he has done."

To make up his mind to sit with-out waste of time with Reddy Fox, and he started at a smart trot toward the path of short grass, where he had seen Redtail the hawk strike at something on the ground and finally fly off in disgust at his empty claws.

There was nothing to be seen but an old tomato can dropped there by a farmer's boy on his way home from fishing in the Smiling Pool a long time before. Reddy had seen the old can many times before.

An Unrivaled Autumn Exposition of Fashions in Gowns, Costumes, Wraps, Suits and Furs.

Our Entire Fourth Floor Tomorrow a Beautiful Panorama of Fashions

Palms and Flowers Wave a Welcome

The salons of women's dress on the Fourth Floor will assuredly be the center of attraction for a host of Atlanta beauty-loving women tomorrow.

A display unexcelled in the presentation of the new and beautiful, and unsurpassed in the faithful interpretation of present fashions. It is an accomplishment extraordinary from a merchandising standpoint, and an event of unusual interest to women--an occasion, so to speak, for their personal education in matters of dress. It presents to the cosmopolitan eye the fashion tendencies of the world--the chosen and accepted of connoisseurs in styles.

From Whitehall street to Broad street--the entire Fourth Floor invites your inspection. There are new wonders in apparel delight at every turn. There are color combinations, audacious in thought, but toned to subtleties in decorative scheme; materials that seemingly level in their own richness.

Garnitures with elegance to satisfy the most ardent lovers of luxury--all without one dissonant note.

This is our most resplendent Fashion Exhibit, planned for the indulgence of our following of Fashionable Folk. It is unique in its position as the deciding factor in dress--its stands alone in importance and exclusiveness, in the history of our merchandising career.

The Pricing is really marvelously low as you will observe as you read, but more so as you see the superb apparel Wednesday, in all of its beauty and indescribable charm.

And There Are Correct Costumes for Every Occasion

Dinner gowns of silks, satins, velvets and chiffons, with garnitures of gold and silver, pearly sequins, crystal in its most scintillating form, and a wealth of laces, chiffons and kindred filmy stuffs. There are gowns of simple elegance with a dignity becoming the grande dame and fanciful frocks for la jeune fille. Dancing Dresses as light as a summer zephyr and stately garments that deign the decorative touch of little but their own colorings.

Of Special Interest to la Debutante

For la debutante, dresses as varied as the functions attending her formal debut. There are afternoon gowns in scores of variations. The foaming chiffon and lace billows of the evening and dance dresses bring into high relief marvelous combinations of trimmings and color tones, brilliant and beadwork which catch new lights and shadows at every turn.

And all the way down a long list of gowns to the simple little dress of serge, worn thrice perhaps, a dozen times before the dinner gowns airs its newness. There is a noticeable refreshing difference, that bids this new apparel welcome.

Superb Evening and Afternoon Wraps

Mark you the lines of the new wrap! Therein lies its success. None but the world's best artists could conceive departures so marked, so highly artistic, so partial to the sumptuousness of fashionable materials.

Note This Pricing of Elegant Gowns, Wraps and Suits

"SLIPPING ONE OVER" ON THE CHINK

THE SPORLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

As we make brief inspection of the box score evolved from the second battle of the 1911 series, our fancy drifts at once to a piece of ash furniture—a loud, rasping noise and a right field fence some 100 feet away.

Left on bases—Giants 3, Athletics 2. First base on errors—Athletics 1. Two-base hits—Collins, Herzog. Home run—Baker. Hit—OF Marquard 4 in eight innings. Struck out—By Marquard 4, by Crandall 2, by Plank 8. Hit by pitched ball—By Plank (Stodgrass). Wild Pitch—Marquard. Umpire—Connolly behind the bat. Brennan on bases, Dineen on right field foul line, Kiern on left field foul line. That same piece of ash furniture and a right field fence settled the issue of the series beyond all doubt. They were there in 1911—and their producer will again be on deck for 1913, looming ahead as one of the most dangerous single factors of the series. You guessed it the first time the name is John Franklin Baker, of Franks, Md.

BAKER AND THE DOPE.
Baker showed in that series the tremendous value of one keen-eyed, long distance clonker—doubly valuable in the drift of close scoring.
After a brief case of fluttering dock fits, Marquard had rallied and swept into one of the finest pitching streaks he has ever known. The game had been tied up, and there were two on, and there were two out, when Collins doubled and the Trappe error arrived with his bristling bludgeon. Rubbe, still content, stuck a high, fast one over, and two seconds later there was a round, white blot against the azure sky—and the end of a pitched battle.
Collins started the upheaval in that inning and Baker finished it. These two are still on deck, hitting the ball as mightily as ever, and to ever beat the Mackmen Giant pitchers must at least hold their pitch in check—a job almost as easy as suppressing a hurricane or curbing a typhoon around the south seas.

These are the two that lead the Mackian assault, and the Giants have no pair like them to set fire to the fuse.
To show the value of two such people, inhale once more the circumstances. Marquard couldn't have pitched a finer game than he allowed but four hits and failed to yield a pass—yet of these four hits two came together and the last drifted on beyond the mortal sight of the 30,000 who saw the game.

WHAT THEY MEAN.
Long distance batting means even more in such a brief series than in 154 games. And Mack has two such volleyers to McGraw's MARQUARD AND PLANK.

Plank in that battle was at his best—far beyond his form of 1905. But two years have passed since then—and two years are long actions of a lifetime when one is thirty-nine and a toiler on the mound. He has been battered harder in the last two months than at any period of his career, and there is room to question the guess that he can pitch another game like that.
But the two years that have put Plank from 37 to 39, have passed up Marquard from 22 to 24. They have proved one man well on beyond his pitching prime—and have pulled the other down much further up the highway of experience, with his prime still beyond.

A GIANT EDGE.
Plank is one of the game's underdogs—but there are always limits to any battle against time. He can be no better and will hardly be as good, while Marquard shows more experience than in his two starts last year, where he was hit a trifle harder but with less deadly effect.
All that Mack will ask of Plank is one well-pitched game. It isn't probable that he will be good for more than a pitch or two. Marquard has a left-hander who can go the route twice at top speed, and who will be even harder to hit.

PLANK MARVEL.
One doesn't improve at thirty-seven as one does at twenty-two—upon the ball field. Plank certainly has not come forward; Marquard has. The veteran had one in thirty-nine and one on the mound. He has a lot. He has as much stuff, and what is more to the point, as has a closer at hand, under better control for emergencies.
Marquard has a harder game to pitch than Plank will face. But with it closer ahead and the confidence inspired by his two victories last fall, the Mackmen will look upon a different pitcher; and, barring Collins and Baker, they found him hard enough then.

PLANK A MARVEL.
The wonder of it is that Plank at thirty-nine years, six years older than Mathewson, should still be held as one of the factors of a championship series. He is the steadiest left hander that ever threw a ball—one of the coolest and one of the wisest for a ten-round victory of rest, and for that one game in which he works will bear watching.

THE FIRST BREAK.
After a brief flutter the first day, the fielding corps settled to its work. And it was here that the Giant support first began to reel and crumble—and it has done in almost every world series game since. This portion of their post-season play for two years must be eliminated or they have no chance. An extra time at bat allotted to almost any of Mack's lectors may bring disaster at any moment. The slubmen facing this Philadelphia club has enough to do with valiant bakins, much less the other type.

Along which line it may be noted that McGraw's team has set this season and is playing with the greatest steadiness it has ever shown since assuming a championship role.
Marquard has improved for McGraw and his field play has come forward since that second battle of 1911, but Collins and Baker are still there and back of them ranges Stuff McInnis, holding intact the old, three triump.

Take Up Writing By Ball Player

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The National next commission will meet here on Monday to make final arrangements for the world's series between the New York National and Philadelphia American league clubs. Among the matters which will be considered is the selection of certain players since the commission's action last week in ruling that the writing of the championship baseball will be left to the recognized baseball reporters.

WOLGAST AND NELSON, HAS BEEN MATCHED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 30.
 * Ad Walgast, of Cadillac, Mich., and Rutledge, of Milwaukee, Wis., will play a two games, two weight champions, today staged at the Milwaukee Athletic Club. The contest is for a ten-round victory in boxing contest at 133 pounds, to be held here October 13.

Canada Star Wins Tourney

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—British and American champions of today had to go to the prowess of Miss Nesbitt, of Woodstock, in the qualifying round of the women's golf championship of Canada, played on the links of the Royal Montreal club, so far as the low score was concerned. Miss Nesbitt turned in a net card of 89 for the 18 holes, while the best Miss Mariel Dodd, the English champion, and Mrs. B. H. Barlow, of Philadelphia, the American champion, could do was, respectively, 98 and 94. Miss Gladys Havenscroft, last year's English champion, made the round in 92.

Thirty-eight of the eighty-six entrants qualified.

Emory Teams Now at Work

EMORY COLLEGE, Oxford, Ga., Sept. 30.—Coach Shingles, who had his arm broken by the back firing of engine when he attempted to crank an automobile, was out for his first practice with the junior team Saturday afternoon. He carried his arm in a sling, but followed up a warm scrimmage for an hour, which consisted mainly in running signals.
 Coach Peebles, of the sophomore eleven, and Coach Hamer, of the senior team, were on Weber field this afternoon, carrying their respective prospects through warm preliminary tactics.
 The freshman team is without a coach, but their manager is carrying on hard work with the new athletes.
 The football season will open Monday, October 13, with two games, when the seniors and juniors tie up and the soph and freshmen meet.

Tie Game Played

TOKIO, Sept. 30.—The Waseda university baseball team and the visiting nine from the University of Washington, Seattle, played a tie game being interrupted by darkness.
 The score was:

POULTRY, PIGEONS AND LIVE STOCK
Poultry Shows Throughout the South

THERE will be a large number of poultry shows conducted in the south this season, and we are trying to get the name of the secretary of each show so that we can publish same as early as possible...

The poultry shows and fairs are doing more to distribute good poultry and live stock and to educate the general public to the possibilities and advantages of keeping thoroughbred...

The thoroughbreds are fast taking the place of the scrubs, and the sooner our country is stocked with good stock the better off will we be. It will not only increase our profits, but will encourage better displays at the fairs...

Yours very truly,

QUESTIONS ASKED AND ANSWERED.

QUESTION: I have about one dozen small fliers that have the rump. I have given salts and sulphur for several weeks...

ANSWER: Roup should be treated with potassium permanganate of potash. Salts and sulphur are not good ideas to use for it...

QUESTION: I have a lot of chickens that are very fat and I am afraid they will not live long...

ANSWER: It is not a good idea to have fat chickens. They will not live long and they will not lay well...

RHEUMATIC PAINS PROMPTLY DISAPPEAR

Relief Comes After Taking Few Doses of Croxone

It is needless to suffer with rheumatism, and be crippled up and bent out of shape with its bone-racking pain, when you can avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys that fail to filter out of the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, and the only way to overcome it is to remove the cause.

Croxone does this because it neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause inflammation, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter the poison from the blood, and drive it out of the system.

Croxone is a truly remarkable medicine for rheumatism, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. There is nothing else that will find it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it without relief. Relief follows the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly all misery and suffering will end.

An entire package of Croxone costs but a trifle and all druggists are authorized to sell it, or you may buy it direct from the manufacturer. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to overcome it.

MRS. MANGES ESCAPES OPERAT

How She Has Saved Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first time I was married I suffered so much from the same trouble that I had to undergo an operation, but my husband had three bottles and it made me strong and I avoided a dread-treatment. I now have two fine babies, and I cannot say too much for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done for me what no other medicine could do."—MRS. MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take such an operation or drug out of their hearts existence, missing three of the joy of living, when they can get the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with menstrual displacements, inflammation, tumors, etc., by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been a remedy for female ills, and it has stored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with menstrual displacements, inflammation, tumors, etc., by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has done for me what no other medicine could do."—MRS. MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

YOU NEED A COUP OF CALOME

How often you've heard And you took calomel And you were sick Awfully sick.

PODOLO

does all that calomel does. It's gentler. It cures constipation, tumors, you are sick. Don't whip your poor old bowels with calomel. Try PODOLO. It's the best. Write for PODOLO to the Podologo Co., 100 N. Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

UP-TO-DATE DRUGGISTS GIVE YOU WHAT YOU ASK FOR

The Old Joke about "Something Just as Good," Doesn't Apply Any Longer.

You have probably heard dozens of times the old story that a drug store was a place to "get something just as good." There is at least one medicine in the world that no sane druggist will try to offer a substitute for.

It is certain that an inferior article should never be substituted for a safe, reliable remedy for constipation and liver trouble like Doan's Liver Tonic.

Nevertheless, this harmless vegetable liquid has proved so satisfactory a liver stimulant and reliever of biliousness as to entirely take the place of calomel without any danger or restriction of habits or diet, that there are dozens of preparations springing up with imitations of its claims.

But Doan's Liver Tonic is guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it and if you are not satisfied with it, the druggist who sold it to you will hand your money back with a smile. Any person going to take drugs store for a bottle of Doan's Liver Tonic will be sure to get the genuine remedy in exchange for his half dollar. All Atlanta druggists.—(Adv.)
